July 16, 1940 - March 7, 2023

Raymond "Red" Gransbery passed away at his home in Butte on March 7, 2023. Ray was born on July 16, 1940 in Dillon to Raymond and Irene (Blunk) Gransbery. He attended schools in Glen and Feeley, graduated from Butte High School, and then served in the U.S. Navy. enjoyed family camping trips at Birch Creek and throughout Wise River Valley.

In his younger years, Ray enjoyed hunting, fishing, floating the Big Hole River, and visiting with friends at his favorite watering holes. He especially loved when his whole family could get together for a picnic.

Ray is preceded in death by his parents; wife, Marsha; twin brother, Ron and sister-in-law, Denise.

Ray is survived by brother, Earl and niece, Annette; brother, David, daughter, Kim; sons and daughters-in-law: Shawn and Laura, Dennis and BJ, Craig and Leah, Dean and Beverley, Kevin and Christina, Corey and Lisa; 24 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Special thanks to staff and friends at Pair-a-Dice, The Mill/Crazy Carol's, McQueen Club, Copper City Casino and Restaurant and Columbus Plaza for always watching out for our dad.

Cremation has taken place and a Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

Bulldog Women Claim Victory Over No. 4 Dordt

After a two and a half hour delayed tip-off, the Montana Western Women's Basketball team defeated the No. 4 ranked and No. 2 seeded Dordt University (Iowa) 89-79 in a game that lasted through early Wednesday morning. The Bulldogs advance to the quarterfinals to take on the No. 3 ranked and No. 1 seeded Thomas More (Ky.) (29-3). "We knew it was going to be really hard, which it should be this time of the year. We knew it was going to be hard for us to stop them, but sometimes offense wins games and tonight that was the case." Head coach Lindsay Woolley said after the win.

Notables

- The Bulldogs advance to the quarterfinals again for the first time since they won a title in 2019.
- UMW shot a season high of 61.5 percent from the field and 62.5 from the arc. They also hit 15 threes and were 76.9 percent from the charity stripe.
- The Bulldogs were an impressive 80 percent from the field in the second half.
- Jordan Sweeney led all scorers with 24 points while Brynley Fitzgerald followed with 22 points of her own. Both had career nights as Sweeney hit a career high five three pointers and Fitzgerald totaled a career high seven assists.
- Shainy Mack was 5-6 from the field and added 13 points and an assist.
- Emily Cooley came off the bench and added nine points, had two rebounds, and two assists.

DUTCH TREAT

By "Swede" Troedsson

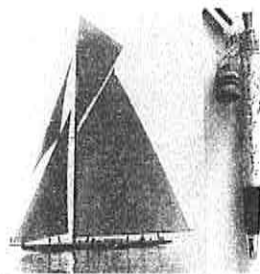

In the summer of 1999 I was poking around the Northern Lights sporting goods store in Bozeman, Montana. I happened to notice that a store clerk was showing some topographic maps to a man and woman couple. To satisfy my curiosity I drifted over to the couple and listened to the conversation as they were examining a map. I noticed the couple spoke with a foreign accent.

When it appeared the clerk had concluded his conversation, I introduced myself and inquired as to the couples' country of origin. They said they were physicians from Holland and intended to rent a canoe and go canoeing on lakes in Yellowstone National park. I informed them that I could recommend a secluded campsite and lakes to paddle a canoe on. They seemed interested so I suggested to the clerk that he leave us alone so he could help other customers. (I didn't want to share my favorite area with him).

I explained to the couple that my favorite canoeing and camping area was on Cliff and Wade Lakes, located about 45 miles south of Ennis, Montana. My favorite campsite was near the Cliff Lake inlet. The area is secluded because the shallow lake depth for one half mile north of the inlet does not accommodate motorboat access. They would awaken in the morning to the croaking from numerous Sandhill cranes. Elk, deer and other wildlife could be viewed across the inlet from their campsite.

I suggested that on their return trip to Bozeman, they stop at the Grizzly Bar & Cafe and order an excellent steak dinner. The cafe is about 10 miles north of their exit onto the highway. After determining which maps to purchase, they thanked me, and gave me a Dutch ball-pen that had windmill and Dutch flag fobs attached.

After returning to Holland they sent me a thank you card. In it they stated "Be Welcome! Dear Nils. We were happy enough to meet you at Northern Lights. Remember? You gave us excellent advice and we did a lot of canoeing on Wade Lake, Cliff Lake etc. Superb! Quiet and unbelievably beautiful. And of course we had a wonderful dinner at the Grizzly Bar. (Nice people over there and wonderful food.) So we like to thank you again for your comments. Greetings from Frans and Hendrika"
