Educator Airlift event

On Wednesday, April 12, 2023, the Montana Youth Challenge Academy, in partnership with the Montana National Guard 1-189th (General Support Aviation Battalion) and the University of Montana Western, will host an Educator Airlift event throughout the business day. Please be aware that military helicopters will be landing and taking off from UMW's football practice fields, located on the south side of campus, on April 12.

This event provides Montana high school administrators, counselors, and staff an opportunity to tour MYCA/UMW facilities, observe cadets and staff, and learn more about the Challenge Model of youth development and UMW's Experience One program.

The purpose of this event is to create statewide partnerships so MYCA can better support Montana's youth.

To ensure public safety, it is critical that all observers stay clear of the UMW practice fields on April 12.

The Handshake

Bryce Angell

He sat behind the table, all his guns laid in a row.

I spotted him, across the room, at our yearly town gun show.
The sign clamped to his table read, "Gunsmith and his ware."

The gunsmith looked the human version of a grizzly bear.

He turned my way, gave me a nod, then stood up from his chair.

I said, "You gotta 12 gauge at a price that might be fair?"

His dark black beard and giant frame were daunting at first sight.

He picked me out a shotgun. Looked to brighten up my night.

The grizzled man gazed at me, then handed me the gun.

He said, "You'll like this shotgun. Take a closer look for fun."

The shotgun was a beauty, just what I was looking for.

The gunsmith said, "Don't need to look for shotguns anymore."

A Remington 870 with a shorter barrel to boot. With the butt snugged to my shoulder, then I asked, "How does it shoot?"

He offered me a smile, and then he pinched another chew.

He said, "There ain't none better. This old gun is meant for you"

I slightly uttered, "What's the price?" He asked a worthy fare.

But my wallet fell a little short. I'd spent the cash elsewhere.

I feared someone would snatch the shotgun if I stepped away.

So, I asked how much he'd need to hold while getting cash to pay.

He reached, then opened up a hand. His grip as hard as lead.

"A handshake's all I need today." And he meant just what he said.

His eyes dang near stared through me with a keen but gentle look.

Pure honesty conveyed to me. A handshake's all it took.

I found the nearest ATM and pulled out all my cash.

Then hurried back so doggone fast! A record ten-yard dash!

His shotgun now belonged to me. The gunsmith held his word.

Another handshake clinched the deal. A marvel had occurred.

'Cuz I'd found someone who wasn't always out for number one.

His handshake was his moral creed. An act that's all but done.

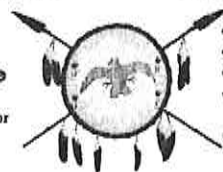

Now, when I shake another's hand, I'll look him in the eye. And hope he'll know that talk ain't cheap. A handshake shouldn't lie.

Jaycee Easter Egg Hunt

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Easter Bunny made a stop at Vigilante Park on Saturday, April 8th to help kick off the Dillon Jaycee Easter Egg Hunt. 10 A.M. sharp the old fire truck siren blew, and a couple hundred kids made a mad dash to help clear the park of the goodies spread about by the bunny and his helpers. In less than a minute only a few eggs remained as the kids counted their bounty.

Secretary Jacobsen alerts Montana businesses of deceptive email regarding annual report filings
Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen is alerting Montana businesses of a deceptive email that targets annual report business filings.

Montana's business community notified the Secretary of State's Office of an email from the "Registrar Agency of Corporations" which is not affiliated with the Montana Secretary of State's Office. The email requests the recipients "renew your business status" and confirm a "repeat billing option" through a third-party website.

The link in the deceptive email reportedly charges businesses $100 for annual report filings.

Montana businesses required to file an annual report can do so for $20 through the Secretary of State Office's business online filing portal at biz.sosmt.gov. Businesses may use the Secretary of State's online portal to register a business, access business records, and file documents, including an annual report.

Official communication from the Montana Secretary of State's Office will only direct businesses to the online business filing portal at biz.sosmt.gov. Montana annual reports must be filed by Saturday, April 15, 2023.

If you have questions or concerns regarding a solicitation related to your business, please email sosbusiness@mt.gov.
