Thank You!

On behalf of the entire Paffhausen family we would like to thank all of you who gave Paige, Mick, and Parker love, support, and prayers over the past few months. After giving birth to our daughter, Parker, Paige began to show signs of an infection. Over the course of several days the infection became severe enough to be life flighted to Salt Lake. On the road to recovery Paige spent a month in the ICU where she had several surgeries including a skin graft. Paige is now recovering well at home with her family. While she still has difficulties to face, being home has been the best medicine. Once again we are overwhelmed by the support, kindness and prayers. We are fortunate and blessed to live in such a caring and compassionate community. Thank you all.

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice, Public Relations Officer

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue held its March meeting on the 1st of March at the Search and Rescue Building. The meeting was called to order by commander Lawrence Morrisroe at 7:05 PM. There were 22 members in attendance. Once again the past month has been very quiet as far as search/rescue activity. Even though we have not had any call outs, the unit is busy with various types of trainings.

On February 12, the unit held an avalanche training which included field training on how to use transmitters and receivers to locate buried individuals. It also included practice with probe poles and how to do grid searches with them. Individuals participating in the training were: Adam Norlander, MD Peterson, Steve Mock, Sam Peterson, Jamie Trivette, Wade Bush, Joe Reyes, James Mathews, Evan Helle, Jennifer McKay, Charles Weidow, and Shane Puyear. It was a great training exercise for those who attended. And with the amount of snow and snow conditions out there, the chances of needing these skills are highly likely.

Coming up March 30th through April 2nd several members of the Beaverhead SAR unit will engage in a 4 day course, "Managing the Search", with classroom workshops and field study time to become search managers for the unit. Some of the individuals have participated in similar courses and will be attending this as a refresher. Individuals that will be attending the course are: Chuck Maddox, Kolby Malesich, Jamie Trivette, Joe Reyes, Nathan Freeman, Charles Wharton, Julia Clark, Trevor Hyland, Steve Mock, Wade Bush, and Adam Norlander.

Another training opportunity for members will take place June 10th and 11th. At this time we will have a weekend campout which will include two days of various types of training for members. Member's spouses and children have a great opportunity to visit and engage with one another out in the hills. We'll have more info on this event in coming months.

During the meeting we brought on board three new probationary members. These members will participate in all activities of the unit for a period of one year. At that time their participation records will be reviewed and if they have participated in most of the unit's activities, they will be instated as full members of the Beaverhead Search and Rescue. The newest probationary members are: Westin Helle, Eric Krush, and Charles Wharton. Congratulations to these individual and we look forward to working side by side in the future.

The meeting was adjourned around 8:00 PM. Your Beaverhead Search and Rescue wants to remind everyone that winter is still with us and will be for several more months. Please be extremely cautious if you venture to the great outdoors. Snow conditions are not the best and avalanches are waiting to happen. So whether you are cross country skiing, snow shoeing, snowmobiling, or any other type of winter recreation, be extremely careful. Make sure you have all the right equipment. When the weather starts warming ice conditions will also start to deteriorate. Make sure you're on solid ice if still enjoying those winter activities. Take care and be safe, your Beaverhead Search and Rescue "In the Business of Saving Lives".

We drove into the desert campsite, just about midday. Then read the sorry sign that said, "The Creek a mile away."

Ten gallons every day would be a thirsty horse's style. We had to find some water that was closer than a mile.

We love our mountain water, yet we pay it never mind. But here the desert water is a gold mine of its kind.

We asked the Anhders brothers if they'd find a water source. They shoveled down a sandwich, then each climbed up on their horse.

"It's water, boys, we're needing. These old ponies wanna drink. We can even dig a hole down if you find a water sink."

The brothers turned and set the horses at an easy lope. Then whirled and came back running. Was it too dang soon to hope?

I heard one say, "There's water just a hundred yards away. A water trough for cattle, this could be our lucky day."

We led the thirsty horses over to the water tank. And I watched with guilty conscience as the water level sank.

The horses tanked the water down. We should have stopped to think.

One cowboy said, "We're stealin'. We could end up in the clink!"

We ain't the brightest fellows. Would the rancher make a noise? Do cowboys have an honor code? "We'll blame the Anhders boys."

Kenny was the youngest. We said, "You're looking mighty pale. You really needn't worry. We'll come visit you in jail."

The night air found us round the fire. A water truck drove in. The driver stepped on out and he was tall and lizard thin.

I'd seen his look a thousand times. Just itchin' for a fight. So, we offered him some steak and spuds with hopes to make things right.

He gobbled down the taters, then his scowl turned to a smile. He said, "I'll bring you water if you'll feed me for a while."

It sounded like a deal to me, sure got us off the hook. The Anhders boys were smiling. Kenny lost his panicked look.

And when I start to think about the doggone water trough. I reckon we were lucky, didn't get our butts shot off.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Recognized for the Twelfth Time as One of the 100 Highest Ranked Critical Access Hospitals in the Nation in 2023

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare today announced it has been recognized for the 12th time as one of the 100 highest ranked Critical Access Hospitals (CAHs) in the nation. Compiled by The Chartis Center for Rural Health, this annual recognition program honors outstanding performance among the nation's rural hospitals based on the results of the Chartis Rural Hospital Performance INDEX™.

This is a remarkable achievement, as there are over 1,300 Critical Access Hospitals in the United States. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare ranked among the top in performance of all rural hospitals, large or small, up to 25 beds.

"This consistent and repeated achievement of Barrett Hospital & HealthCare shows our organization's commitment to excellence and quality," says Taylor Rose, Chief Executive Officer. "I'm proud of the work our team does every day to provide the best possible healthcare to our patients and our community. We honor every single employee who made this award a reality."

Now in its 13th year, the INDEX has established itself as the industry's most comprehensive and objective assessment of rural hospital performance. Leveraging publicly available data, the INDEX is trusted by rural hospitals, health systems with rural affiliates, hospital associations and state offices of rural health across the country to measure and monitor performance across a variety of areas impacting hospital operations and finance.

About Barrett Hospital & HealthCare: Established in 1922, Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is a non-profit Critical Access Hospital (CAH) and medical clinic provider in Dillon, Montana. Based on The Chartis Center's Rural Hospital Performance Index, the National Rural Health Association (NRHA) has recognized Barrett Hospital & HealthCare as a Top 20 CAH five times, including in 2022. UMW Foundation Establishes Scholarship in Honor of Dr. Robert M. Miller

Dr. Robert M. Miller, DVM, is one of the world's foremost authorities on equine behavior. A retired large and exotic animal clinician, Dr. Miller revolutionized the concept of imprint training as it pertains to horses and other precocial species and has spent the last 40 years as an educator and author.

In honor of his 96th birthday on March 4, the University of Montana Western Foundation and the Miller Family have created the Dr. Robert M. Miller, DVM Academic Scholarship, to be awarded to an outstanding student within the Equine Studies Department. The recipient will have demonstrated academic excellence, as well as an aptitude and passion for the principles of Natural Horsemanship, a method of training, riding and communicating with equines that uses non-coercive methods and is based upon understanding their innate behaviors and instincts.

Dr. Miller followed in the footsteps of Natural Horsemanship founders Bill and Tom Dorrance. A retired large and exotic animal practitioner, Dr. Miller also revolutionized the concept of imprint training as it pertains to newborn foals and other precocial species and has spent the last 40 years as an educator, clinician, and author on the subject. He has received numerous awards for his work as a veterinarian and behaviorist, including the prestigious Leo Bustad Companion Animal Veterinarian of the Year and the Hall of Fame at the Western States Horse Expo. Dr. Miller is also an accomplished veterinary and Western cartoonist, and his work has been featured in countless magazines, journals and books; his moniker, "RMM," was derived from his cartoon signature.

Dr. Miller is the author of 17 books and DVDs on horsemanship and imprint training; his acclaimed Natural Horsemanship Explained is also used as a textbook in Montana Western's Equine Studies Department. He has visited six continents teaching the principles of imprint training, which has been implemented in stables, breeding programs, zoos, wildlife sanctuaries, and game preserves worldwide.

Dr. Miller was born on Staten Island. Following two years of military service in post-occupation Germany, he used his GI Bill to attend the University of Arizona in Tucson. After graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in Animal Husbandry, Dr. Miller attended Colorado A&M (now Colorado State University) in Fort Collins, where he received his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine in 1956. He founded the Conejo Valley Veterinary Clinic in Thousand Oaks, California, in 1959 and grew the hospital to a highly successful, 12-person mixed practice by the time he retired in 1987 to become a full-time educator. In his spare time, he was an avid skier, rider, world traveler and outdoor recreationalist; he and his wife of 67 years, Debby, still reside on their small mule and Quarter Horse ranch in Southern California.

Dr. Miller has dedicated his life to teaching equine enthusiasts and professionals more humane, scientifically proven methods of handling

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE
REP TOM WELCH MT HD 72

We reached the mid-point of Montana's 68th Legislative Session on March 3rd. Much work was accomplished but much remains to be done in the following weeks.

Among our accomplishments, we passed a package of eight Bills which addressed our Budget Surplus. These Bills dealt with Income Tax rebates-HB 192, Business Equipment Tax exemption increases-HB 212, revising long term Capital Gains Taxes-HB 221, Property Tax rebates-HB 222, a Pay Down of Montana's existing general obligation debt-HB 251, investing millions of dollars into a Highway Construction fund that will provide access to Federal matching funds-HB 267, reduced the Individual Income tax rate-SB 121, and lastly, revising the apportionment of income regarding Montana's corporate income-SB 124. All the above-mentioned Bills have been transmitted to the Governor for his signature in coming days. the trades, and improving access to attainable housing.

A tremendous amount of work has been and is still underway with respect to Montana's Budget for the next two years. The Appropriations Committee is working diligently to right size Montana's budget. Initial reviews reflect a Budget slightly below that of the Governor's proposal. The entire Legislative body will have our first in depth look at this preliminary Budget in the next couple of weeks.

This Legislative session has been good to me. In addition to the two Bills mentioned above awaiting the Governor's signature, I have had three Bills already signed by the Governor. My other five Bills which deal with topics such as HB 379 Revise Laws Related to Pharmacy Benefit Managers and HB 129 Revise Fees for Special Mobile Equipment, remain alive and working their way thru the Legislative process.

Disappointments also come with the successes. A group of Legislators from both sides of the isle have joined together to derail Bills, for now, that would provide for school maintenance, teacher health care, and Conservation District funding.

I continue to support all of these currently stalled Bills in their present form and am hopeful that we can successfully move these Bills forward in the 2nd half of this Legislative Session.

I will wrap up with some statistics and general information from the Session to date. Nearly 1450 Bills have been introduced so far with 850 plus of these in the House. Staff tells me that they have never seen as many Amendments as have been brought forth this year. Legislative trackers reflect that I have taken 1198 House floor votes related to Bills so far while only missing one House Floor vote. House of Representative members spent 25 hours in Session over a 2 day span this past Thursday and Friday working on the House floor in order to get our needed work done before taking our Transmittal break. These days started at 8am and ran past 9pm with in House meals being provided—yes long days!

Thank you for allowing me to be your Representative!
