Martha Brown Davis, 94

Martha Brown Davis, 94, of Dillon, passed away peacefully surrounded by her four children on March 26, 2023, after a short illness. She was born November 10, 1928, in Bradenton, Florida to Eunice and Firman Brown. She grew up with her brother Firman and sister Tempie in Florida, New Mexico, Arizona, and Montana, often on tribal reservations as their father worked for the Bureau of Indian Affairs. She graduated from the University of Montana, and taught school briefly at the Pablo Schools.

In 1950 Martha married Carl Davis from Dillon and spent the rest of her long life as a vital member of that community. She was active in her children's schools and activities, including serving in various roles at the Presbyterian Church. She also was a member of the Barrett Hospital Foundation and Hospital Auxiliary Boards. She greatly enjoyed friendships from over sixty-five years of membership in PEO Chapter AD, and many women in this region will remember her as a tireless and inspiring Girls Scout leader and volunteer. Martha and Carl were awarded the University of Montana Community Service Award in 2010, and supported countless other causes, organizations, and individuals near and far who were committed to shaping a better world. Martha's generosity and her remarkable ability to just get things done touched many people's lives.

Martha loved books. Inspired by her mother Eunice who set up libraries in the small communities wherever they lived, Martha volunteered at the Dillon Public Library for over fifty years, served on its board, and was appointed by the Governor to the Montana Library Commission. As Martha and Carl explored almost every remote canyon across their beloved Beaverhead Valley in their jeep camper over many decades, she always set up a lovely creekside campfire or picnic to read while Carl fished. In almost every conversation, Martha could pull down a book -- or ten -- from her big library to share with her family and friends. She passed on to her large family the joy of reading as a portal to ideas, events, and opportunities both at home and around the globe.

Foremost, Martha cared deeply about family and served as a north star for her large extended one. She was always the careful listener, wise counselor, inquisitive provocateur, event planner, and project manager, and multiple generations of her family especially enjoyed the calming sanctuary of her elegant living room and the meaningful conversations there full of stories, laughter, aspirations, and wisdom. Her grace, intellect, integrity, and love of family, friends, community, and life will be deeply missed.

Martha is preceded in death by her husband Carl; infant son Loren; parents Eunice and Firman; parent-in-law Florence and Loren Davis; brother Firman (Bo); sisters-in-law Dorothy Anne

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue was called out Sunday, March 26th, at 5:17 PM to help two individuals, a 54 year old male, a female companion, and their dog. They had driven to the Bannack MT area where they unloaded a side by side with tracks and drove up the Reservoir Creek road. Along their way the vehicle became stuck in a snow bank and the two individuals couldn't get it out so began walking back down the road. They called 911 and requested assistance. At that time both persons were mobile.

Search and Rescue deployed 6 teams to the area between 5:45 PM and 7:45 PM. Teams were sent to different roads in the area to make sure the individuals weren't missed. At 8:34 PM the female of the party was picked up. She was in good shape but indicated the male had fallen and was hurt. The hasty team continued up the Reservoir Cr. Rd and found the male individual on his feet walking slowly. The rescue team returned him to his companion and they were taken back to their truck. At that time all S&R members returned to Dillon and the stuck party returned home.

Search teams arrived back at the SAR building around 9:45 PM. This involved 14 members and approximately 48 total man hours.

S&R members involved in this rescue were: Alan Holt, Tommy Goins, Trent Cottom, Cody Schnee, Charles Wiedow, Kolby Malesich, Dusty Crowe, Clint Rouse, Mel Rice, Wade Bush, Chuck Maddox, Mick Paffhausen, Jake Peterson, and Mark Smith. Remember only the calendar says it spring. There is a lot of snow in the mountains and avalanche dangers are still very high. Take care, be prepared, and have fun. Your Beaverhead Search and Rescue; "In the Business of Saving Lives".

FWP proposed new wolf management plan

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will prepare an environmental impact statement (EIS) and conduct public scoping on a proposed action to develop a new wolf management plan.

The 2003 Montana Gray Wolf Conservation and Management Plan and associated EIS were developed 20 years ago. Gov. Greg Gianforte asked FWP to create a new wolf management plan with broad public engagement due to the interest in wolf management across the state.

The new wolf management plan will include the latest science surrounding wolf management, better transparency on wolf management, and be easier to update in the future.

NEW HOPE PREGNANCY OF DILLON EXPANDS SERVICES, HOURS, OUTREACH

New Hope Pregnancy Support Center of Dillon is expanding operations. Added office hours, outreach to Sheridan, Montana, and new services will better assist pregnant women in Beaverhead and Madison County, according to Executive Director Carrie Holton.

New Hope offers support for unplanned and crisis pregnancies, and parenting help for all through educational services, free pregnancy diagnosis, ultrasounds, baby supplies, and information on options available during a pregnancy.

Holton, who took on the leadership role last June, says the center will offer a doula's services starting in April. The doula, Katelyn Beers, runs Darling Daisy Doula in Dillon and was previously a practicing doula in Utah for several years. She will meet with New Hope's expecting parents, provide educational materials, and help them develop a birth plan and postpartum plan.

"This will empower moms who might not otherwise have access to, or be able to afford, a doula," Holton says. The doula services were secured through a grant from the Gianforte Family Foundation; general operating support for New Hope is provided by the foundation and individual donors.

New Hope also will assist parents up to a year following a birth, providing baby essentials such as diapers, wipes, blankets, and clothing.

Operating hours will increase to Tuesday and Thursday in Dillon, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., and alternating Wednesdays in Sheridan, 9 a.m. to noon, starting this month.

"Historically, we have always served Beaverhead County and the Ruby Valley," Holton says. "By partnering with Valley Assembly of Sheridan, we will be able to help more parents and provide greater services to them right in their town."

Its "Night of Hope" June 11, in Dillon, will feature Christian musician and guitarist, Ryan Stevenson, and speaker Kelby McNab, a pro-life, youth pastor from South Carolina. The event will emphasize the importance of abstinence and sound decision-making and is aimed at college students and those in grades 8-12.

As New Hope's services continue to grow, the nonprofit hopes to expand its team as well. "We are always looking for volunteers, including board members and people to assist with New Hope classes and events," Holton says.

For more information or to make an appointment, contact Holton at 406.683.5259 or visit <https://www.newhopelife.org>
