EDNA SMITH

Nov 15, 1926 – Feb 3, 2023

Edna Earl Pelton Smith was born on Nov 15, 1926. She was the fifth child of seven born to Clarence Addison Pelton and Myrtle Daisy Stout Pelton in Dallas Co. Texas. She graduated from Amon Carter Riverside High School in Fort Worth Texas in 1945. She loved painting at the Art Center in Ft Worth and worked at a studio, Montgomery Ward, and Worth Food Market. She spent the summer of 1951 with other college students working at Camp Shiloh in New York. While there she really enjoyed getting to see the Statue of Liberty, the Radio City Rockettes, several museums, a movie, ride the subway and ferry, and spend time at Coney Island. They went door to door to invite kids from the city to come to Camp Shiloh.

Edna attended Abilene Christian College from 1951 to 1953 and was majoring in Elem. Ed. While there she loved working at the food counter/soda shop. She did not graduate because she had to go home to help her mother. There she worked for a tax preparation service which led to keeping books for Greyhound Bus Service.

She met Oliver Calvin Smith at Riverside Church of Christ and they were married on June 12, 1956. She was excited that she was going to live in Montana on the Smith family ranch. The first thing Oliver taught her was how to milk the cows, so he wouldn't have to. He also taught her how to drive a tractor, bale and stack hay, irrigate (which she did until she was 82), and help with the calving and lambing. Edna and Oliver ranched for over 60 years, set up irrigation systems all over SW Montana, and were faithful members of the Church of Christ.

Edna delivered twins on May 12, 1960. The little boy (James Patrick) did not survive, but the little girl (Janice) did. Another daughter (Belinda) was born on Oct 5, 1961.

She enjoyed painting, miniature golf, playing softball for Greyhound, bowling leagues with Andy and Irene Morris, ranching, and just being outside. In her later years, she enjoyed going to the Montana School for the Deaf and the Blind where she learned braille, how to use a cane, finger crochet, and to use the shop equipment to make a stool, birdhouse, and a Lazy-Susan turntable. She loved the Lord, singing His praises, and hearing His word.

Edna passed away Feb 3, 2023 in Helena, MT.

She was preceded in death by her parents, sisters Leontine and Opal, brothers James, Durwood, and Clarence, her husband Oliver and son James, and a granddaughter Lorena. She is survived by her sister Deanna Gilbert, daughters Janice Harbor and Belinda Christensen, and numerous nephews, nieces, grandchildren, great grandchildren and wonderful friends.

Memorial services will be held Feb 18, 2023 at 11:00 at the Twin Bridges Mortuary. A grave side service will follow with a reception at the Senior Center, 501 N Madison, Twin Bridges.

I quizzed my Grandma Angell 'bout the changes in her life.

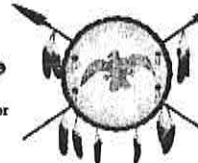

And was there anything, now gone, that may have caused her strife?
Her answer shot out faster than a tomcat to his mouse.She said, "I'll never miss our doggone, stinking, cold outhouse."
"And if you don't believe me try the privy out for size."The old outhouse sets by the barn, before your very eyes."
I didn't give much credence to what Grandma said to me.Until she locked the bathroom door and kindly took the key.
She said, "Go use the outhouse. I don't wanna hear you gripe."Then handed me a roll and said, "Please don't forget to wipe."
I squeezed my cheeks together. Man, I really had to go.The trail down to the old outhouse was covered, deep with snow.
The walk was dang near fifty yards. I grabbed the outhouse door.The rusty hinges squeaked then I was standing on the floor.
I dropped my jeans and sat down on the frosty open hole.Grandma got it right. I felt the cold right to my soul.
But then I got to thinking 'bout the cold, I'll tell you what.At least there weren't no spiders who might bite me on the butt.
That's when I took a look around and saw a second seat.I guess the extra company might be a pleasant treat?
I wondered what they talked about or if they gabbed at all.They prob'ly talked of baseball, "Did you see that high flyball?"
So, I finished up my business, zipped my coat and hat up tight.Then set out on the snowy trail. 'Twas cold and almost night.
Well, Grandma stood there waiting with a question on her face."Do you prefer an outhouse or a bathroom in its place?"
I told her that an indoor toilet was the place for me. Thenmentioned 'bout her bathroom. Hoped she hadn't lost the key.
That night I thought about the outhouse, cold with winter's bite.

So glad to know my warm bathroom was two doors to the right.

Fight Night
Jeremy Crawford
Southwestern Montana News

Friday, February 10, The Frontier Events Center was the place to be in Dillon as NXT Gen Entertainment held the Last Frontier Valentines Weekend Fight Night in front of a crowd of over 800 boxing fans. The crowd was standing room only as people came in to watch fighters from Montana, Idaho, Washington, and Wyoming take on one another in the 11 matches scheduled.

With nonstop action to keep the crowd entertained up first where Darius Kelly in the red corner vs Jaxon Whitmire in the blue corner. The two amateur youngsters both made their boxing debut and put on a great show. In the end Jaxon Whitmire came out as the winner.

Next up was Quirt Crafton in the red corner vs Maverick Staley in the blue corner. They would go toe to toe for three rounds with Maverick Staley being declared the winner.

Trevor Piece in the red corner would take on Colton Ritzinger in the blue corner with Colton being declared the winner. Up next was Cody West out of the red corner vs Shawn Kline in the blue corner. Not breaking the blue corners streak of wins Shawn would take the win again in that match.

Fans would get a quick intermission to grab a drink or some food before the matches would resume. Up next was Chad Funk in the red corner vs Cody Wright in the blue corner again the win would go to the blue corner and Cody. Jack Griswold vs Michael Marceau would see another win for the blue corner when Micheal was declared the winner of that match. Next on deck was Tyler Smook vs Jacob Fridley with Jacob taking the win another for the blue corner. Gerald Wood vs Armand Dissante would see boxers give it their all as they went toe to toe and Gerald was declared the winner for the red corner.

Fans would get another intermission as ring girls threw out T-shirts to the crowd before the Co-Main Event was to take place. Up first in the co-main event was Marnic Mann vs Justine Beltran, the only ladies fighting for the night. Mann is an MMA fighter making her debut in the boxing ring. She did not disappoint and kept the wins coming for the red corner.

The next fight between Thomas Allison vs Chandler Hall would see the night's only TKO as Allison bested Hall in this fight.

The main event featured Dillon boxer Erik Lights Out Lopez vs Logan Lunceford the match would go five rounds as both boxers laid it all on the line. Both bleeding and exhausted at the end of the fifth round, Lopez would be declared the winner in front of his hometown crowd.

DMS news will continued from yesterday!

The lunch menu for the week is as follows:

On Thursday, we will have broccoli beef with rice. And on Friday, we will enjoy corn dogs served with mac and cheese.

The seventh graders are in the midst of their kindness campaign. They work alone or in small groups to create a business proposal of an act of kindness that could be performed at school, home, or in the community. The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate the extraordinary power and importance of simple human kindness by promoting the practice of small kind acts.

They are learning that the feeling one gets from doing something kind is sometimes better than the person feels that is receiving the treat. This year many of our seventh grade businesses have wanted to thank their teachers for their dedication and hard work. One group has been surprising middle school teachers each day with different treats.

A couple of groups wanted to show their first-grade teachers appreciation so they brought the whole class yummy treats. The fifth graders were recipients of treats one cold day in January. And another group brought homemade treats to our court house and police station. These students wanted to show how much we notice and appreciate what workers do to make Dillon an amazing place to live.

This week a group of students will head to the BeeHive to do a science and art project with the kids there. In the words of Amelia Earhart, "A single act of kindness throws out roots in all directions, and the roots spring up and make new trees." The 7th graders are hoping that these kind acts are contagious. DMS news will continue in tomorrow's edition!

Healthy families are the cornerstones in a community where all young people thrive. Children develop lasting resilience when raised with consistency. The ACEs Task Force works to nurture and develop resilience in our community. Healthy families build strong communities.
