Human Trafficking Awareness Day

On Human Trafficking Awareness Day, Attorney General Austin Knudsen, Attorney General's Office prosecutors, Department of Justice human trafficking agents, and other advocates testified in House Judiciary Committee in support of House Bill 112. Sponsored by Rep. Jodee Etchert the legislation will strengthen Montana's human trafficking laws by increasing penalties for people who participate in human trafficking and providing more tools for prosecutors to hold these criminals accountable.

House Bill 112 will strengthen the human trafficking statute by:

- Clarifying the crime and making the language easier to understand for prosecutors, law enforcement, victims, and potential jurors;
- Increasing punishments for offenders who encourage or compel a victim to engage in commercial sexual activity and those who patronize the system and providing for mandatory minimums for the worst offenders;
- And making it clear that anyone who patronizes or encourages sex trafficking of a minor will be strictly liable for their conduct.

Human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery whereby traffickers, which are often organized criminal enterprises, profit at the expense of adults or children by compelling them to perform labor or engage in commercial sex. Montana Department of Justice human trafficking investigators initiated 64 cases in fiscal year 2022, an increase of 300 percent from 16 in the previous fiscal year.

Know the Signs. Potential indicators of sex trafficking may include:

- Young person that is very hesitant to engage in conversation. Eyes are always downcast, avoiding eye contact, especially with men. Poor physical state...tired, malnourished, or shows signs of physical abuse or torture.
- Seems to have trouble responding to what their name is or what location (city or even state) they are in. (Victims' names are often changed, as are their whereabouts. They typically do not stay in one location for long – at times for 24 hours or less).
- Wearing clothes that do not fit the climate or the situation such as short shorts or skirts, tank tops, and no jacket in the middle of winter.
- Lack of control over money, personal possessions like bags, ID's, or documents. May also be carrying very few possessions in a plastic bag.
- May be accompanied by a dominating person, or someone they seem fearful of. That controlling person may also be someone who does not seem to "fit," such as a much older individual, an individual of a different race, or with behavior seemingly inappropriate with the suspected victim.
- Young girl or boy hanging around outside a convenience store, truck stop, casino, or other location. May be approaching different vehicles or men they do not seem to know.

If you believe you witness human trafficking:

- If the situation is an emergency, call 911.
- Do not intervene if you see suspected trafficker(s). Remain at a safe distance or in your vehicle.
- In non-emergency situations, call or text 1-833-406-STOP (1-833-406-7867) OR reach and advocate via live chat at 406stop.com.
- When possible, take images with your cellular device of the suspected trafficker(s), victim(s), and vehicle license plate(s).

2022 Toys For Tots Butte Campaign Report

By Mike Lawson

This 2022 Toys For Tots Butte Campaign has been a great success. The numbers don't lie and what they say is that many children had Christmas presents under their Christmas trees, that wouldn't have had without the Toys For Tots Campaign. This Campaign has been fortunate enough to expand into our sister town/cities within a sixty mile radius of Butte. They are Dillon, Twin Bridges/Ruby Valley, White Hall and Harrison. Our TFT Campaign would not be successful without all the volunteers who work, to make it happen. In Butte itself, we are partnered up with Mining City Christmas (Action Ink). They take and check the applications for TFTs, before giving them to us. We then fill a bag for each child, which then goes into a big family bag/bags. Our TFT Campaign then give the Toys bags to Action Ink, which give out clothing with the Butte Food Bank giving each family a food basket/voucher, all at the same time.

After Christmas we relax for a few days, but then have to inventory what toys we have left to begin next years Campaign. The TFT Foundation have very strict standards of accountability, which we strictly adhere too. Every dollar that comes in is counted and sent to our Campaign's Bank Account, in a Bank In Iowa. This is a Bank set up, by the TFT Foundation, to take care of all the TFT's Campaigns, across America, to buy Toys or pay expenses associated with each Campaign. We send all the receipts, copies of the donated checks and Certified Cashier's check's duplicate copies, to the Region Account Specialist. This happens on a weekly basis during the length of the Campaign, so when the "After Action Report", at the end of the Campaign, is sent in, it's easy to add up the data and make sure everything has added up. This is an organization, I'm proud to be part of.

Here's some data/numbers that are well worth looking at, concerning our Toys For Tot's Butte Campaign here in SW MT:

Families	Toys	Books	S Stuff	Families	Kids
1) Whitehall	778	111	500	41	142
2) Twin Bridges	305	43	271	19	45
3) Dillon	702	104	604	41	106
4) Harrison	180	27	186	12	27
5) Butte	4,322	444	2,581	333	1,118

Senator Welborn's Weekly Review

HELENA:

Both Chambers Swore in on Monday January 2 in both the Senate, and the House. The first few days start at a slower pace, due to needing to get organized with operating rules, and getting the bills that are drafted, scheduled and introduced into the respective committees.

On a personal note, I was busy with the work surrounding the committees in which I serve. I will be serving on The Senate Agriculture committee, Finance and Claims or more commonly known for setting the Budget for state spending, where I will be the ranking Senator on the sub committee (Section C), that approves all spending for DNRC, DEQ, FWP, Agriculture, Livestock, and Transportation.

I will again be serving as Chair of the Senate Natural Resource Committee, where we set policy for all issues related to Water, Air Quality, mining, timber, and anything else related to the vast natural resources in our state.

We have already had two hearings this past Friday in the Natural Resources committee, with a full schedule now on the docket to be heard over the coming weeks. This coming week I will be introducing a bill on restoring funding for the vast stream gauge system across Montana. Due to cuts in Federal funding, our vital stream gauge monitoring has taken a severe hit, and different stake holders have come up with a new proposal, to use a mix of both private and state funding to back fill this program. I will be chief sponsor of this bill, as stream gauges are vital to water monitoring, and especially in SW Montana.

In our Section C Budget Sub Committee, we are fully organized, and will be opening with the Department of Agriculture Budget review Monday Morning at 9AM, this is just the beginning of this process, where we listen to new and ongoing spending requests, from each individual agency. This process, with all the individual agency budgets will take the next several weeks to accomplish.

One measure that was introduced this past week, which I will be supporting, and will take this opportunity to take a little deeper dive into explaining is: A Bill to increase oversight of State Government, and accountability of tax payer money. Senator Tom McGillvray, a Billings Republican will introduce Senate Bill 73, which comes at the request of the Legislative Audit Committee, to ensure that auditors can access the information they need to fulfill their constitutional oversight role.

Montana's legislative auditors have reported increasing attempts by state agencies to question, delay, or undermine auditors' access to information. These issues have occurred under both Democrat and Republican Administrations, and pertain to several agencies over a period of years.

Many Senators, myself included, believe, The Legislative Audit Division is one of the most important institutions we have in Montana, to ensure government agencies are following the law and spending taxpayer money appropriately. Auditors need full transparency and cooperation to fulfill their job.

The right of audit exists in both federal and state law to ensure that lawmakers and the public know that taxpayer money is accounted for, and that laws are being effectively implemented. Unlike many other states that have robust laws enforcing the rights of their auditors to access records, Montana currently lacks an enforcement mechanism to ensure auditors get the information they need.

SB 73 would strengthen the Legislative Auditor's ability to access information, records, and data in state agencies, by creating an enforcement mechanism to ensure compliance from government agencies. The bill would apply criminal penalties to elected and appointed officials for official misconduct in cases where audit access is refused or obstructed. SB 73 also adds confidentiality provisions to protect the integrity of the audit process.

I believe that blocking or delaying auditors' access to information goes against the public's interest, good government, and the state constitution. This is not a new challenge, and it's not a partisan or issue. This is about independent oversight and accountability of state government for the people of Montana.

SB 73 has been assigned to the Senate's State Administration Committee. The bill will have its first hearing in the coming weeks.

On a final note, I'm looking into, and will do my best to work with our state parks Division, to restore the use of the ice skating ponds at Bannack State Park.

That's all I have to report this first week. Please stay in touch with me on issues important to you. You can also follow the legislative process by logging into leg.mt.gov

Thanks for taking the time to follow along as we move through the 68th Legislative Session, and thanks to our local radio and news outlets, for the time and space to keep you in the loop.
