Tempie Brown Ray

January 3, 1938 to May 18, 2023

Tempie Brown Ray, 85, passed away peacefully in her home in Missoula, Montana on May 18, 2023 surrounded by her family. She was a remarkable woman and filled many roles in the many lives that crossed her path from daughter, sister, mother, aunt, educator, coach, avid reader, passionate book collector, world traveler, to cheerful host.

She began her own adventure in 1938 in Fort Defiance, Arizona born to Firman and Eunice Brown. Her father worked for the Bureau of Indian Affairs, which inspired her sense of exploration starting on the Navajo Nation in Arizona and then on the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Nation in Montana. She also spent time in Florida and Haiti before graduating high school in Billings, Montana. Tempie graduated with an education degree from the University of Montana in 1959.

Her teaching career opened in Oregon before moving to Japan, where she met her husband, Harry. They married in 1962. Through Harry's various military postings, Tempie's journey included teaching and raising a family in various states, mostly in the southeast before international postings in Korea and Germany. Traveling to many parts of the world, Tempie developed a deep appreciation and understanding of diverse cultures and traditions.

Tempie settled back in Montana in 1977 with her four sons (Ted, Tim, Firman, and Travis) and taught in Dillon before finishing her 40 years of teaching as the librarian for Stevensville High School. Her love for books, history, and teaching did not end upon her retirement. She continued teaching through all the stories and books she shared with her family and friends.

Tempie was ever present in her immediate and extended families lives and was unfailingly ready to support her community. This included coaching her sons' teams, volunteering for various community events, sharing road trips, and assisting younger generations as they embark on their next chapter of life. In the most recent years, Tempie's passion was welcoming all to her home in Missoula. She loved to discuss the history of places she visited which created lasting memories for those fortunate to be with her.

Tempie is preceded in death by her parents Firman and Eunice, brother Firman (Bo), sister-in-law Margery, brother-in-law Carl and sister Martha. Tempie is survived by her four sons and their wives, six grandchildren, brother-in-law, and many beloved nieces, nephews, and extended family.

rancher and took great pride in raising quality cattle. He employed many people over the years, each of whom he treated as family, and many became lifelong friends. He and Pat welcomed visitors at any time, usually with a full meal and a cup of coffee or a toddy. Russell enjoyed spending his free time hunting with his brother, Marvin, and fishing around the ranch and in Alaska, or anywhere that had a fish. He was forever trying to catch the "big one". After a long battle with Alzheimer's disease, Russell passed away at Barrett Hospital in Dillon, MT. Russell is survived by wife, Pat Peterson, and three of his children, Doug (Deanna) Peterson, MD (Heidi) Peterson, Janine (Jeff) Hale, as well as his son-in-law, Joe Foster. Russell had nine grandchildren: Dale Peterson; Darby and Sam Peterson; Holly, Ben, and Sam Hale; and Allyson, Molly, and Katie Foster. He is also survived by his brother, Marvin, of Minden, Nevada as well as many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mary and Elvin Peterson, daughter, Shirley Foster, and brother, Donald Peterson.

Donald G. Peterson was born in Butte, Montana on February 12, 1934. He died on March 28, 2023. His parents were Elvin Peterson and Mary (Forcella) Peterson. His grandparents were Sam Peterson and Tilda Peterson, Joseph and Teresa Forcella. They preceded him in death, as well as a favorite uncle, Melvin Peterson and a niece, Shirly Peterson Foster. He is survived by two brothers, Russell (Pat) Peterson of Wisdom, Montana, and Marvin Peterson of Minden, Nevada. As well, a few cousins, a bunch of nephews and nieces, and a few friends. Cremation has taken place and there will be no memorial or funeral service. The ashes will be scattered in the mountains on the west side of the beautiful Big Hole Valley. In lieu of memorials, relatives and friends can remember him by doing something special for a loved one.

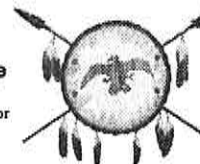

Celebration of life for Russell and Donald Peterson will be on June 11th from 1-4pm at Jackson Hot Springs Lodge.

Citizens Seize shovels, Rakes, Take To City Streets To Roundup The Mess

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

It was a busy day in downtown Dillon as citizens and organizations took to the streets to help clean up in time for summer. Downtown Dillon Cleanup Day was the idea of the Dillon Merchants Association. They came up with a way to do community service to the town as well as help get it cleaned up for summer.

Ron Carroll proposed the idea to Mayor McGinly and director of operation Todd Hazelbaker on having the city join in on the cleanup. The city provided garbage bags, vests, and cones for the cleanup. The mayor drove around on a side by side with his two little helpers and delivered water to those who were working and thirsty. Along with City Council members Diane Armstrong and Stephen Sievert who also took part in today's cleanup.

Some people helping with the cleanup noticed many old flyers and pamphlets that had been scattered throughout the town as they cleaned. A good reminder if you place flyers or pamphlets on people's vehicles they just end up as trash in the town.

With a couple hours of hard labor by business owners, members of our community, along with cadets from the Montana Youth Challenge Dillon looks a little less run down and a lot more inviting for those who drive through the town.

The cleanup was followed up with a BBQ at the Elks Lodge with the food being donated by Town and Country Foods, Judy Siring of Farmers Union, Reeser's.

Montana State Crime Lab Maintains Global Status as a Top-Performing Forensic Laboratory

For the third consecutive year, the Montana Department of Justice's Forensic Science Division (FSD) is among the few forensic laboratories worldwide to earn the prestigious FORESIGHT Maximus Award from the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors (ASCLD). FSD, most commonly referred to as the State Crime Lab, houses Montana's forensic science laboratories and medical examiner system and is the sole source of forensic services for law enforcement in the state.

The Foresight Maximus Award is presented to forensic laboratories operating at 90 percent or better of peak efficiency as evidenced by Foresight business metrics during 2022. Only 14 other laboratories worldwide earned the distinction.

"Our state crime lab's forensic analysis is essential to law enforcement agencies across the state as they investigate crimes and hold perpetrators accountable," Attorney General Knudsen said. "As crime and illicit drugs continue to wreak havoc on Montana communities at alarming rates, it's more important than ever that we have professionals who are committed to criminal justice at our forensic laboratories."

"In the forensic science service provider world, stress and expectations are higher than ever, while resources and funding remain consistently low. It takes perseverance to remain efficient whilst also innovative. These top performing laboratories should be regarded as operations to be emulated by their peers as they uphold high standards of quality and productivity," ASCLD President Jennifer D. Naugle said in a press release.

The Forensic Science Division plays a vital role in the Department of Justice's mission to fight crime in Montana and protect Montana families from an influx of dangerous illegal drugs. The division uses state of the art technology to provide precise, objective, and timely forensic analyses in support of the criminal justice community across the state. The State Crime Lab comprises the medical examiner, toxicology, chemical analysis, firearms/toolmarks, latent prints, DNA/serology, quality assurance, and evidence sections.

The State Crime Lab has been accredited by the American Society of Crime Lab Directors/Laboratory Accreditation Board since 2005. The medical examiner's office became accredited by the National Association of Medical Examiners in 2021.
