Friends of Jaycee Park Luau

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Friends of Jaycee Park hosted their annual dinner and fundraiser on Tuesday, March 21st at the Lewis and Clark Room at UMW. Guests started the evening off with a tiki style bar while they browsed the many silent auction items that had been donated to the fundraiser. The night really got started when Western Football players Junior Mata'afa, Marcus Lombard, Sione Heimuli, Kipa Sakalia, Kenai Liua, Lalio Kaluma, Hirkley Latu, Jrney Mata'afa West Mata'afa, and Jed Hefferman performed the Haka a Maori War Dance.

After the performance attendees were treated to a buffet style Luau Dinner with pulled pork, chicken, salads, and desserts.

After dinner the Val Prophet Memorial live auction began with auctioneers Jeff Welborn and Gary Ordish bringing in the bids to a lively crowd.

Fun was had by all those in attendance and the funds raised will go into upkeep of the park along with a few needed upgrades to help control areas that see water pooling and produce muddy messes. If you would like to donate to the park you can do so here <https://www.friendsofthejayceepark.org/>

Her work, which often combines visual and textual elements, is born of an interest in a return to bodily experience amid the alienation of modernity and technology, as well as with a deep concern for the liberation of all sentient beings from suffering. Secretary Christi Jacobsen thanks businesses for attending Manufacturing & International Trade Day event

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen expressed her appreciation for the Montana businesses who attended the Montana Chamber of Commerce's and Montana Manufacturing Association's Manufacturing & International Trade Day event in Helena.

Secretary Jacobsen attended afternoon sessions highlighting value-added agriculture, film production and media manufacturing, Montana's international trade presence, and the importance of investing in Montana.

Organizers of the event recognized Secretary Jacobsen's work to reduce government by cutting Montana business registration fees and waiving several other fees entirely.

Secretary Jacobsen also intends to waive the 2024 Annual Report filing fee for all Montana businesses.

Attendees also celebrated the signing of House Bill 212 increasing the business equipment tax exemption. Governor Greg Gianforte held a ceremonial signing of the bill at the event.

Veteran's Corner Update #196

By Mike Lawson

Greetings to those of you who read my SW MT update articles.

I drove to Helena to testify before a House Committee, concerning funding for our "Covered Walkways" at our SW MT Veteran' Homes, last Wednesday. I met Dave Williamson and Bill Willing outside the Hearing Room. We went in and when our portion of HB #5 came up, we each testified for the passing of the requested funding to complete the construction on the remaining two "Covered Walkways". This HB #5 is made up of a number of projects that need funding. The Representatives asked many questions of the different sponsors /expert-witnesses and backers of these different requested project funding. We were not challenged on our funding request for the "Covered Walkways" which is (hopefully) a good indication of their approval for this to pass. Keeping our fingers crossed for sure.

One of our Butte Veterans, Dave Coleman, lost his home to a fire last week. He, his wife and grandson barely got out of their home with only the clothes on their backs. It was such a hot fire that they lost everything. Many veterans/church folks/ and members of the community are rallying to help them in being made whole again, after losing everything. Dave, a retired Navy Veteran, is an accomplished piano player and has played many venues in the area as well as at number of different churches. I would ask our Veteran Organizations especially, to lift this Brother Veteran and his family up in prayer and in ways to help them in this stressful time. I don't have a contact as of right now, except for Dave. You can contact me, Mike Lawson at 406-560-3591 and I should have more information as to what "help sources" you can contact.

I mentioned I was doing a three week coverage of facts/figures/etc., of the Vietnam War. The fact/figures are grim for me, even though I spent two tours there, was wounded and after recovering went back for the second tour. We saw our part of being there, but seeing the big picture, after the fact, is mind blowing. The following statistics bear this out;

Casualties and Draftees:

- Total: 58,202 . Men who have subsequently died of wounds, account for changing totals.

- Average age of men killed: 23 years

- 25% (648,500) of total forces in country were draftees.

- Draftees accounted for 30.4% (17,725) of combat deaths in Vietnam.

Socio-Economic Status:

- 76% of those sent to Vietnam were from lower-middle/working class

Secretary Christi Jacobsen discusses constitutions, roles of SOS Office with students from Roundup

Juniors and seniors from Roundup High School met with Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen at the State Capitol this week.

Roundup teacher Dan Eiselein brought nearly 30 students to the Capitol as part of an educational experience during the Montana Legislature. Each student told Secretary Jacobsen about their future plans, which included college, military, and career opportunities.

Secretary Jacobsen explained the responsibilities of the Secretary of State's Office, including the registration of Montana businesses and responsibility to oversee uniformity in elections. The Secretary discussed the procedure for the students to register to vote – some already had – and she explained how Montana students can participate in the YouthVote and Secretary of State Constitution Contest.
