Senator Welborn's Farewell to Colleagues

Greetings Southwest Montana it's with a bittersweet, but also honored feeling that, I delivered my farewell speech, from the Senate floor on the last day of the 2023 session, although I will continue serve in the capacity as your Senator until Dec 31, 2024 which only then, will complete my sixteen years of service.

It's a long tradition to deliver a farewell address, from the Senate Chamber, by The Members who are forced from returning, due to term limits. At this point, I'm one of only three current Senate members who have served all 16 years of service consecutively.

Thank you for the opportunity, as I approach the end of my tenure. Some have asked me to consider once again running for the House, as I'm now eligible to do. I've also been encouraged to run for state wide office, or step into a role in the natural resources or trade policy arena, time will tell, and I'm grateful for the options.

I'm happy to be home in Dillon, where I can finally give my family, and my business the attention that both deserve, while I decide on what is next for me in the public policy arena.

For now, I will continue to serve out my term as your Senator, and please know I've had a good run. Again, Many Thanks for the opportunity.

Your Senator;
Jeff Welborn - Montana's 36th District

Mother's Day Prayer

Good evenin' Lord. My day is done. It's time I checked on in.
Mother said, "Son pray each day. It will help you ward off sin."
I haven't learned to pray the way my mother thought I should.
So I'm givin' prayer a shot the way my mother knew I could.
Here I am this Mother's Day. She's been gone a long fortnight.
I'd like to tell you 'bout her and I hope she's feelin' right.
She did her best to raise me and I ain't got no complaints.
But I was full of mischief. Yes, my mother is a saint.
I didn't listen to her wishes, so now I'm on my knees. I'm asking you this Mother's Day. Would you take care of her please?
She could prob'ly use attention on the special Mother's Day.
She would love some yellow flowers, that's her favorite, she would say.
Mother taught me work, to never shirk the share of all your duty.
And stay away from derelicts who lathered in self- pity.
Mother told me lazy takes away your self-respect.
I'd bet she's up there working like no other you have met.
She had the fear of God and went to church on every Sunday. I wonder now, bent knee on the ground, will I ever change my way?
Was she torn about the life I'd worn? I'd have to think she was.
But those eyes stayed true, I'm telling you, no one loves like a mother does.
As years went by she'd look at me as Mothers look at sons.
I'd feel the love those eyes would show. I sure was a lucky one.
Could I erase the years of mischief my sweet Mother did endure?
I bet she'd say,"Keep praying that would heal those years for sure."
So, Lord, if you're up there high in the sky and you have a minute or two, would you tell my Mother how much I love her?
And I guess I'm sorry too.
I'll try to keep on checkin' in. I've always known I should.
And, by the way, Lord, thanks for listenin.'
Mother said you always would.

Lady Beavs Softball

On Saturday the Lady Beavs hosted the Hamilton Broncs and lost 7-18. The game was close until the top of the 4th when the Broncs capitalized on 2 crucial fielding errors on bunts, and then they started hitting the gaps. That inning gave the Broncs 10 more runs and the Lady Beavs couldn't dig themselves out from that deficit.

Adyson Creighton took on the lions' share of pitching duties while Tymber Barnes came in for relief in the middle of that long 4th inning.

Patsea Farrow went 1 for 2 with a double. Kinzy Creighton went 1 for 4 with a single which drove in 2 RBI's. Emily Brevig went 1 for 4 with 1 RBI. Adyson went 1 for 4 with 1 RBI.

That was the Lady Beav's 8th game in 8 days and they are playing through pain and fatigue. Several of our players need to take some time to recover, and this week's games will give us an opportunity to get some other players in new positions so that we can go into Divisionals at full strength.

Legislative Report - Representative Tom Welch

The 68th Montana Legislative session is now in the books after meeting for 88 of the scheduled 90 days. This session was different than those in recent years due to two factors--the first being the impact of billions of stimulus dollars being available to the State of Montana and secondly due to the super majority held by the Republican Party. Both of these presented the Legislature with opportunities and as well as challenges.

Recall that the only Constitutional requirement that the Montana Legislature has when it meets, is to pass a balanced budget. The total budget for the next biennium is about $14.3 billion. This budget addresses population and growth while staying under the rate of inflation. We positioned our econo my to come back stronger than ever by delivering historic tax relief to the people of Montana.

In addition to the other 8 Bills that I successfully introduced in the 2023 Session, I also carried two of the Governor's tax relief Bills. The first of these passed Bills was HB 221 which revised long term capital gain rates thus benefiting, for example, small business owners, those in agriculture, and those selling their primary residences in this time of sky rocketing increases in value. The other Bill, was HB 222 which provided for a property tax rebate on a principal residence. Additionally, I carried, for various Senators, a large number of Senate Bills on the House floor. I was asked to do so, largely for my ability to successfully discuss the wide variety of issues covered by these Bills.

The additional one time only dollars available to Montana were used for a wide variety of purposes all with an eye towards 1) paying off most State debt represented by outstanding State bonds 2) addressing current needs, such as in the mental health, prison, retirement, education, and work force housing arenas just to name a few and 3) putting money away for future needs. This is similar to what you or I would do if we received a sizeable lump sum of one time only money—we would likely pay off debt, fix up our house or purchase a vehicle and then put some dollars away for a rainy day. Thru lengthy and often times, brutal discussions, we left Helena having accomplished this.

Let me now provide you with some numbers from the recently completed Legislative session:

--Although there were over 4000 total Bill drafts requested, only 1698 Bills and Resolutions were introduced

--Of this nearly 1700 Bills and Resolutions introduced, somewhere less than 1000 are expected to actually become Law

--A publication which tracks the Montana Legislature, reports that the House floor took 2,689 votes this last Session—it also reflects that I only missed 5 votes which is well below the average for House members

--This session, I served on both the House Tax Committee where we heard a record 136 Bills and the House Health and Services Committee where we heard a near record 123 Bills

With this being my last term in the Montana House, ending in December 2024 due to term limits, I have been asked by many if I expect to run for the Senate seat currently occupied by Senator Jeff Welborn. Senator Welborn also will term limit out in December 2024. My answer today is that I would like to do so, but it is premature to make any such decision. Over the coming weeks/months, I will hold discussions with my family, friends and constituents. Among the considerations are the time involved, my health as I age, and whether I feel I can still make a difference.

Thanks for allowing me to work for you as your Montana District 72 House Representative.

Senator Welborn's 2023 Session Wrap Up

In my final wrap up, first I'll address why we voted to adjourn Sine Die in the Senate, prior to the House being finished with their business. To start with the session didn't end as a result, but it did stop any further amendments from being attached to bills that were still alive, the House either could pass them out in their most recent form, where once in Free Conference, literally any measure that was previously dead, can also be added back at last minute, by a select committee, which members are selected at discretion of Majority leadership, but oftentimes this takes away the people's voice, resulting from little to no public input. Let me be clear, when done properly, the Free Conference route is a valuable tool to put finishing touches on complicated legislation, but it also very problematic, when things aren't done in a measured, thoughtful and transparent manner.

Myself, and several other Senators, both Republican and Democrats alike, shared our collective concerns that it wasn't being done in a way that benefits everyday people. All of our concerns were nevertheless dismissed, at the hands of a top down leadership style, of the Senate President and Majority Leader. Montana tax payers, are the ones who really lose, in this instance, as i've seen happen in recent sessions. It's also how short sighted laws get passed, again our Senate Leaders chose to take this path on several instances, and therefore Sine Die become the best option in the minds of a simple majority. It only takes a simple a majority vote to Sine Die, and in the Senate, with All Democrats, 5 Ultra Conservative, and 5 Moderate Republicans making up the 26-24 vote. I also recognize that some good bills also died in the process, which is the downside to our action.

Now lets shift gears, with recent actions on the House Side, making national headlines, and the Senate introducing and passing numerous controversial medical choice, personal freedom, and cultural divide policy proposals, together have over shadowed so much of the good work we've done this session. From addressing the mental health crisis, and more adequate nursing home reimbursement rates, to the aging infrastructure at our State Hospitals, and Correctional facilities, to a whole slew of things that were approached with a once in a lifetime opportunity, due to budget surpluses. We took up the task of increasing the budget on provider rate for nursing homes. Medicaid reimbursements, although still barely adequate, as several elder care facilities have closed in recent months, however we were able to fill most of that gap,which is a big step forward for our aging population, and hiring specialized staff to do the work that matters to so many families.

I'm also happy with the $300 million investment, in long overdue mental health funding, we passed in the Senate, with all Republican and Democrat, budget members voting unanimously for, and with House concurrence, should more adequately address the mental health crisis in Montana. This will help everything from crisis intervention, to long term solutions, to better treatment options. We were also able to address road and public infrastructure maintenance for County and Local Governments.

On a more local basis we were able to pass funding for several, over due construction projects at UM-Western, add back in full inflation adjustments for Youth Challenge, and many other local endeavors, its all now in Governor's hands, so hopefully politics don't get in the way of sound fiscal policy for rural SW Montana. I do feel that we also missed other good opportunities, for saving a much bigger part of the surplus money for a rainy day, by leaving too much discretionary spending authority for the executive branch, over the next twenty months, until we meet again, but the votes were, what they were, and I also respect that. I will also go on record as saying, many of the social, and personal choice bills that were passed mostly, but not entirely along party lines, and signed by the Governor, will most likely be challenged in the courts, both state and federal, and if deemed unconstitutional, or run afoul of federal laws, could cost Montana upwards of 7.5 billion dollars, or half of our entire budget, that comes from federal dollars flowing into our State, by way of human service, education, transportation, and wildlife habitat funding, all hanging in the balance. I can only hope i'm wrong. This would also make a special session unavoidable should federal funding evaporate from our budget, by throwing it out of structural balance. We have two duties as elected Senators, as do the House Members, one is to uphold the constitution, the second is pass a balanced budget.

Thanks for reading and following along over the past four months, with what we did in the people's branch of government.
