Thank You Barretts Minerals

The Southwestern Montana Family YMCA Board of Directors would like to thank Barretts Minerals for their generous donation of a much needed AED. The YMCA's Family Center is now better prepared for any emergency requiring an AED. Again, thank you for thinking of the YMCA and those we serve.

Senior Commodity Boxes

Senior Commodity Boxes will be available for pick up Saturday May 20, 2023 from 9:00-10:00 at 761 Kentucky Ave. Dillon. Please bring an empty box. Contact Russ Schwandt at 498.1753 to sign up or for any additional questions.

Community Basement at Saint Rose Parish Drop off hours

The Community Basement at Saint Rose Parish is asking to have donations dropped off during working hours only, 9 am until 12 pm Monday - Friday. We are having lots and lots of bags, boxes and other items stolen moments after drop off and during the middle of the night. We have cameras around the building which captures the drop off's (and those that think it is a drpp off and pick up) and the license plates. Once dropped off, it is considered Saint Rose Parish Property, Therefore it is stealing when items are taken. We will start turning the license plate numbers over to authorities if it continues. Thank you for your understanding and working with us.

FWP seeking applicants to Region 3 Citizen Advisory Council

Application deadline is June 15

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks staff in southwest Montana are seeking applicants to the Region 3 Citizen Advisory Council.

The council meets several times per year and operates in an advisory capacity to help FWP be responsive and effective resource managers within the constraints of the law. Citizen advisors help identify emerging trends and resolve conflicts, and they act as FWP ambassadors to various interest groups and geographic communities.

FWP employees benefit from having a deeper understanding of public priorities and expectations with help from citizen advisors, who can function as a trusted sounding board for ideas and initiatives. People who volunteer in this capacity benefit from understanding FWP programs, priorities, administrative processes and limitations in a broader context.

FWP is seeking applicants representing a variety of interests from communities across southwest Montana within Region 3. For more information or to apply, call 406-577-7891 or send an email to Morgan.Jacobsen@mt.gov. Applications must be submitted by 5 p.m. on Thursday, June 15.

ROUND-A-POUND

By "Swede" Troedsson

My first year of hunting in Montana was in 1958 when I was a forestry student at Montana State University (now called The University of Montana - Missoula).

Some of us students would hunt big game, and if successful, move out of the dorms, and finish the academic year in a rental, living on wild game and potatoes.

That first year I hunted with a 30-30 Winchester, expending 35 rounds that hunting season in order to finally bag my first elk. The word got around campus about the number of rounds it took me to get my elk. I was referred to as "Round-a Pound Swede".

In 1993 another fellow and I were hunting elk in the Grasshopper Valley, about 24 miles west of Dillon, Montana. I was hunting below a patch of timber, and my hunting partner was in the timber above me. He jumped a bunch of elk. I heard him empty the magazine on his Winchester Model 88. A cow elk tore out of the timber in front of me, which I downed with my 338-06. After downing the cow elk, I watched a wounded spike bull elk run out of the timber, run downhill close to me, and cross a draw below me. A hunter from Ohio finished off the wounded bull as it ran up the slope on the other side of the draw.

My hunting partner walked down to me as I was dressing out my elk. He inquired as to why I didn't finish off the wounded bull. I replied that first of all, I didn't know, given all of his shooting, if hadn't already killed another elk up there in the timber. Secondly, I'd already killed my own elk and it would have been against hunting regulations for me to kill a second elk in order to help another hunter fill his tag.

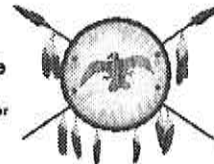

Given all the rounds my partner expended, I informed him he qualified to be called "Round-a-Pound".

Kelly Moose Memorial Document Clinic

The Montana Aging Services Bureau will be holding a Legal Document Clinic on Tuesday, May 23rd, at Elks Lodge 1554, Dillon, MT.

Legal professionals will assist participants in completing their estate planning documents at no cost. The program serves seniors and tribal members, age 60 and older. Our services are not designed to handle complex estates or large assets, and we do not handle any trusts.

These documents include:

- Transfer On Death Deed
- Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care
- Durable Power of Attorney for Financial
- Declaration of Living Will
- Declaration of Homestead
- Simple Will
- Indian Wills

Professionals will help seniors draft, review, notarize and copy each document. Free resources and educational materials will be available.

Working with Older Adults: Capacity, Exploitation, Abuse, and Reporting

The Montana Aging Services Bureau will be hosting a training on Monday, May 22nd, at Elks Lodge 1554, 27 E Center Street, Dillon, MT.

Join the Department of Public Health and Human Services and learn more about working with older adults. The first hour of the training, presented by Susan Gobbs, Staff Attorney, will focus on assessing senior capacity and how to work with seniors who may have limited capacity. The second hour, presented by an Adult Protective Services professional, will focus on the signs of abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation and what to do if you suspect it. The last hour will be presented by Barb Harris of MLSA and will focus on Elder Law. The presentation has been approved for CLE, CEU and Nursing Contact Hours.

The training is designed to benefit anyone who works with older adults regularly, from lawyers to barbers. We have welcomed trainees from senior centers, law firms, county attorneys' offices, city councils, assisted living facilities, banks, credit unions, financial advisors, social assistance programs, law enforcement, tribal education leaders, tribal councils, doctors, nurses, religious leaders, and more. All are welcome!

Nonresident hunters can sign up between May 15 and June 30 for Alternate's List

Beginning May 15 and running through June 30, nonresident hunters can register their name to the Alternate's List on MyFWP. Every year, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks gets several unused nonresident combination licenses (big game, general elk and general deer combination licenses) returned by customers. FWP resells these returned licenses through the Alternate's List.

The Alternate's List is an option for nonresident hunters to express their interest in purchasing one of these returned licenses by registering their name to this listing. A hunter can register to purchase their choice of only one nonresident combination license per year (big game, general elk, or general deer combination licenses). The list is randomized in mid-July. The hunter in the uppermost randomized position on the list will be contacted by email in August to finalize the purchase of the license, and so on until the returned NR combo licenses are eventually exhausted.

Payment for the license fee is not required to sign up for the Alternate's List. If your randomized position falls at the top of the listing, you will be contacted by email with instructions on how to complete the purchase of the license. Being on this list or obtaining a license from this list has no effect on your existing preference points.

MyFWP also allows you to check where your position lands on this Alternate's List after the randomization process occurs in mid-July. Please be sure to check back after then.

The odds of getting a license from these lists vary greatly from year to year. Refunds and issuance may occur at any time after mid-July, but availability of these licenses increase between early fall and the opening of general hunting season in late October.

For more information, visit <http://fwp.mt.gov/hunting/licensedraw/alternatesList.html>.

Bulldog Men's Rodeo Preparing For College National Finals Rodeo

The Bulldog Men's Rodeo Team finished second overall in the team standings in the NIRA Big Sky Region. With the second-place finish, they qualify as a team to compete at the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR) set to be held in Casper, Wyo. from June 11 through 17. "Obviously, our goal was to get the team to the CNFR, now we focus on what we can do to put ourselves in the best spot to compete there and bring home some hardware." Head Coach JT Robbins said.

Robbins, voted the 2022-23 Big Sky Region Coach of the Year, is in his second year at the helm of the Montana Western Rodeo Team. "We are taking a very balanced team consisting of some great individuals. I am really looking forward to it." Robbins continued. "We have a good group of guys that all get along. We know how to have fun, but we also know how to be serious and get better. JT lined up lots of good practice cattle this season that made it easy for us to get better with quality practices. I am excited to get home and rope with different people that can help me in different ways and keep pushing me to get better every day heading into the Finals." Senior Brett Bartholomew said.

The Bulldogs will send six individuals to compete at the CNFR in just under one month.

Brett Bartholomew, a senior from Filer, Idaho, competed this season in tie down roping and team roping. Though qualifying for the CNFR back in 2020, he was unable to compete due to the cancelation of the finals. Bartholomew will now make his first appearance at the CNFR after he finished fifth in the region in tie down roping.

Ty Christensen, a senior from Plain City, Utah, makes his first appearance at the CNFR after he competed in team roping and tie down roping this season. Christensen transferred to Montana Western this season after stints at Weber State and Casper College. He finished this season fifth in the Big Sky Region in the Men's All-Around, second in team roping, and seventh in tie down roping.

Trevor Kay, a sophomore bareback rider from Chester, Idaho, makes his second trip to the CNFR. He enters the finals as the No. 1 rider in the nation. He finished on top of the average standings in eight of the ten rodeos this season. Last season, he finished 15th in Casper last season.

Carson Klingler, a sophomore saddle bronc rider from Rexburg,

Idaho, makes his second appearance at the CNFR for the Bulldogs. He finished 15th last year in Casper, Wyo. Klingler qualified after he overtook the third-place spot in his final ride at the regional finals in Missoula back on April 29.

Gavin Knutson, a freshman from Polson, Mont., makes his first appearance at the CNFR this year. He competed this season in bull riding, tie down roping, and in team roping. Knutson enters the CNFR as the third ranked bull rider in the nation. He won the NIRA Big Sky Region title in bull riding and earned 645 points on the season. Jhet Murphy, a junior from Helena, Mont., makes his debut at the CNFR. A transfer from Laramie Community College, Murphy finished a successful first year as a Bulldog. He finished second in the NIRA Big Sky Region in the Men's All-Around standings, second overall in team roping, fifth overall in steer wrestling, and 15th in the tie down roping.

AG Knudsen's statement on Montana's TikTok ban

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen released the following statement in response to Governor Greg Gianforte's signature on Senate Bill 419, banning TikTok in Montana:

"TikTok is a Chinese Communist Party spying tool that poses a threat to every Montanan. I'm thankful to Governor Gianforte and the Legislature, especially Senator Vance, for working with me to protect Montanans' privacy and security. I hope other states recognize the dangers of TikTok and follow suit."

Attorney General Knudsen's office drafted the legislation and worked closely with the bill's sponsor, Sen. Shelley Vance (R-Belgrade), to get the bill to the Governor's desk.

ADVANCED IMAGING TECHNOLOGY at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare

Superior imaging means faster, more accurate diagnoses—to provide peace of mind, and detect issues sooner so that they're easier to treat and beat. At Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, our state-of-the-art imaging technology rivals the services at larger healthcare systems so you can access the diagnostics you need where it's closer for you and your family. Get the whole picture of your health when—and where—you need it.

To learn more, talk to your provider at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare or visit barretthospital.org/diagnostic-imaging.

BARRETT
HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE

Where people come first.
100 years and counting.

3D Mammography

Detects 20-65% more invasive breast cancers compared to 2D alone and is the only mammogram FDA approved as superior for women with dense breasts and clinically proven to reduce unnecessary callbacks by up to 40%.

CT or CAT scan

State-of-the-art diagnostics allows providers to view precise, detailed, 3D images of multiple areas in the body.

MRI

Wide bore scanner combines comfort with superior imaging capabilities. Providers receive clearer, more accurate images. And who says an MRI has to be uncomfortable? At Barrett, we have a large, dedicated scanning room on site to make it easier for our patients who suffer from claustrophobia.
