Body Found Believed to be Michael Fontz

On 3/28/2023 1105 hours, The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office received a call from Fish and Game. They were floating the Big Hole River near Melrose and found a body .32 miles south of the Salmon Fly Campground. This is believed to be the body of Michael Fontz.

Fontz was reported missing on December 12, 2022. On December 14, 2022 Fontz's vehicle was found at the Maiden Rock Campground just North of Melrose. Fontz was not located with his vehicle. Beaverhead Search and Rescue was activated and they began a search for Fontz. It was believed that Fontz went into the river. Beaverhead County Search and Rescue had help from Ruby Valley Search and Rescue's swift water rescue team and ground searchers from the Silver Bow Search and Rescue. This search carried on for several days with no luck. With the cold temperatures and dangerous ice conditions it was decided to suspend the search and periodically fly the area with drones.

At 1138 hours the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office, Dillon Police Department and several Fish and Game Wardens were able to retrieve the body from the river. The body was then transported to the crime lab in Missoula for examination.

I would like to thank everyone involved with the search and recovery so that closer can be brought to the family and friends said Sheriff Wendt.

Nola L. Empey

Nola L. Empey, 93, passed away in Sun Lakes, Arizona, on March 17.

Most of her early years, including high school, were in Lima, Montana. She married Stanford Empey at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Dillon, Montana. Their three children, Susan, David, and Alan were born in Dillon. The family moved to Pocatello, Idaho in the mid fifties.

She taught her own children in kindergarten at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church and was a teacher for school district 25 in Pocatello for several years. She and Stanford were charter members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church and members of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Dillon, Montana. Upon retirement they returned to Lima, Montana, and enjoyed spending time with family and friends on their two tennis courts.

Their youngest son preceded her in death. He leaves behind two sons, Christopher and Gile, of Utah.

She is survived by her husband, Stanford, of Sun Lakes, Arizona; a brother, Gile, of Houston, Texas; a daughter and her husband Jorge Aparicio, of Sun Lakes, Arizona, and their three sons, Shawn Collins, of Pocatello, Idaho and Marc and Mitchell Aparicio of Washington; a son David and his wife Mary of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and their two sons, Greg of California and Geof of Albuquerque, New Mexico. She is survived by 12 great-grandchildren.

Services are pending at a later date in Lima, Montana.

SHERIFF'S VEHICLE CRASH

On 3/28/2023 at 0713 hours, The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office, Dillon Police Department, and Montana Highway Patrol responded to a Sheriff's vehicle crash on Ten Mile Road. Undersheriff Haggard was going East on Ten Mile Road and came around a blind corner where there were several vehicles stuck in the middle of the road. The road was covered in ice making it difficult for cars to travel. Undersheriff Haggard put his patrol rig into the bank to avoid hitting several pedestrians who were also standing on the road. The patrol vehicle flipped onto its side causing extensive damage to the vehicle. Undersheriff Haggard was banged up a little but not injured. Ten Mile road was closed for about an hour while the scene was cleared. Montana Highway Patrol is investigating the accident.

Dillon Soroptimist Raising Funds and AwarenessJeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News*

The Dillon Soroptimist Club hosted the annual purses with a purpose fund raising event this last Saturday, March 25th at the Dillon Elks Lodge. The annual event raises funds for scholarships to help empower women and girls by giving them an education, and encouragement and helps improve their lives and their family's lives. This year's Live Your Dreams award winners were Carrie Holton and Melanie Stenrud.

Shine Studio helped set up and clear tables as the event took place, Jeff Welborn kept the auction flowing, and officer Joel Stewart spoke on the dangers of drugs, and domestic violence within our community. He also mentioned the upcoming talk at the college on human trafficking to be held on April 3rd. This is a community awareness and discussion from 6:00 to 8:00 pm in the University Montana Western Lewis & Clark room. It is presented by Missoula PD Detective Guy Baker and is a free event open to the public.

The Soroptimist have already set a date for next year's Purses with a Purpose dinner on February 10th, with the theme being Chinese New Year. A special thanks to B Carroll construction and Bob Carroll for the food and cooking for all of us. It was amazing.

We would like to encourage you to join the Soroptimist as they will have an invitation to membership tea at the senior center, this Saturday, April 1st from 1:30 to 3:30. Come and learn what we are about and be involved in our community.

Rocky Mountain Framing

by Hailey Briggs, Southwestern Montana News

Ron Carroll had a vision when he started Rocky Mountain Framing & Memorabilia. "There is a story behind everything, and it should be framed and enjoyed for future generations. Now, more than ever, time seems to be speeding by. In the hubbub of life and responsibilities, we forget to stop and take in the precious moments. Time isn't promised. Only the here and now. And it should be treasured.

Rocky Mountain Framing & Memorabilia wants to help you sit back and enjoy those events. Everything from as simple as framing a cool rock you found on your last family vacation. Or the day you graduated college, while working full time, while also eating ramen full time. How about the instant you kissed your spouse at the altar? Or for the pros out there, the time your children and grandchildren threw you a surprise 50th anniversary party.

Do you like stuff? How about cool pictures or items from your favorite celebrity? And if that isn't the bees knees, the memorabilia is autographed and framed to perfection. Not only does Ron have a premade selection of celebrity items, but he is up to the task of helping you frame or shadow box any item.

No, no, no! Mr. Carroll is no one-trick pony. With years of preserving his own stash of memorabilia, he is more than qualified to see your vision, follow you through the journey, and make its way to your home's walls. Whether you just moved into your house or you've decided to redecorate one room, nothing says spring like a good sprucing. Rocky Mountain Framing & Memorabilia is there to help you reimagine your space. Frame restoration, vintage Montana posters such as Bannack Days, and those hard to find autographed celebrity memorabilia. It is all one downtown Dillon visit away.

"Ron can also help provide a more economical framing solution with pre-made frames of all sizes for anyone who can't afford or does not need a custom frame job. While not always possible, he strives for a 2-3 week turnaround time on most framing projects.

Make sure to stop by 34 N. Idaho Street, Suite 3, right next to Southwestern Montana News and African Oasis on Saturday, April 1 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Not only will there be a ribbon cutting with the Chamber of Commerce at 11 a.m., but you can enter a special drawing, as well as be eligible for door prizes. Light refreshments will be available as Ron, himself, shows you how easy the process is. He will demonstrate how to pick a frame and matte board from his samples, allowing you to see how personal and creative the end product is. Because if there's one thing you need to know about Ron, it's that he strives for a product he's proud of.
