Introducing: The Southwest Montana
Chocolate-Lovers' Trail!

Nearly everyone loves chocolate, right? Let's give those chocolate lovers a reason to travel throughout the Southwest Montana region and visit a variety of communities. Not only will these chocolate connoisseurs be treated to chocolate delights and the joy of getting off the beaten path, they will receive rewards in the form of, for example, stickers and/or hats for visiting a certain number of Trail businesses (number TBD based on business participation).

You're invited to become a stop on the upcoming Chocolate-Lovers' Trail!

Why Participate?

- Inclusion in all Trail materials including posters, "passports," and a Trail-dedicated page on SouthwestMT.com.
- Visitors to your business who might not have made the stop otherwise.
- The Trail will also be promoted by Visit Southwest Montana through paid advertising and in the annual Southwest Montana travel guide!
- Requirements for Becoming an Official Stop on the Trail
- Must offer a free chocolate-inspired sample to all Trail visitors. These items can include things like chocolate candy, beer and chocolate pairings at a brewery, chocolate treats from a bakery, chocolate-scented candles—it's really only limited by your imagination.
- Willingness to sign off on visitor passports that they'll use to track their progress across the Trail.
- Willingness to familiarize yourself and your staff with the Trail and to keep information regarding the Trail prominent in your establishment. This could include stickers, posters, passport cards, etc.

AG Knudsen announces shocking 11,000 percent increase of fentanyl seizures in Montana since 2019

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced today a nearly 11,000 percent increase in fentanyl seizures by anti-drug task forces in Montana since 2019. Additionally, triple the amount of fentanyl was seized in 2022 compared to 2021, obliterating previous records. The number of firearms found alongside drug shipments is also increasing.

In 2022, Rocky Mountain High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area task forces seized a total of 206,955 dosage units of fentanyl in Montana – an increase of nearly 10,800 percent since 2019 when they seized 1,900 dosage units and more than triple last year's total of 60,577 dosage units.

"The amount of illicit fentanyl coming across the southern border has skyrocketed. This poison is killing Montanans," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Our narcotics agents and troopers are getting more fentanyl off the roads than ever before, but we need additional tools and resources to keep it out of our communities."

These quantities are from the six RMHIDTA Montana task forces and are not all includes of drugs seized by all law enforcement in the state. Attorney General Knudsen oversees the Montana Department of Justice's narcotics bureau and Montana Highway Patrol criminal interdiction teams that participate in the task forces.

The task forces are also finding an increasing number of gun seizures – 25 percent more last year than in 2021. They seized 474 in 2022 and 375 in 2021. They also took 207.37 pounds of methamphetamine off the road in 2022, along with 7.29 pounds of heroin, and 22.25 pounds of cocaine.

Fentanyl-linked overdose deaths were also up from 2021. According to preliminary data from the State Crime Lab, there were 74 overdose deaths involving fentanyl in 2022 compared to 49 in 2021 – an increase of 51 percent. The statewide total is higher, as the crime lab only verifies deaths that involve an autopsy. Fentanyl-linked deaths confirmed by the crime lab increased 1,750 percent from 2017 when there were just four.

According to the CDC, drug overdose deaths increased 30 percent from 2019 to 2020 in the United States, a 15 percent increase from 2020 to 2021, and are now a leading cause of death for young adults.

Over a ten-day period, last month, at least 28 Montanans overdosed on drugs, suspected to be fentanyl, killing eight.

To combat the drug problem in Montana, Attorney General Knudsen is advocating for increased investment in public safety at the Legislature this year to fund additional narcotics and human trafficking agents, Highway Patrol troopers, major crimes investigators, and criminal prosecutors.

He is also supporting Representative Courtenay Sprunger's House Bill 791, which would impose a mandatory minimum sentence of two years jail time, a $50,000 fine, or both, for anyone convicted of trafficking fentanyl in Montana.

During his first two years in office, Attorney General Knudsen has increased the number of Montana Department of Justice narcotics and major case agents, added a statewide drug intelligence officer who assists local law enforcement and public health agencies, and spearheaded a grant program that helped deploy two dozen drug detecting K9s around the state. One of those K9s has helped take 400 fentanyl pills off the street.

He also continues to fight the Biden administration's disastrous border policies in federal court, engaging in multiple lawsuits to compel it to enforce existing immigration laws and secure the border. Additionally, Attorney General Knudsen has called on the Biden administration to designate drug cartels as terrorist organizations and take a tougher stance toward China and Mexico against the influx of fentanyl and to classify fentanyl as a weapon of mass destruction.

Dillon Elks Lodge Announces "Elk of the Year"

Every year the Exalted Ruler of each Elks Lodge is afforded the opportunity to recommend a member of their lodge to be recognized as "Elk of the Year" by the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Grand Lodge. This year John Bacon, Exalted Ruler of the Dillon Elks Lodge #1554, had the pleasure of presenting Cindy Kesel with a framed certificate from the Grand Exalted Ruler and naming her as Dillon's "Elk of the Year".

Cindy has devoted many hours to the Elk's Lodge over the last year. She serves only as a volunteer while bartending, managing the bar's stock, cleaning of the bar, and scheduling other bartenders for our events. She also manages the lodges' public relations presence in the community through the lodge's facebook page and many of the posters and ads. Congratulations to Cindy on this great honor.
