"UM Study: Paramount's 'Yellowstone' Series Generates 2.1M Visitors, $750M in Spending for Montana"

If you were wondering the impact of "Yellowstone" on Montana, check out the report below from the Institute for Tourism & Recreation Research (ITRR) from Univ. of Montana in Missoula.

Some big numbers recorded in our tourism history. FYI, Dillon Convention and Visitor's Bureau has been recording big numbers in Bed-Tax Collections as well since 2020, with this last third quarter of 2022 being a record of $133,926 or a 9% increase over last year, which was a 58% increase over 2020.

The tourism will help our small businesses with more customers. It's true, all boats rise with a rising tide!

More detailed information will be shared in our Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture February newsletter.

btp59725@gmail.com • (406) 683-9844Veteran's Corner. Update #187By Mike Lawson*

In the Veteran News a few events are coming up. Representative Zinke has requested a meeting with the Veterans in SW MT. It is scheduled to take place at the American Legion Hall in Butte on Friday, January 20th at 2:30 PM. Address: 3201 Wynne St., Butte, Montana. 59701. Telephone: 406-491-1709. As in any of our Veteran Organizations, we are all non-partisan, so when any politician speaks to our veterans, they are told that they can only talk about veteran issues and leave politics at the door. Our Veteran Members are diversified concerning their political beliefs and we also leave politics at the door, when meeting together, as a Veteran Organization.

The SW MT Veterans Home is seeing impressive progress on the covered walkway between Cottages #4 & #5. The Liaison position is vacant and will take some time to be filled. The VFW Auxiliary are planning for Valentine's Day to make it a special day for our resident Veterans living there.

In checking out the Veterans Benefits Newsletter for January, there's warnings about Veteran scams, especially concerning VA Pension benefits. It's called Pension Poaching and targets Veterans, service members and their families. Check out the VA Video Called Pension Poaching, that gives you information to "Be Vigilant and Know How To Avoid Financial Fraud". You can learn more at news.va.gov.

For any of you veterans who are looking to train for a skilled trade job, you might check out Highlands College, here in Butte. They have a special Veteran program for veterans, there. The Union Apprentice programs are also a great way to go and you can use your GI Bill.

Recently we got a call from a lady who's boyfriend passed away at the Veteran's Home in Glendive. This Veteran's body was sent to the local Funeral Home and was cremated. Evidently he was without funds and until the cremation fee is paid for, his ashes can't be released. His girlfriend did get the funeral home to cut the price from $3,000 to $1,500. She has been making payments, but owes about $500. Our Veterans in Butte are going to pick this up. We'll also check with the VA as to why cremation is not covered. Hopefully that can be changed.

Sports are keeping many of us entertained, especially football. This is the time of year, for many, that being inside is the norm. That's not always easy for some veterans who suffer from PTSD. If you are one of these veterans, look for ways to get out, call a veteran, get involved in doing something for others. Depression is destructive, make those calls to family, friends, veterans and let your day have a little sunlight shine on you.

Secretary Jacobsen visits with Boy Scout, 4-H members

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen was honored to visit with members of the Boy Scouts and Montana 4-H at the Montana State Capitol this week.

Secretary Jacobsen met with the Boy Scouts, who were joined by former Montana Senator Doug Kary, on Monday at the Secretary of State's Office. On Tuesday, Secretary Jacobsen visited with 4-H members from across Montana in the Governor's Reception Room. Governor Greg Gianforte previously spoke with the 4-H members on Tuesday.

Secretary Jacobsen 4-H "It was an honor and delight to meet and visit with members of the Boy Scouts and 4-H at our beautiful State Capitol," said Secretary Jacobsen. "Both groups had bright, young minds interested in how our government operates, and I was proud to share the successes and responsibilities of our office."

Members from each group were invited to ask Secretary Jacobsen questions ranging from how she wound up in office to what her favorite moments as Secretary have been. Others inquired about Montana's electoral process and the Secretary of State's US Constitution Contest.

"I would like to thank both the Boy Scouts and Montana 4-H for the honor of meeting with them and answering their questions."
