It's a glorious spring afternoon as I sit down to write this....blue skies, white clouds, fresh breeze, and like so many of you, my heart was full of the uptick of life that our long awaited spring brings. Then the spoiler!

Do those of you whose dogs created the ugly yellow circles on Jaycee Park grass know what you've failed to do at so many levels? Do you understand that even if you've picked up dog feces, what you haven't done is equally damaging, not only to this beautiful gem of a park, but to the lawns of people along your way when you are out walking your dog. The black plastic on two corners of Jaycee Park is in case you've forgotten to bring plastic yourself. It's something that belongs in your pocket before you snap the leash on your beloved pet. But the dog that pees is creating a really serious problem: that yellow spot from poop or pee will never recover it's lovely green, a green that cost thousands of dollars when new turf was laid last year. That pee spot then intrigues the next dog that comes along, that adds its own damage. That pee then seeps down into the groundwater, contaminates it and needs cleaning by Mother Nature or filter. That lovely lawn at Jaycee Park belongs to all of us. It is a playground and refreshment area for your neighbors and visitors who come from out of town; children run and play on it, blankets are laid down on it for picnics and lounging, and concert-goers put their chairs there.

Do you even think about any of this when you carelessly let your dog misbehave? If it needs grass to relieve itself, I suggest you put it out on your own lawn before taking a walk. A plastic pick up bag is a step in the right direction, but as you can see, it isn't enough. Please realize that there are many, many places in Dillon where dogs can be walked, but no matter where you go, don't let others grind their teeth when they see you being thoughtless. There are towns that by ordinance and enforcement that make their parks dog-free; is that what it would take here?

The corker to my afternoon walk? I came home and had to clean poop from a very large dog from my front yard! This responsibility is yours. If you really care about your pet be a good citizen. Do you wonder I might be a little hot under the collar?

With great sincerity, and belief that with thoughtfulness, we with and without dogs can peacefully coexist.

Gerringa Family Scholarship Supports Future Educators at Montana Western

The University of Montana Western Foundation is honored to share the history and impact of the Gerringa Family Scholarship and its support of education majors attending Montana Western.

Established in 2021 by Randy, Stephanie, and Michelle Gerringa, the scholarship honors their mother, Clara, and their late father, Bob. The award is gifted annually to a Montana Western student majoring in education.

"My sisters and I all graduated from Montana Western and felt it was important to help others while also honoring our parents for all their years of commitment to the college and the Dillon community," said Randy Gerringa.

Bob Gerringa was raised in Eastern Montana and was a standout basketball player at Shepherd High School. After graduation, he was employed as a salesman by Sampsel Sales of Billings, Montana. In 1956, Bob entered the Army and was stationed at Fort Lewis and Camp Hanford in Washington until his honorable discharge.

In 1958, he returned to Billings and worked for Valley Motor Supply, transferring to Dillon in 1961 where he managed the Valley Motor Supply/Carquest Store until his retirement in 1992. Bob was an active member of the Dillon Jaycees, serving in various positions including President and JCI Senator and received the prestigious Outstanding Young Man Award. He also participated in many other organizations including Dillon Elks Lodge 1554, Masonic Lodge, Baghdad Shriners, Beaverhead Country Club, and the Lutheran Church.

Bob's wife, Clara, grew up in Billings and graduated from Billings Senior High School. She worked as a switchboard operator for Mountain Bell and in the banking industry before she and Bob moved to Dillon. Clara worked for the TCI cable company where she was promoted to manager and eventually retired in 1994. She was very active in the Lady Elks Club, Shakespeare Club, and Lutheran Church. She logged many late hours as an election volunteer and donated her time at the information desk at Barrett Memorial Hospital. During her time with the Dillon Jaycees, she held multiple positions, including President, and received several state awards.

"Bob and I didn't go to college, but we always impressed upon our children the value of obtaining an education," said Clara. "Bob was a member and past president of the Western Montana College Booster Club and saw the value scholarships had in helping students realize their educational goals."

For the upcoming 2023-24 academic year, the scholarship will be awarded to Early Childhood Education major, Jessika Jones. Jones has a passion for teaching and is excited for the opportunities UMW's Education Program and this scholarship will provide.

"When I first went to college, I knew I wanted to pursue a profession that helps children, so I decided to become a pediatric nurse. After one year of studying nursing, I felt as if something was missing from my passion. I soon realized that in addition to caring for children, I wanted to teach them—so I changed my major to Early Childhood Education. Upon attending classes and gaining experience teaching children, my heart became full. I knew that the piece that was missing before was the component of teaching. Upon completing my associate's degree in Early Childhood Education, I wanted to further my studies which led me to pursue a Bachelor's Degree in Pre-Kindergarten through Third Grade Education at the University of Montana Western. To this day, I am thankful and excited to become a full-time educator," said Jones.

The University of Montana Western Foundation is grateful for the generosity of the Gerringa Family and their support of education students at Montana Western. To learn more, please contact UMW Foundation Executive Director, Roxanne Engellant: 406-683-7305 or roxanne.engellant@umwestern.edu.
