Gaasch Family Announced as this Year's "Friends of UMW Rodeo" Honorees

The Montana Western Rodeo team and Head Coach JT Robbins are excited to announce that Andy and Anna Belle Gaasch, their son Ryan, and his wife Lindsay will be honored during the upcoming Rodeo Banquet as this year's "Friends of UMW Rodeo."

"Families like the Gaasch's are vital to Montana Western Rodeo's success. They don't think twice about helping out, and I'm so grateful for their generosity. We wouldn't exist without supporters like them," said Robbins.

The family's passion for Montana Western Rodeo started when Ryan competed in steer wrestling on the UMW rodeo team in the late 90s. Lindsay played basketball for the Bulldogs and graduated from UMW in 2000. Currently, Ryan is the manager of the Diamond O Ranch while Lindsay manages and is part-owner of The Den Steakhouse. The Den also supports Montana Western Rodeo by hosting the Calcutta fundraiser during the fall college rodeo each year and donates all proceeds from the beverage sales during the Rodeo Banquet back to the program.

Andy and Anna Belle both attended Western Montana College in the late 60s and are long-standing supporters of the Dillon community. For several years, Anna Belle volunteered her time by managing the banquet's silent auction. They continue to support rodeo at the junior high and high school level, traveling across Montana to watch their grandkids, Murphy, Ryder and Piper compete. "We haven't missed a rodeo yet!" said Anna Belle.

The Rodeo Banquet is the largest fundraiser that the UMW rodeo team hosts each year and provides student scholarships, practice opportunities, defrays team travel and lodging costs, and supports the Montana Western home college rodeo each fall.

2021 WPRA Announcer of the Year, Will Rasmussen, will be emceeing this year's event. Rasmussen grew up in Choteau, Montana, raising horses and cattle on his family's ranch just outside of town. His family, known to many as the "Rodeoing Rasmussens" has played an integral part in his experiences in both the rodeo world and as a professional announcer.

The event begins at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 31st in the Keltz Arena and ticket prices are as follows: Single ticket - $60
Couples ticket - $110

Reserved table of 8 (rows 1-4) - $500 Reserved table of 8 (rows 5-8) - $400

The program is thankful for the support the Dillon and surrounding communities provide each year to all UMW rodeo student-athletes.

Tickets can be purchased by contacting Kelly Allen in the UMW Foundation Office: 406-683-7306 or kelly.allen@umwestern.edu.

For sponsorship opportunities or to donate to the silent or live auctions, please contact Jolene Robbins: 406-683-7303 or jjolene.robbins@umwestern.edu.

THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who was there for me during this incredibly difficult time losing my husband Joe Arbour. I don't know what I would have done without your help, comfort and calmness with all that needed to be done.

A big thank you to all the amazing people who donated to the Dillon Woodbank in Joe's honor. It means a lot to me and my family. You are truly a blessing.

Twelve of Ten

Bryce Angell

My grandson squinted down the barrel. His right eye on the sight.
I watched him squeeze the trigger, but he couldn't get it right.
He'd missed the target by a mile. I'm sure I heard him curse.
I said, "It's time to take a break." Things couldn't get much worse.
I poured two mugs of Country Time. That sure brought on a smile.
Then said, "I've got a story if you'll listen for a while."
I told him back when I was young I'd say 'bout twelve or so.
I couldn't hit the target. Didn't want a soul to know.
But my cousin Jerry knew that I was still a bit gun shy.
He'd learned to shoot a rifle even with an injured eye.
A tight door spring had given way and stuck right in his eye.
So he learned to shoot left-handed. He was one determined guy.
He told me, "You will learn to shoot but practice paves the way.
And each time you hit the bull's eye buy a Snickers Bar that day.
That summer we were camping at a local scout event.
The rifle range came open. Jerry dragged me from my tent.
The rifle range attendant said, "Each scout will get ten shots."
I was looking for escape. I think I said, "I've got the trots."
Jerry grinned then gave a nod, I fired my first round. The attendant hollered, "Bull's eye!" I could've sworn I hit the ground.
And then the lone attendant barked, "Reload and fire at will!"
I emptied out the chamber, never felt a bigger thrill!
The attendant raised my target. Hollered, "Bull's eye twelve of ten?"
He looked a might confused while counting fingers once again.
'Twas obvious the bull's eyes came from Jerry down the line.
But twelve of ten could only mean that two of them were mine.
That day I soon discovered, with some practice I could shoot.
But gained the self-esteem from cousin Jerry, who gave a hoot.
Nearly sixty years have come and gone. I won't forget that day.
And how my cousin taught me in his Jerry Angell way.

MHP Releases Additional Info on Trooper Injured Last Week

The Montana Highway Patrol (MHP) released additional details about the trooper who was seriously injured on February 16 near Eureka. Trooper Lewis Johnson was struck by the suspect's vehicle while outside his vehicle attempting to apprehend the suspect. Trooper Johnson has been a trooper with the Highway Patrol for eight years and is stationed out of Eureka. He remains at Logan Health in Kalispell in serious but stable condition.

"The Montana Highway Patrol family is united in the support of Trooper Lewis and his family. We are thankful for the outpouring of support we've received during this time," MHP Colonel Steve Lavin said.

Update on Facebook from Kate Johnson yesterday
 Miracles happened today! He was extubated at 2 pm. He was groggy but followed every order given and the tube was removed quickly with little discomfort. He was able to speak softly immediately. By 4 pm he was eating ice chips and sipping on water. 6pm the deputy who was on the pursuit incident with Lewis came to visit. Those two chatted for an hour and Lewis remembered every little detail of the event. He's in great spirits and gives a strong handshake to everyone who visits. Nothing much for sensation below his waistline, some tingles on the upper right leg. The trauma nurse said this battle is 50 percent mental and the only outcome is Lewis walking. We need to make sure we only focus on him walking and talking about the future like everything goes back to normal. She has him motivated, focused on being the best dad for Ryder and he's going to set a goal to work for. She also said it takes the body a year to fully recover and we will keep working hard for the next year!! Love you all - thank you for the prayers. #JohnsonFamilyStrong

Dillon Middle School News

In wrestling, last week the wrestlers attended the Butte East mixer. Here are the results. Going 1 and 1 were: Athan Graham, Trey Fifield, Landon Wendland, Rogan Madison, Ben Plovanic and Shior Mataafa. Going 1 and 0 were Andrew Bartlome and Beaudry Pain. Going 2 and 0 was Beau Reynolds. And going 0 and 2 was Tucker Crowe. This week in wrestling, Dillon will host the Dillon Jaycee Tournament on Saturday. The tournament will begin at 9 AM in the BCHS gym. Come on out and support our cougar wrestlers.

Last week student council hosted a spirit day on Valentine's Day. There was a class competition, with 8th graders dressing in black, 7th graders dressing in red and 6th graders dressing in white. The class with the most participation was: eighth grade who beat out seventh grade by one point. Great job. They also hosted a "best dressed valentine's contest". The winners of that were: Tiffany Champlain, Emily Smith, and Ben Plovanic.

Last week, Mr. Williams hosted a 3 on 3 basketball tournament during lunch. Great job to everyone who participated. The championship was between the "dirty socks" and the "yass queens." The dirty socks pulled off the win. Great job to Canin Christiansen, Andrew Bartlome, Noah Feenstra, and Aason Munday. Special congrats to our runner up team, "yass queens." They consisted of Kaitlyn Konen, Landri Hartman, and Cassie Keller. Very seldom does a 7th grade team of girls make it to the championship in our 3 on 3 tournament. So, nicely done, ladies.

The Beaverhead County ACEs Task Force wants you to know that children who grow up in a household with a family member with mental illness or depression can experience confusion, fear, anxiety, and stress. But one committed, caring adult can help a child build resilience and find success. Be that adult! Healthy families build strong communities.
