Jund Named AFCA All American Honorable Mention

The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) released the 2022 AFCA NAIA Coaches' All-America Teams today. Montana Western senior quarterback Jon Jund was named All American Honorable Mention.

Jund, a 6'1 senior quarterback from Spring Creek, Nev., was named First Team All-Conference Offense and was named Offensive Player of the Year for the second year in a row after this season. This is also his third all-conference selection in his career. Jund led the conference in passing yards per game (218.3) and passing touchdowns (22). He was tied for first overall in rushing touchdowns with nine total. Jund also had the most passing yards with 2401, the most completions with 189 total, and had the second highest completion percentage (60.4). Jund was eighth in the conference in rushing yards (502) and rushed for 45.6 yards per game.

The AFCA's NAIA All-America Selection Committee is made up of two head coaches from each of the AFCA's seven districts, one of whom serves as a district chairman, along with another head coach who serves as the chairman of the selection committee. The coaches in each district are responsible for ranking the top players in their respective districts prior to a conference call between the district chairmen and the committee chairman on which the team is chosen.

Community Pond Program grant money available

Groups or individuals interested in constructing or improving a community fishing pond have until Feb. 1 to apply for a Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Community Pond Program grant. The objective of the Community Pond Program is to enhance public fishing opportunities in or near Montana communities by providing funding that may be used to construct or improve a public fishing pond.

Applicants must provide at least 30 percent of the total project cost, which can include contributions such as heavy equipment time, construction materials, labor, engineering services and more. Anyone wishing to sponsor a project may apply. A total of $100,000 in grant funds is available for projects on ponds that offer public fishing opportunities. Past projects include building habitat structures, dock installations, pond dredging, ADA-accessible angling amenities and the purchase of aerators.

Since 2003, the Community Pond Program has funded projects that benefit young anglers and their families by providing locations where individuals of all ages can learn angling skills. Additional information on the Community Pond Program, including a grant application form, is available on the FWP website at fwp.mt.gov/aboutfwp/grant-programs/community-pond.

Applications, which are accepted each year, must be received on or before Feb. 1. Applicants are required to contact their local FWP fisheries biologist to obtain project support. For more information, contact Michelle McGree, FWP program officer, at 406-444-2432 or mmcgree@mt.gov.

FIRE BELOW

By "Swede" Troedsson

In the 1980's I was assigned as a Sector Boss on a fire in the Salmon River country in Idaho. I was supervising several fire crews building fireline downhill on a steep slope with fire below them. One of my crew was closest to the fire below. Their boss recognized the potential threat to his crew and pulled his crew out of my sector. A basic fire fighting rule is you NEVER build fireline downhill with fire below you.

That evening in camp, I looked up the crew boss. Upon locating him I shook his hand, and told him he did the right thing in leaving my sector after recognizing the potential threat to his crew.

A wildland fire researcher stated that 60% of wildland firefighter fatalities involve fire below. The 1949 Mann Gulch fire, near Helena, Montana, comes to mind. Thirteen firefighters, including twelve smokejumpers, were killed trying to outrun a fire that blew up below them. I read two accounts in the National Smoke Jumper Association magazines where smokejumpers refused orders to build fireline downhill with fire below them. In both instances the fires later blew up and would have killed the smokejumpers had they obeyed the orders.

Veteran's Corner. Update #182
By Mike Lawson
Greetings to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran's update articles. As I start writing this column, it's Saturday evening (Dec 10th). This day took me to Dillon in the morning, where being on a Toys For Tot's mission, I attended a "Toys For Tots" pool tournament at the Moose Bar, in Dillon, Mt.. While there, I picked up toys at our collection boxes at Murdocks and at Les Schwab's. I also picked up applications submitted for kids, who need presents at Christmas. It was a beautiful drive and the people of Dillon are generous to a fault, when kids are involved. The Pool Tournament was a great success. Craig the owner, as well as all the players, were very generous, with the result being a very substantial donation to the TFT's campaign. This helped the Dillon's kids parents in need, provide presents to their children, that otherwise wouldn't have been possible for them to do. The toys I collected were many and the spirit of giving and caring, by the folks at Murdocks and Les Schwabs, was heartwarming. These warm/giving attitudes, in Dillon, verify that including Dillon in our TFT Campaign, a few years ago, was the absolute right thing to do. We find that in all the areas we cover in our TFT's Campaign, people volunteer, give gifts/money, etc., with open hearts, in support of the kids. With Christmas being a week plus days away, I have a stock trailer I converted to a hunting trailer, that we'll load up with the bagged toys for all the kids in Whitehall, TwinBridges/Ruby Valley, and Dillon. It's like being Santa Claus, when we drive to the designated pick-up place for each location. A lot of happiness and laughter, when we arrive and what a privilege to know we made a difference in their children's lives.

On Friday, December 16th, there will be a TFT's Dinner/Dance at the Elks Club in Butte. If you're free to do so, it's very well done and fun evening.

The Christmas Store that our Veteran Auxiliary ladies helped set up for our SW MT Resident Veterans, to do some shopping for their loved ones, was a great success. These ladies helped these Vets pick out gifts and provided the money, given by the SW MT Veterans Home Foundation, to pay for them. They also helped them get the gifts sent, if the need was there for that. It was just the right thing to do and was well appreciated by these Vets.

We've lost a number of Veterans in the last week or so. I "Hand Salute" each of them for serving their country. Our Veteran Honor Guards will give them a proper Veteran ceremonial send-off, if requested, no matter what the weather conditions are. We dress for it and know the deceased Veteran deserves no less.

Being a DAV Van Driver, we see Veterans with many different health issues. One thing we see, time and time again, is the importance of a Veteran getting health care and not putting this care off, for another day. An example of this recently, was my taking a Veteran to get a heart cauterization that he debated in putting off for a couple of months. As it turned out, he had one completely blocked artery and another one partially blocked. They told him they needed to get him to Missoula to get a bypass, as soon as possible, and have the partially blocked artery worked on also. On the way home, this Veteran said that it was good that he didn't wait to get this procedure done, as he might not have lived that long, if he had waited. The DAV Van program is all about giving veterans a ride to their medical appointments, free of charge. All of the Local Area Coordinators and Drivers are volunteers and are dedicated/honored in serving our Veteran Community in this way. We can also transport a Veteran and his/her caretaker to medical appointments. The moral of the story is, don't wait to get health care, as it might be too late if you do.

Wreath Walk
 Bannack is looking festive with 15 wreaths hung throughout the townsite. If you can't go out to see them, go to the Bannack Association Facebook page to see pictures. The silent auction has started. Bids can be made by messaging the Bannack Association on Facebook and giving them your name, phone number, your bid amount and the number of the wreath you want. Local bidders only, please, so the Wreath can be picked up or delivered.
 Join us for the reception on Saturday 12/17 from 1 to 3 in the Hotel Meade. Food and hot drinks will be provided. Silent auction ends then. Come join in the fun!
