Fred Stradinger

December 5, 1939 - February 21, 2023

On February 21, 2023, Fred Stradinger passed away quietly after a battle of Parkinson's and Dementia at the Springs where he was surrounded by friends, family, and the workers that were caring for him, and Shawna Gibson, who became close to him as he did her as she kept him active while he was wheel chair bound.

He was born on December 5, 1939 in St. Paul, Minnesota to John and Irma Stradinger. He attended school in St. Paul. He grew up with his three siblings, Jerome Stradinger, Jack Stradinger, and Mary Stradinger Carlson.

They spent most summers at Patte Lake at their resort, and worked along side with their parents.

After he graduated, he married the love of his life, and partner in crime, Susan Ryan Stradinger, and remained married for 63 years until Fred passed away. Fred and Susie had two sons, Jerry and Jim Stradinger. After graduation, Fred worked as a reserve deputy on the Ramsey County Sheriff's Dept, a gas attendant, and the New Brighton Bank to support his family. He then became an auditor and travelled to several different banks. While he was in Butte working at the First National Bank, he fell in love with Butte and moved his family in 1969 where he became employed full time. He worked at First National Bank, until it was bought by Norwest Banking Company. He climbed the banking ladder and became the controller of Wells Fargo in Butte, Anaconda, and Dillon after Norwest bought them. He and his wife, Susan moved to Dillon, Montana, where after a period of time he retired. He was a great father and grandfather and spent his time with his family vacationing, building hot rods with his brother, Jerome Stradinger, attending several meetings to different boards he belonged to, and his most favorite; going to car shows all over the country.

He was a member to several boards, the most satisfying being a founding member of the C.C.C.S. He was also on the Western College in Dillon, Diocese of Helena and a police commissioner for Butte-Silver Bow. For his time away from work, he was an original organizer for the Copper City Corvettes, the Pioneer Street Rod Association, and belonged to the Montana Street Rod Association, the good guys, and

DOJ's OCP receiving increased reports of scam callers posing as law enforcement

Scammers are continuing their attempts to obtain personal information from unsuspecting Montanans over the phone by claiming to be law enforcement officials, Attorney General Austin Knudsen warned today. The fraudsters are disguising their phone number, so on caller ID, it appears the number is coming from a legitimate local number, which is also referred to as "spoofing." Attorney General Knudsen also reminded Montanans that law enforcement and court officials will never ask for payment over the phone or payment in the form of prepaid and/or gift cards.

Once on the phone with an individual, the scammer will threaten the victim with outstanding warrants or investigations to try to obtain personal information, like bank account numbers. Other times, to supposedly clear the charges or warrant against them, the victim is ordered to obtain reloadable debit cards or other forms of payment, then provide the card numbers to the scammer.

Attorney General Knudsen first alerted Montanans of the scam in December. Since then, the Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection (OCP) has received additional reports of scammers disguising themselves as law enforcement officials from Cascade County, Lewis and Clark County, Yellowstone County, Flathead County, and a judge in Lewis and Clark County. Scammers will even go so far as to find the names of officers who work at specific departments. OCP is receiving roughly six to eight calls per day from concerned Montanans regarding the scam.

"Law enforcement and court officials will never ask for payment over the phone or payment in the form of gift cards. Do not provide personal information or money to anyone you don't know over the phone," Attorney General Knudsen said. "If you have any questions about the legitimacy of a call, contact our Office of Consumer Protection immediately. They can help you determine whether you are being scammed."

The DOJ's Office of Consumer Protection encourages Montanans who are targeted by these scammers to either hang up the phone or if they think a law enforcement agency may be trying to get a hold of them but they are not sure of the legitimacy of the call, take the following steps:

- Ask the caller for his/her name and immediate supervisor;

- Ask under what authority this call is being made;
- Ask the court of jurisdiction;
- Hang up, find the law enforcement agency's phone number from their official website (such as the city or county website) or in the phone book, and call the agency at that number to verify the information provided; and
- NEVER provide personal information or payment over the phone to someone unless you initiated the contact (you called them) and you are certain you know who you are speaking to.

To report an attempted scam, use OCP's convenient online reporting form here. You can also call to speak with an investigator at (800) 481-6896 or (406) 444-4500, visit OCP's homepage at https://dojmt.gov/consumer/, or call your local law enforcement agency.

Last year, the Office of Consumer Protection fielded 974 scam complaints and successfully saved Montanans from losing nearly $900,000, including $712,884 that was recovered for Montanans who were victimized by scammers and $168,020 in prevented loss for consumers who called inquiring about whether they were being scammed.

Commission approves fishing regulation change for Holter Reservoir

FWP's Fish and Wildlife Commission has adopted a new regulation for yellow perch in Holter Reservoir near Helena.

Effective immediately, the new regulation is 25 perch daily and 50 in possession. Previous regulations allowed both a daily and possession limit of 25 perch.

Perch numbers in Holter Reservoir have increased over the past few years. The Upper Missouri River Reservoir Fisheries Management Plan guides Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks to maximize fishing opportunities when yellow perch abundance increases above goal objectives in the plan. This is now the case with perch, and the rationale behind the regulation change.

Veteran's Corner Update #191

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. For whatever reason the bad weather we though we were going to get, hasn't really materialized to any great degree in this part of SW MT as of this Sunday the 19th. Cold and snow is again predicted this week, so when this comes out on Wednesday that could very well be the case. This past Saturday one of my adult daughters and I were in Anaconda at the VFW Hall playing in a cribbage tournament. It was great fun with a bunch of great people who loved to playing cribbage. We were given score cards and played 9 games each. The scoring was under the rules of the American Cribbage Congress (ACC). I didn't know there was such an organization but am interested in becoming a member. There are weekly games played in Deer Lodge, Anaconda and Butte. If you love Crib you might inquire where these games are being played. In Butte it's at the Eastside Athletic club on Thursday night.

On the Veteran side of things I talked to John Kotka, the General Forman for Markovich Construction who has the contract to build the "Covered Walkway" between Cottages #4 & #5. John said that the long awaited for steel roof trusses should be here this week. They'll have all the walls up, which are covered with fireproof plywood/vapor barrier/foam blue-board insulation, in time to start installing these steel trusses. These trusses are complicated to install and will take time to do it right. It'll be a great looking addition and will serve our Veterans well. SWMT Vet Home Foundation Liaison Dave Williamson said the proposed funding for the other two "Covered Walkways" at this Vet Home, has moved through the first committee, has more steps to go through before finally going before the the floor to be voted on. If it gets through all of this it will be med to late April before we know the outcome. Need support and prayers on this one.

An interesting bit of news is that the Eastern Montana Veteran's Home in Glendive Mt., is going to be under new management as of March 1st. The new management contractor will be "EDURO" which is the same company that is managing our SWMT Veteran's Home. We hope that is a good fit for those veterans there.

On March 4th a very important veterans event is going to take place at the American Legion Post #1 Hall in Butte, Mt.. It'll be from 10:00 AM—4:00 PM at 3201 Wynne Ave. Butte. The title of this event is the "Veterans Resource Fair" put on by the Montana Veteran Affairs Division. There will be many Resources and Service providers to help veterans with such things as Employment, Housing, Healthcare Enrollment, Education Benefits, Vocational Rehabilitation, Legal Services, Mental Health and Wellness, Claims, And much more.... This is a real important even for any veteran to come and see if there's something or someone who can guide and help them. Bring your spouses or caregivers and in the process learn how they can help you get help. Just the fact that you can get registered for a claim or getting into the VA Healthcare system are just some of the benefits of going. The Job Service Representatives will be there and if you need a job, they can help you get one. That, that again is just some of what can happen, if you go. Come and check it out, it's well worth doing.

Our DAV Vans and VTS Vans have been busy getting our Veterans to their medical appointments. A veteran's wife, I talked with the other day, was concerned about her husband, who is in a wheelchair, being able to get a ride to FT Harrison in Helena. She was also concerned if she could ride with him. The wife/ husband/caretaker of the veteran is allowed to ride with him or her in either the DAV Van or the VTS Van. The DAV Van policy is that the veteran has to be able to get into the Van on their own to ride. The VTS Van is for those Veterans who are in wheel chairs or need help getting into the van because of whatever disability they have. We are honored to drive any of you to your appointments, so please call for a ride. 406-490-3692 We take care of Butte, Anaconda, Deer Lodge, Dillon. Ruby Valley, White Hall, Ennis and Phillipsburg.

Check out the Veteran activities in the areas you live and see what you can do to help them out. If your a veteran, you know help is always needed and welcomed. Veterans organizations do a lot for the communities they live in and feel good doing whatever that may be.
