UMW and MCH to Host Annual Colt Challenge and Sale

The Annual Colt Challenge and Sale, hosted by the University of Montana Western and the Montana Center for Horsemanship, will take place March 31 and April 1, 2023, at the Montana Center for Horsemanship in Dillon, Montana.

Students and colts compete in a series of events that demonstrate their wide range of abilities on the first day, and the following day, a public auction features the colts for sale, with all proceeds reinvested in the program in order to provide scholarships to Natural Horsemanship majors at the University of Montana Western.

Schedule of Events:

Friday, March 31st
Colt Challenge: 9:00 a.m.
Saturday, April 1st
Preview: 10:00 a.m.
Lunch: 11:30 a.m.
Sale: 1:00 p.m.

Each colt receives approximately 90 days of Natural Horsemanship training from equine students in the Natural Horsemanship/Equine Studies Bachelor of Science Degree program at Montana Western, under the guidance and leadership of the MCH Natural Horsemanship instructors. This year's event will showcase 22 best-bred colts donated by some of the finest ranches in the region.

The young horses are familiarized with all settings inside and out, including enclosed areas and riding outdoors on the area's many trails and in the surrounding mountains. They are also exposed to a variety of situations including working with cattle and ropes, loading and unloading from trailers, and many other scenarios a horse and rider might encounter in ranch-work or recreational riding. Simultaneously, both students and instructors develop an in-depth feel for each horse, enabling them to accurately convey this knowledge to potential buyers.

The horses and students are featured on Facebook leading up to the main event with information about the colts including their color, conformation, personalities, and skills. More information about the 2023 Colt Challenge and Sale, including the sale catalog, will be available on the University of Montana Western website as the event approaches.

Those interested in attending the auction can do so in person, online, or by phone. To bid online, participants must pre-register at least one day prior to the sale. To pre-register, please visit bid.northernlivestockvideo.com and click "Get Approved to Bid." Participants can then bid online via desktop by visiting www.northernlivestockvideo.com the day of the sale or by downloading the Northern Livestock Auction mobile app.

To bid by phone, pre-register by calling Northern Livestock Video Auction at 866-616-5035 before the sale day to obtain a bid number. Bidders can then phone in the day of the sale by calling 406-245-0889.

The Annual Colt Challenge and Sale corporate sponsors include CHS Inc., New Generation Supplements, Rocky Mountain Supply, and Zinpro Performance Minerals in partnership with the University of Montana Western and the Montana Center for Horsemanship. Saturday's complimentary lunch is sponsored by Beaverhead Motors. We wish to thank our sponsors for their generous support of the event and the students in the program.

The Equine Studies Department at the University of Montana Western offers the nation's only Bachelor of Science degree in Natural Horsemanship with options in management, psychology, science and instruction, and was ranked among the "Best Equestrian Colleges" by ThoughtCo.com.

The Montana Center for Horsemanship is the first and only equine center in the United States that is devoted expressly to promoting 'Natural Horsemanship.' With its stables, arenas, riding areas, and instructors, the center serves as the primary facility and progressive teaching resource for Montana Western's Natural Horsemanship BS curriculum.

The MCH teaches the 'La Cense Method,' which was developed under William Kriegel, owner of La Cense Montana and Haras de la Cense in France. Mr. Kriegel is also co-founder of MCH, and he has been involved in Natural Horsemanship for many years. The La Cense Method is a progressive, step-by-step process that blends the best of traditional horsemanship training with the art of training and riding horses—all in a manner that works with a horse's behavior, instincts, and personality. Taking a positive and respectful approach, the La Cense Method gradually builds trust, and frees the horses to be confident in all they are asked to perform.

For information about the Colt Challenge and Sale, please contact Head Natural Horsemanship Instructor, Eric Hoffmann, by email at eric.hoffmann@umwestern.edu or call 406-925-1499.

EVERY holiday has its significance, but none can compare with Christmas. It is the one time of the year when self-seeking gives way to selflessness, and all are united in one common attitude of good will towards our fellowmen.

Our entire personnel joins in wishing Christmas joy to those whom we have served, and to others as well. Accept our sincere thanks for the privilege of being of help in making this Christmas of 1945 truly merry.

Winter Memories

LaVon D. Brillhart

Winters arrival rude with Arctic coldness winter skies shortened
beautiful brisk sunsets
sundogs bring mystical magic to the winter sky
trees bare waving to frozen streams nearby
red eared boys playing on frozen puddles sleds stacked against sheds waiting silently shy young girls stomping in snow with rosy cheeks
the crunching of snow bring back memories of days gone by fire

wood stacked
on with smoggy smoke
porches cloudy skies
chimneys filling snow men so handsome with polar smiles shapely shadows on snow following all birds all fluffed waiting for food handouts
the melodious silent sounds of crisp twinkling stars
snow balls aimed at passerby scarf wrapped women walking sharply to neighborhood stores
icicles clinging to eaves with evenness
tea kettles whistling spurts of steam steadily hot chocolate mustaches bring smile of warmth
snow forts protecting smiling invaders
frosty window patter designs hiding warmth
Soon winter memories will fade and be lost.....
But snow and cold of nest season will bring back same memories.

DOJ, OPI Announce National Missing Children's Poster Contest

The Montana Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Office of Public Instruction (OPI) announced that submissions are open for the National Missing Children's Poster Contest. Montana fifth graders can submit their art in the theme of "Bringing Our Missing Children Home" to help raise awareness and have a chance to win a trip to Washington, D.C.

A winning Montana poster will be selected, and the artist will receive a $100 cash prize. The winning poster will then be submitted to the national contest. The national poster contest winner, along with his/her parents and teacher, will be awarded a trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the National Missing Children's Day ceremony on Wednesday, May 24, 2023.

"One missing child in Montana is one too many. That's why the Department of Justice remains committed to bringing missing kids home and putting their predators behind bars," Attorney General Knudsen said.

Student artwork must meet the following criteria to be considered and will be judged on originality, creativity, use of color and materials, and reflection of contest theme.

Artwork that is original and handcrafted
8 ½ x 14 inches in size
Include the words "Bringing Our Missing Children Home"

Posters with digitally produced images, collages, cut-outs, and stamping will not be accepted.

A written poster contest student application form must be submitted along with each poster. The application will be judged on the level of understanding of the subject, clarity, and grammar appropriate for the fifth grade.

Since 2003, DOJ has issued 54 AMBER Alerts that have helped locate 76 children, four who were deceased. To see a list of the persons currently missing in Montana and to get more information on Montana's AMBER Alert and Missing Persons programs, visit https://dojmt.gov/missing-persons/.

Posters and student application forms must be received by February 27, 2023. Send them to:

Grizzly bears test positive for avian influenza

Three juvenile grizzly bears tested positive for highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) virus this fall. The three bears, one near Augusta, one near Dupuyer, and another near Kalispell, were observed to be in poor condition and exhibited disorientation and partial blindness, among other neurological issues. They were euthanized due to their sickness and poor condition. These were the first documented cases of HPAI in grizzly bears. A fox and a skunk in Montana also tested positive for HPAI last year, and the virus has been found in raccoons, black bears and even a coyote in other states and countries.

"We suspect these mammals probably get the virus from consuming infected birds," said FWP Wildlife Veterinarian Jennifer Ramsey. Avian influenza (AI) virus is a naturally occurring virus in birds. HPAI viruses are extremely infectious and fatal to poultry and some species of wild birds.

Although the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) considers risk of HPAI spread to humans to be very low, Montanans should take precautions when handling game birds, sick or dead birds and mammals they find.

FWP staff would like to know about unusual or unexplained cases of sickness and/or death of wild birds and animals by calling their local wildlife biologist or the wildlife lab in Bozeman at 406-577-7880 or 406-577-7882.
