Thank you

The family of Steve Jenkins...Jan Jenkins, Kellie, Justin & Patrick Brewer and Mike and Meg Jenkins, would like to thank the kind people of this extraordinary community for their compassion, support and help during what has been an incredibly difficult and surreal time. Sara Bennett, Cathy Huckle, Leslie Cox, Todd Rouse, Mike Boka, Bruce Smith, Dr. John Madany, Pastor Blake Wilson, Pastor Lance Morrison the people at Safeway, PSI Propane, Vigilante Electric, Stockman Bank, Air Grids, the Dillonite, Dillon PD, the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Dept., the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Dept., our incredible neighbors on Crystal Lane and so many others I can't name them all. Not sure how we would have made it through this ordeal without you. Our heartfelt thanks to everyone.

With the deepest love and gratitude.
The Jenkins and Brewer Families.

Thank you

Kennel Club would like to thank the festival of trees committee for making us one of the recipients of the 2022 event. Your hard work made the event a beautiful and enjoyable evening for Dillon.

Thanks also to everyone who donated trees, baskets and live auction items. Without you we wouldn't have had all the wonderful items for people to bid on. Because of your generosity we are able to have two spay and neuter clinics in 2023

Ennis Fishing Access Site closed temporarily due to flooding

Ennis Fishing Access Site has been closed temporarily due to flooding.

Ice jams on portions of the upper Madison River have caused water, ice and debris to inundate the site, creating unsafe conditions for motorists and pedestrians. Access to the site will be restored as soon as conditions allow.

Valley Garden Fishing Access Site northeast of Ennis is also under a temporary closure due to floods. Seasonal flooding may impact access at other sites throughout the winter. Visit fwp.mt.gov to learn more about temporary closures that may be in effect across the state.

Mears Honored With First-Team Academic All-America Honors

The College Sports Communicators (CSC) released the Academic All-America teams Tuesday morning. Montana Western kicker John Mears was named First Team Academic All-America. Mears is the second athlete in Montana Western history to achieve a first team selection and the third to earn Academic All-America honors.

Mears, a redshirt sophomore kicker from Belgrade, Mont., currently boasts a 3.87 grade-point average while majoring in Physical Education and Health K-12 at Montana Western. This season, Mears was 42 for 47 on PATs. He was also 8 for 10 on field goals this season with a career long field goal of 46-yards made against Rocky Mountain in the final game of the season.

CSC members vote on Academic All-District teams within their division and district. All-District selections advance to the national ballot where members vote for Academic All-America teams within their division.

The NAIA All-America program is financially supported by the NAIA national governance structure to assist CoSIDA with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2022-23 NAIA Academic All-America team program.

For more information regarding the Academic All-America program, visit <https://academicallamerica.com/>.

Dr. Shane Borrowman Publishes Essay in Weber: The Contemporary West Journal

University of Montana Western Professor of English, Dr. Shane Borrowman, recently had his essay "Cemetery Vodka and the Language of Flowers" published in Weber: The Contemporary West journal.

Dr. Borrowman attended Eastern Washington University where he earned a B.A.E. and M.A. in American Literature as well as an M.A. in Rhetoric and Composition. He went on to receive a Ph.D. in Rhetoric and Composition, and the Teaching of English from the University of Arizona. Currently, he teaches all of the creative writing and editing/publishing classes in the English Department's Professional Writing minor.

Dr. Borrowman's essay, "Cemetery Vodka and the Language of Flowers", was featured in the Fall 2022 volume of the Weber, an international, peer-reviewed journal by Weber State University spotlighting personal narrative, commentary, fiction, nonfiction, and poetry that speaks to the environment and culture of the American West and beyond.

In this emotional essay, Dr. Borrowman attempts to make sense of two suicides within his family, his great-grandfather in the early 1950s and one of his great-grandfathers' sons in the mid 1990s. The publication represents the culmination of years of research into the author's family history, alcoholism, and suicide.

The essay is among several that Dr. Borrowman has published about his family, including "Chips" in Conclave: A Journal of Character, "Peter Benchley is Dead" in Fourth Genre, and "Icky Papa Died" in Brevity.

Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program advisory council to meet January 12

The Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program (WHIP) advisory council will meet Thursday, Jan. 12, at 9 a.m. at the Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks conference room. People can attend via Zoom or in-person.

WHIP was established during the 2017 Legislature to set aside up to $2 million of federal Pittman-Robertson funding annually for the purpose of wildlife habitat restoration work in the form of noxious weed management. The program focuses on landscape-scale projects involving multiple landowners working together to solve noxious weed issues in priority wildlife habitats. The council will meet to discuss program administration. A public comment opportunity is scheduled for approximately 11:30 a.m. (time is approximate).
