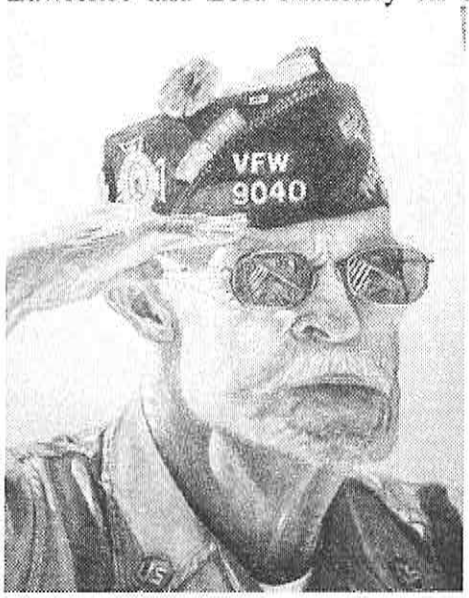
Patrick, "Pat", "P.J." John Mahoney Sr

Patrick, "Pat", "P.J." John Mahoney Sr was born to Lawrence and Zora Mahoney on 8.6.1932 at Oceanlake, Oregon. He was the 5th of 8 children. The family moved to Portland when he was a young boy after his father passed away. His mother remarried and 2 more sisters were added to the family, 2 more siblings were born of that marriage, which made 12 children, in all.



P.J. attended various schools, and worked at many jobs, from selling bread, to summer work on ranches and farms out in Central and Eastern Oregon.

When he was 18, he joined the Army Air Corps and was sent to Germany where he served as a military policeman, during the Korean War. When returning home, he met and married Sherrill Morgan. They had 5 children together and spent most of the years in the East County Portland Oregon area. He was in sales for the main part of his working years. P.J. divorced and then spent several years as a substance abuse counselor in various states and facilities. He remarried for a short time, then went off on his own.

When he retired, he moved to Dillon Montana to be near family. He was very active in the VFW and revived the poppy program, was known to many at the local Safeway and at the annual fair, selling poppies, raffle tickets and supporting the VFW's endeavors.

P.J. is survived by, 2 sisters, Ardith (John) Ford of AZ, Mary Lou Murphy of Washington, 3 daughters, Terri (Mark) Furlong of Nevada, Eran Mahoney, of Dillon and Shannon (Dan) Keller of Dillon, and one son, Mike (Chhavy) Mahoney of Oregon, 1 stepdaughter, Karen Gaffney of Oregon, 11 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren and 1 great, great granddaughter plus many nieces and nephews.

P.J. died peacefully, surrounded by family, on April 29, 2023. Donations can be made to the VFW Post 9040 at P.O. Box 4 Dillon MT 59725.

A memorial will be held at the 4-H Building at the Beaverhead County Fair Grounds, 1pm on Sunday, May 7th 2023, friends of PJ are welcome to attend.

Look for a permission/liability and information forms to come home with your student in the next few days. All forms need to be returned to the school by May 15th in order to attend the party.

All parents/guardians are invited to attend the next planning meeting on May 17th at the YMCA at 5:30. We are looking for parents/guardians/family to help chaperone, bring desserts, set up, clean up, and help monetarily with the event. If you can help, please use this link to donate by May 15th. https://fnd.us/d2BXJa?ref=sh_0CPUC2

Money can also be given to Dillon Middle School: Attn: 8th Grade Graduation Party.

Money will be used for the cost of the event: facility, decorations, food, DJ, and prizes for the kids. We hope to put on an amazing event for these 8th graders. There will be no cost to the students to attend the event.

Boaters be prepared for high water this spring

With the high levels of snow and very warm temperatures this spring, boaters can expect high waters soon. The combination of high water and high expectations can be deadly when conditions are too extreme for safe boating. Anyone planning to recreate near water should first check the FWP website for safety information. Go to fwp.mt.gov/activities/boating/safety

Two Officers Receive Hats Off Award From Kiwanis

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Wednesday afternoon the Kiwanis of Dillon met at the Beaverhead Brewing Company for a special occasion. They were giving the Hats Off Award to two deserving officers.

Officers Rumsey and Aguirre responded to an apartment fire on the night of March 11, 2023. The building still had occupants inside and the fire department had not arrived on the scene. The two officers made the quick decision to enter the building and get the occupants to safety. The two officers were treated for smoke inhalation.

Kiwanis president Mike Miller stated he couldn't think of two people more deserving of the award.

Officer Rumsey also mentioned that officer Aguirre was in the early stages of his training and did not hesitate for a moment to follow him into the building.

Secretary Christi Jacobsen recognizes Montana local businesses

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen is recognizing small businesses across Montana during National Small Business Week. Secretary Jacobsen is acknowledging Montana's local businesses for the economic impact they provide for their community, as well as the state.

Montana has had record business creation in each of the past three years, with roughly 53,000 new businesses registered in the state in 2022. Following increased efficiencies in the Secretary of State's Office, Secretary Jacobsen cut registration fees in half for Montana businesses. She also waived several other fees as she continues to eliminate red tape and make it easier to do business in Montana.

Through the Secretary of State's online filing portal, Montana businesses also have 24/7 access to their business filings.

Secretary Jacobsen will highlight one Montana small business per weekday in celebration of Small Business Week. The Montana Business Spotlights can be found on Secretary Jacobsen's Media Center.

Beavers Baseball

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Beaverhead County Beavers seized victory in dramatic walk-off fashion, thanks to a walk-off single at the end of the game to topple the East Helena Vigilantes. The game was tied at six with Beavers batting in the bottom of the seventh when Trenton Moreni singled on a 1-0 count, scoring one run.

A four-run lead in the fifth inning was just enough for Beavers to hold off the Vigilantes for the victory. The Vigilantes scored four runs in the failed comeback on a double by Eli Fox in the sixth, a single by Kai Richey in the sixth, and a double by Colby Weaver in the seventh.

The Beavers got things started in the first inning. The Beavers scored one run when Damon Skradski singled.

Tyler Lagunas led things off on the hill for the Beavers. The righthander lasted six and a third innings, allowing 12 hits and six runs while striking out seven.

The Beavers totaled 11 hits in the game. Jesse Hughes, Lagunas, and Cohen Hartman all had multiple hits for the Beavers. Hughes led with three hits in four at bats.

The Vigilantes scored three runs in the sixth inning. The Vigilante's big inning was driven by a single by Richey and a double by Fox.

Jacob Spencer led things off on the mound for the Vigilantes. The righty surrendered six runs on eight hits over four and a third innings, striking out six. Richey threw two innings out of the bullpen.

East Helena tallied 13 hits on the day. Richey, Spencer, Colter DeYoung, and Fox all collected multiple hits for the Vigilantes. Richey went 3-for-4 at the plate to lead the Vigilantes in hits.

LADY BEAVS SOFTBALL

Dillon's Lady Beavs knocked in 7 runs in the 2nd on its way to a 13-2 victory over East Helena today. The Lady Beavs put the pressure on, lead by walks by Bridget Lovaas, Adyson Creighton, and Katey Vezina and an error on a ball put in play be Patsea Farrow and Tyler Gibson.

Dillon got on the board in the 1st inning when Kinzy Creighton doubled on the 1st pitch of her at bat, scoring 1 run.

Adyson went the distance on the mound allowing only 2 hits and two runs while striking out 9.

Tymber Barnes let the offense going 2 for 3 at the plate. Adyson and Lovaas each had 2 RBI's. And Emily Brevig, Kinzy Creighton, and Vezina had 1 RBI each.

Next up.. we travel to Frenchtown to take on the Broncs who are leading the conference in 1st place. That'll be a late game under the lights which is always a good atmosphere.
