Kyle Christian Andersen

For Kyle Christian Andersen, age 48, death came much too soon, and took from us a husband, a father, a son, a brother, and a friend.

Kyle was born on August 10, 1974, as the fifth generation of a proud ranching family in Dillon, Montana. The beauty of Montana was in his heart and soul, and he always considered it to be his home. He died on April 3, 2023, after a courageous fight against pancreatic cancer.

Survivors include his wife, Kira; parents, Keith and Verla Andersen; daughters, Cora Rose and Leah Nicole Andersen; son Dane Hans Christian Andersen; sisters, Julie Evans (Rich) and Christy Mitchell (Will); brother, Scott Andersen (Nicole).

Local services will be held on Saturday, April 15, at 11 am, at the Frontier Event Center, 102 E. Helena Street, Dillon, Montana. Private family graveside service to follow.

Jordin Jeffery Louis Craft

Jordin Jeffery Louis Craft, a caring father, son, brother, grandson, nephew, and friend, left this world unexpectedly on April 2, 2023, at the age of 26.

Jordin was born on August 18, 1996, in Salt Lake City, Utah to Jeremy Craft and Melissa Dalton.

His childhood was filled with memories of going to his family cabin, hikes, family vacations, fishing, and countless hunting trips.

Jordin had a relentless desire to join the U.S. Marine Corps where he discovered a brotherhood and made many lifelong friends. Due to an unforeseen injury, Jordin's dream of being a Marine was cut short. After being Honorably Discharged, Jordin took a few years to find his passion before planting roots in Utah.

In 2017, he welcomed his first daughter, and in 2020, he welcomed his second daughter, Lennon Jae Romero, completing his little family of 3. It was apparent to anyone that knew Jordin and witnessed the relationship with his daughter's just how much he loved them and how they admired him.

Jordin Craft is survived by his parents Jeremy Craft

Satre, Berlyn Satre, Sonoma Satre.

Gary married Janis Kohlwey April 23, 1983 in Lakewood California.

Gary was a loving husband to Janis for near 40 years.

Janis had six children: Wayne Kohlwey Mark Kohlwey, Richard Kohlwey, Steven Kohlwey, Matthew Kohlwey & Deborah Kohlwey Maxfield & husband Neal Maxfield.

William (Gary) worked as a Commercial Hardware Consultant in California. He retired 30 years ago in Dillon Montana. He was a loving husband and father.

Gary had deep appreciation and love for Jehovah God, His Son Jesus Christ and His creation, especially people. Gary's greatest desire was that everyone come to know their Creator.

Important in his life was family and teaching his hope that under the rule of God's Kingdom (Matthew 6:9,10) with Christ as King, suffering, crime, poverty, hunger, sickness, war and death will be eliminated. God's original purpose for us and the earth will be realized (Psalms 37:29 "The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever on it.")

Gary had been one of Jehovah's Witness, an Elder, for about 70 years. He loved singing, teaching and giving Bible talks in the congregation, at assemblies and conventions, where everyone is invited, Gary did all this in spite of his affliction with polio at age 9. He had no fear of death, to sleep in God's memory until the resurrection was his solid hope based on God's promise at: John 5:28,29 & Acts 24:15.

EVERY KID DESERVES A HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Every child should have a happy birthday party and the Dillon Girl Scouts want to help make this happen. They are going to assemble Birthday In A Bag party kits and donate them to the local Food Bank. You are invited to help make this happen by donating party supplies for the kits. These items may be dropped off at Womack's Printing place no later than April 19th. Suggested items to donate are box cake mixes, frosting, sprinkles, candles, 12 oz. cans of Sprite or other Lemon-Lime flavored soda, gender neutral party favors (hats, balloons, party blowers, disposable cake pans (9"x12" or 9"x13") and medium sized gift bags.

Veteran's Corner. Update #198

By Mike Lawson

Some Veteran news :

• The National Vietnam Veteran's Day was on the 29th with memorial ceremonies taking place across all parts of Montana. It was especially important to remember those Vietnam Veterans who lost their lives and never came home. A "Traveling Vietnam Veteran's Wall, duplicated like the Granite Memorial in Washington, is supposed to be in Kalispell this summer and possibly be in Butte next year.

• Dave Williamson, our SWMT Veteran's Home Lobbyist, reports that HB 5 was sent from Committee to the Floor of the House of Representatives which passed it on a 100-0 vote on the 2nd reading and 98-0 vote on the third reading. It now goes to the Senate where it will be presented to a Senate Committee and then hopefully to the floor of the Senate to be voted on. It's thought that it will be passed if the Senate doesn't add anything to it. If passed, it will then be sent to the Governors Desk for him to sign. Another item related to our SW MT Veteran's Home is that the Honorable Senator John Fitzpatrick, from Anaconda, added an amendment to HB 5 for one million dollars to go toward the funding of Cottage 6. This is to supplement any moneys that can be raised to make Cottage 6 become a reality. Not sure where that will go, but it would be a dream come true for our Veterans in SW Montana if that last Cottage on the "Drawing Board" could in fact be built.

• The Ft Harrison VA is hiring and you can stop by the Fort Harrison Medical Center to inquire about what jobs are available. You need to bring a current resume, two forms of identification and reference information. You can also check using <https://www.vacareers.va>. Might be worth checking out if you are a Veteran looking for work. The VA has good benefits and pay.

Until next time, take care.
