Benjamin "Rooster" Robert Reynolds, 61

Benjamin Robert Reynolds, better known as Rooster, was born on December 25, 1961 in Brownwood, Texas...forever being the best Christmas present Benny and Mary could ask for. He left this world on April 14, 2023, after a courageous battle with cancer. Rooster had a heart of gold, and everyone who knew him instantly felt they were his best friend.

To say Rooster was an outstanding brother is an understatement. He made everything an adventure. From making commercials with his siblings to adding a fun and competitive element to tasks and chores...nothing was off the table with Rooster. As a Falcon at TBHS, he enjoyed competing and excelled in football, basketball, track and field, and speech and drama. Keeping that love of sports, he attended many sporting events...always remaining a huge Falcon, Beaver, Bulldog, and (later in life) a Digger football fan. You knew when Rooster was in the stands! Another bond he shared with his brothers was the passion of sports betting. They thoroughly enjoyed placing bets with each other every day.

The lives of Rooster and Val followed different paths after the birth of their now adult daughter, Jessica. However, their paths recently re-converged and the couple was married in March 2022. Rooster's title of husband was only surpassed by that of proud father to Jessica and Montana. Jessica brought delight and the title, grandfather, to Rooster with the births of her three sons, Alex, Kai and Benjamin.

Rooster was destined to be a cowboy! He was successful in high school and college rodeos. In 1987 Rooster earned the titles of Steer Wrestling Champion in both the NRA and EIRA. In 1995, he took the National Finals Rodeo at Las Vegas, Nevada by storm and was named the Wrangler National Finals Average Champion, ending up third in the world. He also found success in the Senior Pro Rodeos, earning the title of National Senior Pro Rodeo Finals Average Steer Wrestling Champion in 2007. Rooster never failed to delight everyone with his famous Rooster Shuffle at the end of a good run.

Rooster was also very talented with a rope. He was the 1991 Montana Pro Rodeo Finals Average Champion Header in team roping and won many other Wrangler Team Roping Championships. Cowboys from all over attended ropings held at the Reynolds Ranch arena in Twin Bridges.

His talents went beyond the rodeo arena. Rooster was a true cowboy poet and is well known for his poems and songs. He was requested to perform these at many functions.

He is quoted as saying, "I don't know if the path through life I have chosen is the right one, but it is certainly the most scenic."

Even in the hospital room, he was full of his usual wit and humor. We will miss Rooster dearly...the man, the myth, the legend!

He is preceded in death by his parents Benjamin "Benny" Frank and Mary Elizabeth Reynolds, and uncles John and Louis Reynolds.

Rooster is survived by his wife Valerie Davids Reynolds, Pocatello; sister Jenny (Jesse) Peterson, Dillon; brothers Skip (Aprille) Jordan, Missoula and Louis John (Jamie) Reynolds, Missoula; children Jessica Lewis (Rob Argyle), Spanish Fork and Montana Ty Reynolds, Dillon; grandchildren Alex Lewis, Kai and Benjamin Argyle, Spanish Fork; uncles/aunts Donna (Pierce) Rouse, Dillon, DJ (Mary) Smith, Melrose, and Joyce Lee Phelan, Twin Bridges; nieces Kirstin Thomas (Aldo Romero), Britta Thomas and Millie Reynolds; nephews Justus and Jace Peterson and Max Reynolds; and numerous cousins he loved dearly.

A memorial service will be conducted at 1pm Saturday, May 6, in the Twin Bridges High School old gym, followed by a potluck reception at the Twin Bridges fairgrounds Pavilion.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Rooster Reynolds Memorial Fund that has been created to help others in need: The Bank of Commerce, PO Box 1257 or 110 S. Idaho St., Dillon, MT 59725.

This Old Hat

Bryce Angell

The other day I considered, was it time to buy a new hat? And one that would make me look skinny. I've heard of miracles like that. I perused the cowboy hats on the wall. There were black ones and gray ones alike. I wanted to leave with a brand new hat but would soon hear about the price hike.

I picked out a Stetson, at least the right name. And pointed it out to the clerk. He snatched it so fast, it made my head swim. I was thinking he might be a jerk.

He said, "You sure you want this hat? It's got a hefty price." I asked how much. He said, "Three hundred!" Didn't have to tell me twice!

The doggone clerk was wearing his smirk. Said, "Your hat's a sad sad story." But I won't call him jerk, 'cuz he sounded more like a snollygoster in glory.

This hat of mine was given to me some fifty years to date.

A 10X Stetson from my folks, in hopes I'd graduate.

My hat ain't got a fancy shape like Yellowstone or Gus. Not every hat is Hollywood. So pardner what's the fuss?

This hat has kept my head warm from the frigid winter days.

And blocks out all the sunburn from the sunshine's hottest rays.

I remember the day when old Jake tossed me high. I came slamming hard to the ground. But my hat stayed in place. There is no disgrace for a lid that keeps your head sound.

Now the top of my head ain't seen a hair's thread since forty-odd years passed me by. But my hat don't complain. It stays just the same, slightly cocked there above my right eye.

To my daughter's despair, I wore my hat to see my grandson born. Yet I did take it off when Grandma passed, hat in hand we all did mourn.

I'm wearing my old hat again. How long will it be around?

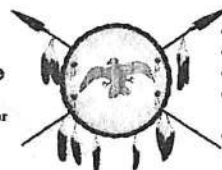

Each morning it's still on the hook. I know where it can be found.

I'll dust the dirt and grime off from my Stetson cowboy hat. And treat it much more kindly than a plain old head hat rack.

It's more than just a hat. My Stetson's full of history. It don't matter 'bout its looks, my hat is good enough for me.

So with luck for years I'll keep this hat. It's a classic at this place.

'Cuz it fits down snug, guarding my mug. Yes, I think it adds grit to my face.

Letter to the Editor

The Beaverhead Federation of Teachers (BFT) at Beaverhead County High School would like to announce their formal endorsement of two candidates that are currently running for the school board trustee positions in this spring's election. As a teachers' union, we strongly believe in the motto of "United we stand, divided we will fall." We ask the voters of Dillon and Beaverhead County to join us in supporting Pierce Rouse and Roxanne Engellant for election to the BCHS Board of Trustees.

Pierce Rouse has been an outstanding member of the BCHS Board of Trustees for over 30 years. His contributions have been instrumental to the growth and success shared by the faculty and students during that time. His interactions with the teachers, advisors, and coaches here at BCHS have always been professional and supportive, which is greatly appreciated. Pierce Rouse has been a leader on the BCHS Board for many years, and he has been a pillar of strength and a cornerstone in the building of unprecedented academic achievement and athletic and extracurricular success at BCHS.

Roxanne Engellant brings to the table a positive attitude and a deep respect for her colleagues, professional educators, and for public education as a whole. She is excited to have the opportunity to work with the faculty, staff, and students here at BCHS and build upon a solid tradition of academic excellence and success. We believe that Roxanne can help strengthen our relationship with UM-Western by increasing communication and collaboration between these two outstanding public institutions of learning and growth. Roxanne is incredibly active in the local community, and she is ready and willing to listen to the public and represent their interests, beliefs, and concerns as BCHS Board member.

We ask everyone to join us in supporting these two qualified, motivated, and invested candidates for the BCHS Board of Trustees. Together, they will help continue to make BCHS stronger, more unified, and continue our pursuit of excellence. A vote for Pierce Rouse and Roxanne Engellant is an investment in the futures of our community's youth.

Sincerely, BFT Members

Senator Welborn's Weekly Report

HELENA: Fellow Lawmakers in Helena are moving closer to passing new legislation that supporters say would get construction of the NorthWestern Energy gas plant in Laurel moving again. That construction was recently halted after Yellowstone County District Judge Michael Moses revoked the plant's permit, saying the Montana Department of Environmental Quality failed to fully evaluate the plant's impact on air quality and greenhouse gas emissions. In response to the court, House Bill 971, Introduced by Josh Kassmier, (R) Ft Benton, has made it through the House Natural Resources Committee last Monday, and has passed its first hurdle before the full House Friday, it awaits a 3rd reading vote (Monday) before moving to the Senate for consideration. The bill states that an environmental review may not include an evaluation of greenhouse gas emissions when corresponding impacts to the state are beyond its borders. Let me be clear, Montana as a State has not enacted carbon regulations, despite the clear direction via state law, the court has decided that MEPA (Montana Environmental Policy Act) is now a tool for regulation of carbon. This is a very dangerous precedent, when a judge can uproot a necessary project that has already passed the rigors of MEPA, and furthermore withstood the permitting process in good faith, only to be halted years into the project, with hundreds of millions already invested. Meanwhile, construction at the plant has all been halted, except for minor work in compliance with the judge's order. About 110 workers were laid off on Tuesday. The plant's union says about 50 employees now remain. These workers didn't ask to be laid off, It's an impact on their families, and It's an impact on the community. A union steward representing these workers told me that crews immediately stopped work, on installing 18 smokestacks and 18 natural gas motors. I feel that Montanans need safe, reliable power and this facility helps get to that end. This delay in construction is hurting Montana energy customers and the local and state economy. The Yellowstone County Generating Station was permitted based on defined criteria. The permitting process was followed. It is in the best interest of electric consumers, and Montana as a whole, for Senate to do our part to help resolve this matter quickly. Most likely we will hear this proposal in Senate Natural Resources, where I serve as chair, I'm confident that we have the votes to get it to the Senate Floor, and with a positive vote there, onto the Governor's desk before we adjourn.

Shifting gears, Members in the House have tabled a bill that would have changed the primary process for the 2024 U.S. Senate race and effectively boxed out minor party candidates. I voted against this measure in the Senate for two simple reasons; One, the measure seemed narrowly crafted by design, which simply takes the people's voice away in elections. That, coupled with with National Party Leaders talking about putting an emphasis on recruiting high net worth individuals, it seems to be designed to eliminate good home grown candidates, regardless of party affiliation, and it flies in the face of how we traditionally do business in Montana. The proposal, as it turns out, according internal documents obtained by the New York Times and other news organizations, was in fact designed to target a single race, that will be hotly contested as U.S. Sen. Jon Tester. A Democrat, seeks reelection. It would have allowed the top two vote-getting candidates, regardless of party, to advance to the general election, once the 2024 elections were over, the change in law was set to revert back to the way we currently do federal elections in Montana, after the 2024 contest. That in itself told a story of election interference, as articulated in a text message I received from a local voter and long time political supporter of mine, I agree with that assessment as well. During a recent hearing, supporters of the bill said it would ensure that the winning candidate wins a majority of the vote. Opponents said the bill would disenfranchise third party voters, and was politically motivated. The House Administration Committee voted 17-1 to table the bill. Let me be clear, I'm a Republican, and will support our candidate, in the upcoming US Senate race, however gaming the outcome of an election, regardless of who is behind, it is bad for Democracy, and puts a stain on politics in general.

Lastly, today we take up HB 2 on the Senate floor. Its the General spending and appropriations bill, that seeks to fund State Government over the next two years, which we are constitutionally mandated to do. I'm disappointed so far, in that the proposed budget has grown State Spending by around 14%, but continues to be promoted as a conservative budget, more disappointing is that even with a Republican Super Majority in the Senate, we can't seem to hold the line on what I feel is reckless spending proposals being muscled through in the eleventh hour by House Appropriations leadership, an the Governor's budget office. Montana deserves better, and Im hoping we get some budget cutting concessions as the bill ends in in final negotiations, I'm committed to keep pushing back as necessary, until we adjourn.
