D.V.F.D Responds To Afternoon Motorhome Fire

Jeremy Crawford Southwestern Montana News

Dillon Volunteer Fire Department was called out today Wednesday, March 8th for a report of a motorhome on fire. When they arrived on East Sebree Street an older model motor home was completely engulfed in flames. Firefighters worked on the fire to contain it to the motorhome and stop it from spreading to a nearby house. The owner was cutting on the motorhome when sparks started the fire. The fire department was able to keep it contained to the motorhome and an older chevy pickup truck.

Commission approves fishing regulation change for paddlefish in the lower Yellowstone River

New regulation prohibits snagging in the intake fish bypass channel

During its meeting on Feb. 22, the Fish and Wildlife Commission adopted a new regulation that prohibits snagging of paddlefish within the intake fish bypass channel on the Yellowstone River.

The intake fish bypass channel is part of a Yellowstone River intake diversion dam project. The project's objectives are to improve upstream and downstream fish passage for pallid sturgeon and other native species, including paddlefish, while maintaining water diversions into the lower Yellowstone project main canal.

Snagging for paddlefish is very popular in the lower Yellowstone and can lead to high concentrations of anglers targeting paddlefish during spawning migrations. Since it is not yet fully understood how the fish bypass channel will influence fish movements and angler behavior, the department proposed closing the bypass channel to snagging to avoid any unintentional catch of migrating pallid sturgeon and other native species.

Closing the bypass to snagging could also reduce potential conflicts between paddlefish anglers and FWP monitoring crews. The bypass channel will remain open for passage by boats and for angling by other methods.

Bulldogs Outlast Warriors in Kansas, Qualify for NAIA Round of 16

The No. 3 seeded Montana Western Women's Basketball team claimed second-round victory tonight over the No. 11 seeded Sterling College (Kan.) by a score of 72-68. The Bulldogs now advance to the final site in Sioux City, Iowa where they will take on the No. 2 seeded Dordt (Iowa).

"Could not be prouder of this team or more excited," redshirt senior Mesa King said. "We have a long road ahead of us still, but I think we can do this. I think it is going to be a good run for us. We just have to stay together, keep doing what we are good at instead of trying to do too much, and keep doing the little things."

How It Happened

Despite forcing a quick turnover on Sterling's first possession, the Warriors were the first to score and went on a quick 7-0 run on the Bulldogs.

Shainy Mack hit a three and a layup to break the run with just under seven minutes to play in the first quarter. Sterling continued to put the pressure on the Bulldogs.

Brynley Fitzgerald drained back-to-back threes and Jordan Sweeney hit a jumper to give the Bulldogs their first lead of the game.

Up 17-14 heading into the second quarter, Sterling's Kali Briar drained a three to tie the game at 17. Keke Davis answered with a contested layup and gave Montana Western the edge once again.

After a momentum shift following a three-point play from Emily Cooley, the Bulldogs led 38-31 heading into the second half.

Warriors' Taya Wilson hit a mid-range jumper, cutting into the Bulldogs' seven-point lead at the start of the third. Sterling continued to push and took a lead behind another three from Briar.

Sweeney jumped back in and added a three and a jumper on back-to-back possessions to put UMW back up 47-44. UMW would go on to hang on to a three-point lead heading into the final ten minutes of the game.

Montana Western and Sterling continued to duke it out down the stretch. With 5:07 remaining in the game, Sterling claimed a five-point lead. Sweeney and Fitzgerald combined to bring the Bulldogs right back into it tied at 61.

Two steals from Mesa King and one from Fitzgerald helped to keep the momentum on the Bulldogs' side as Montana Western
