DONATING ALL GATE PROCEEDS

The Montana Western Athletic Department announced early Wednesday that it will be donating all gate proceeds from Thursday's home basketball games against the University of Providence to former UMW women's basketball player Paige Paffhausen (Holmes).

Paige's Story

Paige was a member of the 2019 NAIA National Championship women's basketball team. She was named Frontier Conference Defensive Player of the Year twice and finished with 864 career points. She is tied for third all-time in the UMW record books with 185 career steals.

Paige and her husband Mick delivered a beautiful and healthy baby girl named Parker on December 15 via c-section with no major complications. A few days later, Paige developed an infection near her incision and things took a turn for the worse as the infection had started to spread.

Doctors recommended surgery to clean and rinse the infection, though they wanted her transferred to a higher level of care for surgery. Unfortunately, they were not able to get Paige out of Dillon that night due to weather. By this point, Paige spiked a fever and they recommended surgery immediately. After surgery, Paige and Mick were able to be life flighted to Salt Lake City where she quickly underwent another surgery and was admitted to the ICU.

Due to the significance of her wounds, Paige has been transferred from the ICU to the burn unit so that they can assist in management. Paige and her family will be in Salt Lake City for at least four to six weeks where she will likely undergo several more surgeries and start the skin grafting process.

Once a Bulldog always a Bulldog and the UMW athletic department and the women's basketball team are coming together to support one of their own. We invite all Bulldog fans and community members to come cheer on the Bulldogs and support Paige and her family.

Train Ride

By: MJ

Another year has gone by. We may compare that year to a train ride. In 2022, we started out with a map of our route including New Year's resolutions and made many changes on the way. On our train ride many people sat in the seat next to us. They came and went. Some stayed longer than others. Some of them leaving left a vacuum and others we hardly got to know, left unnoticed.

We have arrived at the New Year's station and our time has come to get off. Your ride may have been filled with joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes, and farewells. We will now start our 2023 ride and continue to live the best life we can, with love and forgiveness while presenting the best of us to others.

Happy New Year to all.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen announces a record year for new business registrations in Montana

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen announced another record number of new businesses were registered in Montana in 2022. Secretary Jacobsen made the announcement during the Montana Chamber of Commerce Business Days at the Capitol event on Monday.

Roughly 53,000 new businesses were registered in Montana in 2022.

The continued growth of new businesses points to Montana's healthy economy and pro-business landscape. In 2022, Secretary Jacobsen announced registration fees for Montana businesses were cut in half, while several other fees were eliminated entirely. The Secretary of State's online business filing system has also reduced the review and processing time by the Secretary of State Office's staff.

"Due to increased efficiencies in our office, we are able to lower fees for our Montana businesses. Those businesses are the backbone of our great state and cutting fees in half is one step to help them achieve their goals," Secretary Jacobsen said of the fee reductions.

"Our goal is to make it easier to do business in Montana," Secretary Jacobsen continued, "and I'm proud to see Montanans take advantage and follow their dreams. "Thank you for doing business in Montana."

Letter to the Editor

Our city-county community New Year's Resolution should be: All Feral Cats Deserve Forever Homes!

Capture and then spay/neuter are critical first steps. However, returning feral cats to their previous outdoor places to starve and to freeze their ears and tails off are not humane options.

Socializing feral cats post-spay/neuter is a time-intensive investment and challenge for would-be adopters.

To give voice to feral cats, consider two of Christ's parables:

(1) "For I Jesus was hungry, and you gave me food to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me water. I was a stranger, and you took me into your home." (Matthew 25: 35)

Perhaps I Jesus becomes I feral cat?

(2) "Kneeling beside the abandoned traveler, the Samaritan soothed the traveler's wounds with medicine and bandaged them." (Luke 10: 34)

Perhaps the Samaritan becomes the Dillon community and the abandoned traveler a feral cat?

For our religious leaders (of all faiths) and congregations and our Bible study groups, here are three challenges.

First, rediscover "Christ's Feral Cat Parables" given the Biblical insights above.

Second, pray for Christ's guidance to solve Dillon and Beaverhead County's moral feral cat challenge. Yes, our city-county community has a moral challenge!

Third, become actively involved in the humane, smart governance action plan that our city and county leaders should and must develop in the very near future.

Together, we can construct a humane, smart governance action plan to rescue systematically and permanently Dillon's feral cats.

In Jesus Christ's name and action: Let's give feral cats a voice and forever homes!
