LONDON BRIDGE

By "Swede" Troedsson

In January, 2023, I received a text from Mike Mehn, a retired Montana Game Warden, and a good friend of mine. Attached was a photo of names, and a Big Red One Infantry Division symbol, scratched into the foundation of the London Bridge. The bridge is located in Lake Havasu City in Arizona. Mike had stopped at Lake Havasu City on his way to New Mexico. The name Mike was interested in finding was Wayne Fitzwater, now deceased. Wayne had retired as a Montana Game Warden in Dillon, Montana.

In 1968 Robert McCulloch purchased the bridge in London. He had it dismantled and shipped to Lake Havasu City. The reassembly was completed in 1971.

Wayne was a legend among Montana Game Wardens. He and I became good friends. Wayne was a good canoe operator, something he and I had in common, as well as a love of the outdoors. He and I would encounter each other occasionally in our travels in the outdoors. Following his retirement in 1978, after 27 years as a game warden, Wayne authored a book titled Where In The Hell Did You Come From?

In World War II Wayne served as a Sergeant in the Big Red One Division of the U.S. Army. In 1943 Wayne's outfit was staged in England waiting to be shipped to French North Africa. In August, 1943, on a weekend pass, Wayne and a Pfc Smith took a trip into London. Upon visiting the London Bridge, Wayne scratched his name and the name of Pfc Smith, along with the Big Red One Division symbol, in the foundation. Today the names and symbol are barely legible.

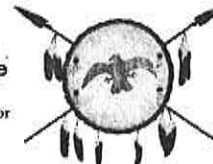

Wayne suffered gunshot wounds to his chest, left side, and a serious left leg wound in the North African campaign. He recuperated in a hospital in England. Wayne passed away in 2018 at the age of 99.

His accomplishments and awards are listed on his headstone in the Dillon Cemetery.

Montana Highway Patrol

The Montana Highway Patrol held a ceremony to remember fallen Trooper David DeLaitre who was killed in the line of duty on December 1, 2010, during a traffic stop.

MHP mourned the loss of K9 partner, Sammy. Sammy was 10 years old and passed away of health complications.

MHP assisted in the investigation of a Butte man, Gary David Conan, who received 66 months in prison, followed by three years of supervised release for trafficking methamphetamine in Lake County.

MHP troopers arrested Nina Mel Cochran who has been charged with homicide and is accused of stabbing Douglas Merrill Nielsen to death at his home as part of a satanic ritual.

MHP assisted in the investigation into a Cut Bank woman, Feather Lynn Stillsmoking, who pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter and assault resulting in serious bodily injury and faces a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison, a $250,000 fine, and three years of supervised release. Stillsmoking was traveling west on U.S. 2 into East Glacier when she collided with the victim's car going eastbound. Stillsmoking's blood analysis showed the presence of alcohol, amphetamine, and methamphetamine.

BWSWMT-Pickleball

AgWest Farm Credit (formerly Northwest Farm Credit Services) recently awarded BWSWMT-Pickleball a Rural Community Grant of $2,500 towards the construction of two free, public-access pickleball courts. These courts will be built in the bike park which is operated by Bike Walk Southwest Montana at the Chris Kraft Beaverhead County Park, 1575 Overland Road near Dillon. BWSWMT-Pickleball estimates the total project will cost in excess of $51,000. Other committed donors to date include Beaverhead County, a local ranch, Rowe Excavation, and individual members of the community.

Tyler Tintzman, Relationship Manager III/VP from AgWest Farm Credit branch in Dillon is pictured (center) presenting the check to Steve Cottom (right) and Dave Cowardin (left) from the BWSWMT-Pickleball Committee. Steve worked with Tyler to procure the Grant and Dave is the chair of the committee who completed the grant application. Dave said the players of pickleball are grateful to AgWest Farm Credit for the donation and hoped that other organizations will help with this community project. Should you have a group that would be interested in hearing a short program on pickleball and maybe assist in the efforts to build the courts, you can contact BWSWMT-Pickleball through their website www.pickleballbcmontana.com.

If you are interested in donating toward this endeavor, checks can be mailed to BWSWMT-Pickleball, PO Box 683, Dillon, MT 59725 or donations can be made through the website above.
