Kory Stephen Dyk

July 20, 1984 - December 25, 2022

Kory Stephen Dyk, 38, of Laurel, MT unexpectedly passed away in his favorite place—his home shop—on December 25, 2022. It is fitting that Kory, a faithful Christian, joined our Lord and Savior on His birthday.

Kory will be missed by many, especially by his family whom he adored. Fynnly (10), Scout (8), and Mack (6) were Kory's top priority. One of Kory's favorite things to do with Fynnly was to build Legos and watch Lego Masters. They started building Legos together before Fynnly could walk. He also passed on his love of rock music to his girl. With Scout, Kory spent many hours in the shop working on RC's and drones or playing video games. They were frequently seen cruising down the road together in the International Scout, a tractor, a pickup, or some other vehicle. Kory taught Mack many of his dance moves including the fist bump, and the two were often seen rocking out and dancing in the kitchen or basement. Mack also loved joining Kory in the shop and helping him clean. Although some might say Kory's next love was his wife and high school sweetheart, Ashlynn, she would argue that his next love was tractors. After many years dating/engaged, they were married in Dillon, MT on June 27, 2009 spending 20 years together.

Kory followed his father's footsteps studying Petroleum Engineering at Montana Tech where he made life-long friends and played football for the infamous Coach Green. He was a workaholic who took a great deal of pride in his job and rightfully so; he was very good at what he did which was recognized by many. He had a heart for the guys on the ground doing the field work where he also liked to be found. He frequently observed and instantly respected those whose hands were dirty, stained, and/or torn up. Kory was a rational thinker (sometimes to a fault) and a good teacher. He enjoyed many hobbies including dirt biking, football, RC's, Legos, camping, welding, and so much more. Mostly, though, Kory enjoyed tinkering on mechanical things and building, rebuilding, and/or restoring old vehicles and tractors including the International Scout. He frequently acted like his toys and adventures were for the kids/family, but everyone who knew Kory knew he was a [really big] kid at heart who was reliving his childhood with his own children.

Kory is survived by his three children Fynnly, Scout, and Mack; wife Ashlynn; parents Joe (Diane) Dyk and Gwen (Rod) McRae; parents-in law TJ and Gayleen Reynolds; siblings Chris (Terra) Dyk, Lisa Alex, and Tyler Dyk; brother-in-law Lynn (Shannon) Reynolds; grandmother Arlitta Fenner; and many cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

Services will be held at The Rock Church in Laurel, MT at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 29, 2022. All are welcome to join.

Too Much Brake - Bryce Angell

Our 1969 Cornbinder truck was loaded with eight geldings and one mare. Horse trailers weren't as available back then as they are today so most everyone used a two ton truck. We were a caravan of large trucks loaded with horses. The pickups were loaded with saddles, pack saddles, camping equipment and food enough for twenty teenage boys. I was 18 years old and two of my cousins, Ross and Lane, were riding with me. We were on our way to ride into the Bridger-Teton National Forest for a week away from the farm.

But first we had an obstacle that would require some experienced driving and mostly guts. The Teton Pass could put the final fear into anyone driving a truck loaded with horses who continually shift their weight causing the vehicle to sway as well.

We geared down, to make it to the top of the pass, engines rumbling almost to a roar. At the top, the caravan pulled over to allow the trucks to cool down.

After half an hour or so we started our descent. The trucks were in lower gears to let the engine do most of the braking, preventing the brakes from overheating. I attempted to shift into 3rd low but slipped into 4th gear and I couldn't get back into 3rd gear. Not a good situation at all. It seemed we were picking up speed exponentially. I hit the brakes hard, to no avail. Lane,sitting by the door, wanted to bail but after seeing how fast the pavement was flying by, decided to stay with the truck.

By now I had both feet on the brake pedal, butt up off the seat and using the steering wheel as leverage to push down. Smoke was rolling out of both front wheels and it wasn't looking good for anyone or anything riding in the truck.

About that time a wool headed, nosey, expert advisor tourist managed to pull up alongside us and holler, "You're using too much brake!" Ya think! Both cousins managed to yell back with not so nice words of encouragement to get the heck out of the way. .

Someone up there in a higher place must like me because the truck started to slow down. I was able to gear down to 3rd, then 2nd and come to a blessed stop.

Our caravan was parked alongside The Teton Pass highway and we were in the way of every passing vehicle. We still managed to keep our place alongside the road and cool the brakes down for about 45 minutes. Once again, with the trucks in lower gears, we were able to drive safely to the bottom of the Teton Pass. For some reason I was wanting the brainless tourist to be waiting at the bottom to give us his two cents worth. I was hoping to deliver him some change.

I climbed out of the truck and walked back to the pickup that was hauling my personal gear. My bag just happened to be close to the top and so I started going through my clothes. My cousin asked me what the heck was I doing? My answer was simple, "Just looking for clean underwear."

Dillon Middle School News January 3-6, 2023

Happy New Year!! Hope all students enjoyed their winter holiday, and we want to welcome 2023, as we start back to school today after a relaxing break.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: Tuesday, we will enjoy corn dogs with mac and cheese. Wednesday, chicken patty sandwiches will be served with trimmings. On Thursday, we will have spaghetti with garlic French bread. And on Friday, we will enjoy chicken alfredo served with Caesar salad.

Today, girls' basketball begins after school. The eighth grade girls will practice in the Parkview gym, and the seventh grade girls will practice in the DMS gym. Sixth grade girls will not begin until next Monday, January 9th. They will practice in the lunch room. Girls, please make sure your activity packets are turned in online, and your physical forms are in the office. Also, individual and team pictures will be taken Friday, January 13th for seventh and eighth grade. Parents, please look for order forms to come home with your daughter. Please contact the DMS office if you have any questions. Also, students, be planning ahead, as wrestling will begin Monday, January 30th. Make sure to have all your paperwork in so you can participate. If you have any questions, please contact the Dillon Middle School Office.

Before the break, we enjoyed a fun winter holiday spirit week. Each day there was an opportunity to dress up to win a prize. Great job to our winners. The winner of the ugly sweater contest was Trinity Zeren. The winner of the best PJ's was Mya Creighton. The winner of the best Wacky Wednesday outfit was the queen of wacky Wednesday herself, Adi Pilon. The best dressed Christmas tree went to both Brodie Curnow and Guy Holt. There were three winners of the best dressed Grinch: Salem Parker, Gage Curnow, and Joey Kalawai'a. And the best dressed Santa was Gage Curnow. We also had a door decorating contest. Each eighth period class decorated their door with a winter or Holiday theme. There were so many great doors. As usual, the judges had a hard decision. In the end, the winner was Mrs. Bartlome's class followed by Mrs. Zier's class in second. First place gets the pizza party and second place will receive donuts.

The middle school spent from Thanksgiving to our winter break brining in non perishable food items to donate to the food pantry. What a great opportunity for middle school students to help those who need a little helping hand at this time of year. Each week, there were incentives for the most items collected per eighth period class. At the end, the class that donated the most per student per pound won a pizza party. This years' winner was Mrs. Broeder's class. And congratulations, DMS, we donated almost 3000 `pounds of food. Way to give back!!

Before the break, Mr. Williams hosted a volleyball tournament after their volleyball unit. Many students participated and fun was had by all. The championship game was between "The Girls" made up of Kenndyl Meine, Shior Mataafa, Paxton Puyear, Cooper Abbey, Sophie Nelosn, Violet Rhodes, and Gabby Thomas. They were coached by Caden Morriseroe. They played against the "Pretty Ponies", made up of Titus Thomas, Tymber Barnes, Quincy Hansen, Cameron Delaney, Milee Vezina, Mya Falcon-Roberston, and Cole Ciocarlon. They were coached by Maddi Ward. The winners were "The Girls."

Mrs. Blake's FCS class had a gingerbread contest amongst the eighth graders. Winners were Athan Graham, Caden Morrisroe, and Declan Oswald. All the entries looked yummy!!

Mr. Williams also hosted a "Wednesday" dance competition. Dancers did their best Wednesday Adams dance interpretation. There were many great dancers, but the following won top honors: Beau Reynolds, Garrett George and Kenndyl Meine. Great job to all the dancers.
