Word of Passing

Shirley Jaydine Carpenter, passed January 28th, 2023
Obituary to follow in tomorrow's edition.

PAUL EMMETT FUGLESTAD

December 11, 1943 - January 26, 2023

Paul Emmett Fuglestad of Dillon, Montana, passed away suddenly at his home on January 26, 2023, from a heart attack. He was born in Hardin MT on December 11, 1943, to Emmett "Ole" & Ethel (McCarthy) Fuglestad, then raised in Lewistown, Montana. Paul was an avid member of the Masons and Shriners, and for many years headed up the Shriners Oyster Feed in Dillon, Montana. He was a member of the Elks Lodge, the Eagles, and many other fraternal societies in places where he lived. Paul was a long time leader of the Boy Scouts of America where both of his sons, Lee & Brian, attained the status of Eagle Scout.

Paul had a doctorate degree in agricultural economics. In Paul's early years, he was a bank examiner and traveled to many states for work. This is where he discovered the dive bars of every state. Paul liked sharing that information with the other bank examiners.

Paul then lived in Anchorage AK, where he met his male soulmate (Byron Koepke). Paul moved back to Montana in 1993 and was an avid fisherman living on the Beaverhead River with his childhood best bud, Paul W. "P dub" Wiedeman. He spent many hours rowing P dub on the Big Hole River and sometimes on the Beaverhead. Paul was known as P fug...the other half of P dub..., and to his work friends as "Doc."

Twenty-one years ago, Paul met the love of his life, Gail Proulx Fuglestad, and they married almost 12 years ago. Paul very much loved his grandchildren, Megan & Ethan, and was so very proud of them and their accomplishments. He also loved his other grandchildren, Acadia, Collin & Jace. Paul spent a lot of time reading to them, teaching them how to bat a ball, playing catch, or doing anything else they wanted to do. He was a very, very hands on grandpa. Paul started out by taking Acadia to Babies & Books at the Dillon Library and continued the tradition with Collin & Jace. He had a following of young mothers who thought he was wonderful. Paul often stated that he would have loved to also be doing these activities with Megan & Ethan.

Paul had many friends and family in Dillon MT, Fort Collins CO, and Washington, D.C. Paul and Gail enjoyed weekend drives in the country and going to visit museums they found along the way on their travels. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for Gail and he often told her friends that. Most of the time, Paul loved Gail's friends. When he was a young man, Paul taught himself how to cook and was on par with any gourmet cook in the country. Every year, Paul looked forward to his family "the hunters" from Eastern Montana who visited each year for four days. In his early years, he would go scope out where the animals would be. In his later years, Paul would take a nap in the truck along with Ron Torgerson who was about Paul's age. Paul looked forward to his Eastern Montana, Seattle, Fort Collins, and Washington, D.C. family visits.

Paul's hobbies included fishing, reading, playing solitaire on the computer, playing cribbage with Patti & John Gillis at the Glen Bar, and having a beer with the gang.

He was preceded in death by his mother Ethel, his father Ole, and his two sisters Mary & Jeanne.

He is survived by his wife Gail; son Lee (Sue) Fuglestad, Brian Fuglestad; stepdaughters Kasi (Patrick) Glidden, Cara Herman; grandchildren Megan Fuglestad, Ethan Fuglestad, Acadia Lisle, Collin Herman, Jace Herman, Sierra Flammond, Tyler Sexton, and Robbie (Abbie) Furtney; along with numerous great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Paul wished for a sendoff at the Glen Bar to celebrate his life. Please join us on Sunday, February 5, 2023, at 3 p.m. for this gathering. In lieu of flowers, Paul would like everyone to donate to the Shriners Hospital for Children.

Dec. 28, 2001 — Jan. 23, 2023

Alexandria "Allie" Rae Butori came to us on a cold snowy winter night on December 28th, 2001. After a courageous fight against cancer, Allie was welcomed by her Savior in the evening hours of January 23rd, 2023. The snow fell again as she entered Heaven's gate. She fought with every ounce of strength she had during her illness. She told us all that God has a plan, even though we do not understand, we need to have faith. Allie had such a strong faith, and we all drew from this. God had a plan for this beautiful soul and needed her sooner than we on earth were ready for.

Allie was a gentle compassionate soul, all who knew her benefited from her love. Adults and children gravitated towards her. She was giving of herself and her heart to help others. She volunteered at her church as a youth leader, Ronald McDonald house, Feed My Starving Children, she also went on a mission trip to Haiti, and so much more.

Allie's passion was to ski. She was flying down the hill at a very young age and would be on the mountain every chance she got. She was strong and free while skiing and she could pick a line like no one else. She breathed in the mountain air and was one with God while she enjoyed His splendor. Allie's other passions were hiking, camping, fishing, going for long drives, horseback riding, four-wheeling, snowmobiling, and anything outdoors.

Allie loved to travel and see new things. She had the opportunity to live in Montana, Idaho, Alaska, Italy, and Utah and to travel to many other places, touching lives wherever she went. One of her last requests was a RV trip to Utah's National Parks to give her family memories to last their lifetime.

Allie loved learning and school was so important to her. She earned her associate's degree in science while still attending high school. After high school, she attended Weber State University and was thriving in the respiratory therapy program.

Allie loved fiercely, as a daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece and friend. All of you who knew her will never be the same, as Allie's light will always be a part of you. She will not want sadness, but for us to be more compassionate, caring, faithful, and loving in every aspect.

Allie leaves behind her Dad and Mom, Derek and Holly Butori; brothers, Caden and Damon; her soulmate, Brock Lagucki; and best friend, Keely Brinn; Grandparents, Craig and Gail Hansen, Carter and Lori Butori, George and Mary (Clague) Lampman; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. She joined her grandmother, Donna Hansen who welcomed her with open arms.

A Celebration of Allie's life will be at Alpine Church, 254 West 2675 North, Layton, Utah on Saturday, February 11, 2023 at 4:00 pm. Services entrusted to Lindquist's Syracuse Mortuary, 869 South 2000 West, Syracuse, Utah 84075.

In lieu of flowers, gifts, or food, donations can be made to Allie's Memorial Go Fund Me or Allie Butori Memorial Fund at America First Credit Union.

Rumor on the Street Home Health Care

By: MJ

Rumor on the street is that Barrett Home Health and Hospice is not admitting any more patients into the program. If this happens it will be a sad day for Beaverhead County citizens. This is a program that provides medical and emotional support in so many ways. Just to have someone walk through the door and say "Hi, how are you and what can I help you with today" is probably the best medication you can take.

Home Health Care is a benefit, contractually supported by the Federal Government that is working with local medical facilities like Barrett Hospital to provide professional home health care. Barrett Home Health and Hospice provides a wonderful service for humans that qualify. It is an organization that is allowing people to stay home and do their recovery instead of having to go to an unfamiliar place like a rest home. Hospice, another part of Home Health Care that is a valuable blessing in a time of need helping us finish our journey on earth and moving on.

Question: You are paying taxes each year to support Barrett Hospital. A few years back the hospital was owned by the county. It appears that the hospital is no longer owned by the county, so a question may be why are the people continuing to pay taxes? Contact the (3) three commissioners. Mr. McGinley, Mr. Rice, and Mr. Jackson to get answers to any questions you might have.

Excuses: You will hear that getting people to work is impossible. This is true for all businesses today. Today you can use the government system and make more money by not working, so why work? Does the hospital require Covid shots and what impact does that have on hiring employees? Should the pay scale be overhauled? Are the employees that are doing the work required to keep the business operating paid enough? Solutions require changes, often from top to bottom.

Solutions: There is a hospital board that is elected by the people in Beaverhead County. Become an active community member, get involved, run for a position on the hospital board. The election for a member of the board is held at the same time of the school elections.

Note: If you have an interest in Beaverhead County losing Home Health Care please call the administration's office at Barrett's Hospital, Commissioners. Mayor and other elected officials to convey to them what you think.

Happy Holidays

Best wishes for 2023

Legislative Update from Representative

Tom Welch January 29, 2023

Greetings from a cold Helena. I hope that you, your families and your neighbors are handling this recent cold snap well!

Governor Gianforte gave his State of the State address last week. He acknowledged the work to date of both Republicans and Democrats. He specifically called out businesses, community members and Legislators who have put in yeoman's work on various Legislative matters. I was humbled to be one of those mentioned. It was correctly noted that much remains to be accomplished.

The pace at the Legislature has quickened in the past few days. Committee work has intensified with more Bill hearings being held. Committees are where you, my constituents, have the best opportunity to have input on the Bills we see here at the Legislature. You can participate in writing, in person, or on Zoom! Be sure to check out the Legislative website at leg.mt.gov which will lead you to many facets of the Legislature process including a copy of specific Bills, what Bills are scheduled and when for Hearings and in what Committee. Remember that there are deadlines in place with respect to the commenting or participating remotely in Committee Hearings. Check out the website!

I appreciate the many messages that I receive daily thru my personal phone, my email and at tom.welch@legmt.gov. I try to respond to as many as possible. I would remind you that a message in your own words is impactful to me. Telling me briefly how a particular Bill impacts you, your family, or a business or organization that you deal with is beneficial to my decision-making process!

With the increasing Committee work, the number and complexity of Bills actually coming to the House Floor has increased. Debates are becoming more intense and lengthier with Bills also beginning to Pass the House Floor, some on close votes, and in some cases even being defeated. Passed House Bills move on to the Senate for further Committee hearings and action.

All 8 of my introduced Bills are still working their way thru the process with 5 of these Bills having Passed the House and now are in the Senate for review and action. I have another Bill or two which I expect to Introduce in the coming days. Some 650 Bills have been introduced to date with this number and thus our workload expected to increase substantially over the next 2-3 weeks.

As Montanans, we have many positive opportunities in front of us. I have been fortunate during my Legislative tenure to work with a growing group of like-minded Legislators who are willing to put our constituents' needs first. Unlike some, we would rather work to find solutions than spend our time looking for press opportunities.

Thank you for allowing me to be your Representative!

Old Jake

Bryce Angell

I lay here half dozing, saddle under my head, inside an old sleeping bag meant for a bed. It's too cold to sleep and I worry 'bout Jake. But, I'll stay by the fire until I'm awake.

I peek out from the covers to just look around. My breath turns to steam and it floats to the ground. The air is too cold to climb out of bed. I'm feeling a little like Old Sleepy Head.

And then I see Jake. He has moved in close by. He's smellin' for snacks near my saddle bag tie. He's been with me through hot and cold. His days now are numbered, I wish he warn't old.

Old Jake and me, we have been quite a team. We've ridden the fence, so it would seem to never run out or come to an end. We keep it upright, it's our job to mend.

And Jake understands when I give a command. He helps stretch the wire. A good old top hand. There's nothin' quite like a man and his horse. The two work like one, a powerful source.

Now my old bones are feelin' the air. The years have slipped by. It doesn't seem fair. Old Jake has seen twenty-five years come and go. Now the two of us move just a little bit slow.

When I was near fifty I thought to marry a handsome gal who was somewhat contrary to a cowboy's ways and all that he had, especially old Jake, who was then just a lad.

She TOLD me to choose. It was her or my horse. There was only one answer, and that was of course, Old Jake, who was always standin' nearby. I said, "Take your dress and your flowers. GOOD-BYE"

The years have flown by. Did I make the right choice? I can talk to Old Jake. He don't need a voice. Just havin' him close next to me by the fire is better than any the forman could hire.

But, it's lonely for sure, just the two of us here. Will we both be alive this same time in a year? No use a wonderin', that fence is our life. We're here to the end, no matter the strife.

Well, the hot cakes are cookin', a breakfast for two. And Jake will try eating more than a few. Then I'll feed him some oats, toss a flake of grass hay. The same old routine, gettin' ready for the day.

As I look down the fence at a wide gapin' hole, it seems to be saying, "Bring up your soul." So with hammer and staples this cowboy and friend head down the fence line that's never to end.
