Gary Brent Marchesseau

Gary Brent Marchesseau passed away peacefully on Friday, February 17, 2023 at his home in Dillon, Mont. He was 66 years old.

Gary was born in Dillon on February 3, 1957 to Erwin "Bud" and Afton (Koontz) Marchesseau. He was the second of three children and attended school in Dillon, later graduating from Beaverhead County High School.

He married the love of his life, Wilma Hubbard, on April 19, 1980. The couple made their home together in Dillon where, in 1985, they welcomed their daughter Valerie into the world. Gary always enjoyed working with his hands and, after high school, joined the family business, Bud's Plumbing & Heating. He learned the plumbing and heating trade and, together with his father and brother, ran a successful plumbing and heating business which serviced the surrounding community for many years. After selling the business in 2006, Gary continued to work as a plumbing and heating specialist in Dillon until his retirement.

An avid outdoorsman, Gary loved Montana and never turned down the opportunity to spend a day in the mountains, a love he happily shared with the younger generations of his family. In his free time, he was often hunting, fishing or exploring the wilderness either on foot or an ATV, knowing much of the terrain around the Beaverhead and Grasshopper Valleys by heart.

Gary also had a special place in his heart for those in need. He was known to extend kindness and a helping hand to both people and animals, never wanting recognition or expecting thanks in return. It was this type of kindness which brought light to those around him and earned him the love and respect of so many friends and family.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Gary is survived by his loving wife Wilma (Hubbard) Marchesseau of Dillon; daughter Valerie Marquez and husband, Brad, of Dillon; grandson Nic Marquez of Dillon; brother Frank Marchesseau and wife, Donna, of Reno, Nev.; sister Marty Cypher and husband, Dan, of Dillon; and his loving nephews and nieces.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 8, 2023, at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon.

Rosary for Michael Fontz

The community is invited by St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church to a Rosary for Michael Fontz Saturday, February 25th at 6 pm followed by a potluck in the family center.

Youth Employment Program Presentation

Thursday, February 23

Patagonia Outlet Dillon | 6PM

Come learn about the Youth Employment Program (YEP): a nonprofit organization that engages teens and young adults in land management projects. Through stream restoration, erosion control, willow planting, brush removal and other similar projects, participants learn how to work and communicate in a team setting. We'll get to look back on past projects, and peak ahead at what's on tap for this summer.

This event is FREE and open to the public. We will have beverages and pizza for your enjoyment!

ROTARY SPEAKER

Todd Hazelbaker, Director of Operations for the City of Dillon will be the guest speaker at the Rotary meeting on Wednesday, February 22nd at noon. He will be talking about ways of serving the community through potential park improvement projects. Visitors are welcome to attend, and anyone interested in learning more about the Rotary organization is invited to be a guest for lunch. The Rotary Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, located at 203 East Glendale Street. For more information about the Rotary Club, email Matthew Fullerton at matthewfullerton@me.com.

KUDOS TO MONTANA WESTERN

Congratulations to UMW Chancellor Mike Reid and Executive Director of the UMW Foundation Roxanne Engellant and their colleagues on the successful, historic and extraordinary fundraising to date for The Experience One Campaign.

I am so pleased and impressed, not only with the amount ($11.8 million-wow) but the goals as well. Deep thanks to all the generous contributors to the campaign. To Mike and Roxanne—keep it up!

The future looks bright in your highly capable hands. Proud of you!

INFORMATION ON MONTANA'S BUDGET SURPLUS

BY REP TOM WELCH

I was recently asked if I could provide some insight into the sources of Montana's Budget surplus. Space prohibits me from going into all the finite details but I certainly can give you a quick look into this record surplus which currently stands at about $2.5 billion. I will also offer brief thoughts on some of the proposed uses for portions of this budget surplus.

Montana's financial status most recently, had been such that although having some issues, it was not in dire straits when compared to many other States across our Country. A typical Montana biennium budget was in the $5-6 billion range with an expected $175 to $300 million ending surplus which usually was attained. However, as all are aware, changes to Montana's economy were on the horizon. Let's now jump ahead to the current surplus which was the original question.

The principal reasons for our current State surplus are as follows:

-The positive impact of the inflow of ~$15 billion from the Federal Government primarily in American Rescue and Plan (ARPA) and COVID 19 funds in the past 2 years—this ~$15 billion influx into Montana is TWICE the amount of our usual State biennium budget

-More Montanans working (~2% unemployment rate) at higher wages thus leading to higher income tax collections as well as higher spending by these individuals

-Increased investment earnings due to higher than anticipated interest rates available in late 2021 and throughout most of 2022 on State investments (including on ARPA funds committed but not yet dispersed), State reserves, and on the taxable investments of individual Montanans

-Increases in property tax collections due to higher property valuations/assessments as well as new construction

-The increasing inflow of out of staters to Montana who either want to move to and work remotely from Montana or at least spend part of the year in Montana—money is being spent in our local economies in a variety of manners by these people

-Taxpayers who overpaid Montana State Income Tax via estimates in 2022 for 2021 but then chose to not take a refund of these funds but rather to leave them in the State's hands in anticipation of having higher 2022 earnings and thus higher taxes due

--Efficiencies enacted in Governor Gianforte's initial Budget

This overview gives you some sense of the primary sources of our current budget surplus—likely some that you had not previously included!

Switching gears briefly, there has not been a shortage of ideas floating around the Legislature and Montana as how best to appropriate these surplus funds. To that I would say this, there are solid plans being finalized to 1) return a portion of these surplus funds to Montana's income and property tax payors, 2) use a portion of this one-time money to address known infrastructure and program deficiencies, and 3) provide a realistic surplus for use when Montana encounters the next challenge(s).

I would also share with you, that our Legislative Fiscal Division staff has alerted us to a possible down turn in the National and State economies in the coming months. The depth of this down turn is unknown, let alone whether it even happens. However, this is one more factor that we weigh as we consider our actions as Legislators on this matter and others.

Two further thoughts for you to ponder, here at the Legislature, we commonly refer to these surplus funds as providing a "sugar" high, whereas we all want a piece of it and once we get it, we want more! Secondly, there is some thought that the events of the past 18 months or so may well be a precursor to permanent changes in the dynamics of the Montana economy going forward—i.e., the number of Montanans working from home steadily increasing.

Lots of information for your consideration. Do continue to let me know your questions and thoughts...

Thanks for allowing me to be your Representative

Senator Jeff Welborn Report

Good Morning Southwest Montana this is your Senator Jeff Welborn coming to you from my office inside the State Capitol in Helena. With week 7 in the books, and the halfway point looming, we are working very long days, to get our work done. A myriad of issues are before us, but some I'd like to touch on, that have huge potential impacts to folks in all corners of my Senate District, are to do with Grizzly Bears, Labor Unions, and Exempt Wells.

First, with the federal government showing a possibility of delisting grizzly bear populations in the Northern Continental Divide, and Yellowstone ecosystems, it could be up to the state to decide how to implement management practices.

SB 295 Sponsored by State Sen. Bruce Gillespie (R-Ethridge) and co-sponsored by a bipartisan group of 38 Republicans including myself, along with four Democratic legislators, would give the state's Fish and Wildlife Commission the ability to manage grizzly bears, should they be delisted. It would authorize the Commission to adopt rules on grizzly bears, including allowing livestock owners to take lethal action if the predator is attacking or killing their livestock, establishing a quota for grizzly killings and allow livestock owners to report directly about grizzly bear threats to Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks. Once de-listed, the state has the capability to responsibly manage grizzly bears, and this bill seeks to accomplish that. Simply put, this proposal is a proactive and measured approach.

Now shifting gears to labor unions, House Bill 448, Introduced by Rep James Bergstrom, a Republican from Buffalo, would prohibit private sector union contracts that require employees to join a union or otherwise pay fees for their representation. It's the latest legislative swing at unions in Montana, however we have a deep history in Montana, using a bi-partisan coalition, that has repeatedly resisted right-to-work legislation. This proposal sounds good on the surface, but it a solution to a problem that doesn't exist.

Some try to make this issue a stereotypical Democrat-Republican battle, like I mentioned earlier, in Montana there is strong bi-partisan support when it comes to pushback against right to work legislation. My Senate District for instance, runs deep into Silver Bow County, where history tells us that there was blood in the streets, because workers stood together for better wages, and working conditions. I've never supported right to work, and wont be supporting this measure either. I feel it's best to let the free market work. If a business chooses to use Union Labor, it should remain their choice, on the flip side if a worker chooses to be non-union, they can certainly work for a nonunion- shop.

HB 448 is essentially identical to the 2021 bill, HB 251. That bill failed in a huge bipartisan fashion. Both bills derive their policy from language circulated by well-funded Out of State, advocacy groups like the American Legislative Exchange Council, more commonly known as ALEC. While the bill title presumes to give workers the freedoms to not join a union, workers already have that right. No one is forced to join a union, not in Montana, nor anywhere else in the country. This bill does not give workers any right they do not already have. Closed shops in which union membership is an exclusive condition of employment — are illegal under the Taft Hartley Act, a 1947 amendment to the National Labor Relations Act.

Several large employers in Montana came in opposition as well, asking to let the free market work between Companies and their labor force They feel RTW would send a negative and demoralizing message to those workers, and disrupt workplace relations. I hope we can beat back against this mis-guided policy again this session.

One last thing I want to mention is HB 642, and exempt well bill that has just been introduced. Typically any water legislation is vetted through the Interim with stakeholders at the table, this proposal has had none of that vetting, and pick clear winners and losers if passed. Ranchers, farmers, and current water rights holders being the clear loser, with land developers without rights in place, and well drillers being the only ones benefitting from this. I'm asking anyone with an exempt well on your property, or water rights for beneficial use, to weigh in as opposition. You can text me at 406-949-6070 and I will get you in touch with in person hearing information or a Zoom Link to weigh in that way. The hearing is this coming Wednesday in House Natural Resources. Rep Ken Walsh from Twin Bridges sets on that committee, I encourage you to send him an email.

Until next week, stay warm, keep yourselves and your families safe, and I wish everyone that is in the middle of calving season all the best.
