Ride Into the Selway

Bryce Angell

We were eager for adventure, to take a ride and stir our soul.

And maybe toss a line into the deepest fishing hole.

I've heard old-timers carry on 'bout where to get away.

They talk of Central Idaho, back in the lone Selway.

So, we heeded the old-timers, with a hint of what they knew.

Then loaded Tess and Einstein and our pack horse, Blacky, too.

We left the barn 'fore daylight, we'd be driving to midday.

Then ride out from the trailhead to the picturesque Selway.

The mid November weather hadn't seen a lot of snow.

Yet the Nez Perce Pass received its share, at least 3 feet or so.

And to worsen up our day, the Pass and forest road were closed.

If you got your truck and trailer stuck, I'd have to say you're hosed.

We chained up my old Chevy, checked the horses in the rear.

Then hugged the frozen ruts while driving in a lower gear.

The Pass weren't for the faint of heart. Thank heaven for our chains.

What brought us to this mountain top? Surely clabber for our brains.

So glad that I rode shotgun. I drive slower than I walk.

'Cuz that's when I heard the driver say, "We've got to beat the clock."

"We need to get to camp 'fore dark; no time to dilly-dally."

Mother Nature has no mercy." And he said it quite profoundly.

We drove up to the trailhead. Loaded Blacky with camping gear.

We had enough provisions to feed us well into next year.

Our guide was packed and ready. He was itching for the trail.

He said, "We'll go 'bout 15 miles. This ride ain't for the frail!"

The view was most spectacular. The river at our side.

I wondered what our guide implied. So far, a perfect ride.

It seemed the guide was right about the long and crooked course.

One slip and you'd be bear meat right along your saddle horse.

So I rode Einstein inside the trail. I didn't want to fall. But my mind was thinking of campfire stew. I was hungry most of all.

Our day was coming to an end. We rode into the camp. I smelled beef stew and biscuits; saw the cook tent's glowing lamp.

That night while in my sleeping bag, I slept next to the heat. And fed the wood stove cedar chunks. Could tomorrow be so sweet?

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice-Public Relations Officer

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue held its monthly meeting Wednesday, April 12, at the S&R building. Vice commander Shane Puyear called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM with 28 members in attendance. There was one guest attending.

The main order of business for the night was discussion about various trainings coming up and completed training. There were 8 members who attended a training "Managing a Lost Person Incident". Those who participated in the training were: Kolby Malesich, Steve Mock, Adam Norlander, Chuck Maddox, Joe Reyes, Jamie Trivette, Trevor Hyland, and Julia Clark. The program included both classroom work and practical training. The entire course was 32 hours, encompassing Friday evening, and all day Saturday and Sunday. The unit will have another opportunity to get "Swift Water Training" with the Ruby Valley SAR unit May 12, 13, and 14. This training is usually done on the Big Hole River which could be very interesting with lots of water this year.

On June 10th and 11th we will hold our annual family camp out training. During this time there will be multiple training opportunities for members ranging from rope extrication, compass, gps, and map work, to water rescues and more. It is a great way to become more acquainted with members and their families and fulfill training requirements for members.

The last rescue the unit had was in the Reservoir Creek area. A middle aged man and woman had gone out for a side x side ride when they became stuck and could not dig their way out. They started walking out and called 911 for assistance. Both individuals were located by members of Beaverhead S&R and safely brought out.

April is the BVHD Search and Rescue's month to cook for the Elk's Stag Night. This event will be April 19th. Come on down and enjoy a good steak dinner and great comradery.

The only other order of business for the night was the approval to pour a cement pad in front of one of our bay doors that houses the portable command post. The meeting was adjourned a little before 8:00.

With the warm weather we had had, snow conditions and ice conditions have changed drastically. Please be cautious when venturing out and as we have seen this week's weather conditions change in a hurry. Winter is still lingering and can present some real hardships out there if not careful. Always be prepared for whatever may come your direction. "In the Business of Saving Lives" your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.

Lady Beavs Softball

The Lady Beavs lost the lead late in an 4-8 defeat to Hamilton on Saturday. The Beavers were up 4-3, with Hamilton batting in the bottom of the sixth when the Broncos capitalized on a couple of Dillon fielding errors and went ahead 8-4. Unfortunately Dillon couldn't answer back in the 7th.

Adyson Creighton toed the rubber for the Beavs allowing 8 hits and 8 runs, and striking out 5.

Tymber Barnes, Kinzy Creighton, Patsea Farrow, Tyler Gibson and Emily Brevig each collected one hit on the day.

Gibson, Brevig, Bailey Blake, and both Creightons were solid on defense and made some amazing plays in the field. The team had a great five and two thirds innings.. until the wheels fell off with 2 outs in the bottom of the 6th. We have improved with every game, and when we put together a solid 7 innings we are going to tough. And if our weather would just cooperate with us, we would really appreciate that.

Letter to the Editor

Koy Holland has earned our support for the upcoming BCHS Board of Trustee election. We are parents of an out of District, BCHS student and part of the County's ag business community and share common values with Koy.

He is a parent of school aged children who has served the community as a Trustee, an MOA official, FFA and 4-H volunteer. Fiscal responsibility and overcoming roadblocks are part of his everyday life as a rancher. Koy spearheaded dual/concurrent credit offerings and continues to lead the initiative by partnering with UMW.

When making decisions today and for future success, Koy has the skillset to look at items from different perspectives and works to act in the best interest of the school and students.

Casting a vote for Koy Holland is a vote for an individual that is open to listening to the community, does the research and asks the hard questions before taking a position.

Respectfully,
Shanda Broere

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE FROM REPRESENTATIVE TOM WELCH

We now are 75 days into what was expected to be a 90-working day Session. It has been extremely busy at the Montana Legislature with long days being the norm. Much work remains to be done including leaving Helena with a balanced budget.

On this Tuesday, as Vice Chairman of the House Tax Committee, I and others will be getting a long look at the current Revenue Estimate for the coming biennium. When finalized before Session ends, this Revenue report is critical. The Montana Constitution requires a balanced Budget and therefore State Revenue will dictate the level of expenditures to be made as well as the amount of reserves needed. The Appropriations Committee has been working diligently since early in the Session to highlight programs and needs that must be funded and at what level. In addition, they are moving on to prioritize other requests or wants such as those coming from new Bills passed this Legislative session. We often refer to General Bills that contain expenditure requests as 'Dog and Cat Bills'!

The two Committees on which I sit this year have been extremely busy. Both the House Taxation and the House Health & Human Services Committees have each had over 135 Bills be assigned to them. Each one of these Bills has had one or more Hearings in their respective Committee. These Hearings are where the public and Committee members get to learn from the Bill sponsor as to what their Bill does or does not do. Members of the public are able to express their support or their opposition, at this time, towards the Bill being discussed. Committee members also get to question the Bill sponsor or Information witnesses if any present. These Hearings range in time to being somewhat brief to some lasting hours. Some Bills, due to their nature such as needing funding or having an Amendment added, may go thru 4 or more Hearings.

In March, I was honored to be part of a Vietnam War remembrance held at the Capitol Rotunda. Legislators were joined by Veterans as well as the general public in recognizing those who served but did not return home from this conflict. I was given the opportunity to read the names of the two known Beaverhead County casualties-these being Sanford Kim Archer of Glen and Arthur Grasser from Melrose. If anyone knows of someone from our area that should be recognized at future remembrances, please drop me a note and I will see to it that they get added to the list.

We work extremely hard while here at a Legislative Session but as Legislators, we never forget those less fortunate than ourselves. This year, the Boys and Girls Club of Helena will receive some funding from our various fundraising efforts. In addition, a young man who although wheelchair bound, shows up every day to work here at the Capitol, is receiving funds to assist with his efforts to purchase a vehicle that is equipped to fit his abilities.

Thanks for your continued support and stay safe!

Bulldog Men Make Brick Breeden Fieldhouse Home, Take Team Title At MSU Spring Rodeo #2

The Montana Western Rodeo Team got off to a solid start to the spring season with a top finish in the MSU Spring Rodeo #2. Jhet Murphy won the Men's All-Around on Sunday afternoon. "It was a good day. I was lucky enough to come back in all three of my events. Started out with bulldogging and got a good steer. Won the second round in the average and just let that momentum carry on through the rest of the rodeo. Had a good calf roping run and it was a good day." Jhet Murphy said following the rodeo.

"Super proud of the men's team to come in and extend their lead and keep battling. The whole men's team had a great rodeo and solid weekend." Head Coach JT Robbins said. "On the women's side, Ryland was really solid in the Breakaway. She has put herself in the position to crawl back into the standings. We are heading to Miles City next week and are looking to keep it going." JT continued.

Up Next

The Bulldog Rodeo team travels to Miles City, Mont. for a pair of rodeos this upcoming weekend. The first rodeo will run from April 20 through 21st. The second rodeo will continue on April 22 through 23rd.
