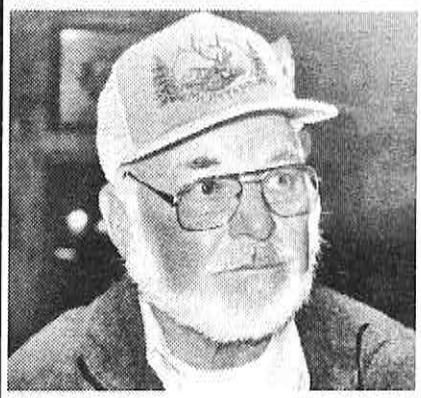
James Philip Nettik



James Philip Nettik, 84, passed away suddenly on May 27, 2023. He was born on November 5, 1938 in Dillon MT to Michael "Pat" and Hannah (Malesich) Nettik and was the oldest of three children. Jim was a devoted husband to Doris E. (Hayes) Vanover whom he married in November of 1967 and a loving father to Sharon (Vanover) McWilliams, Joyce Vanover and Angela (Nettik) Morse.

Jim spent a fair amount of his childhood out on the Malesich Ranch north of town and up Stone Creek working for his Uncle Scotty. He stated that since he was the oldest of the cousins, he was always left behind at the ranch on weekends to babysit while the adults went to town. Jim graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1956. He enlisted in the Army in 1961, he was stationed in Hawaii and Thailand until 1963. While serving he was awarded for his incredible sharp shooting ability. After returning he started working for Mooney Trucking, Owen Trucking and for the Beaverhead Country Road Department as the Road Foreman and retired after 32 years with the county.

In his free time, Jim enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping and loved to be in the outdoors. He was incredibly proud of his yard and would spend countless hours pulling weeds, taking care of the flowers and the lawn. He planted many trees and had dozens of birdhouses amongst them. Together Jim and Doris enjoyed watching the baby birds grow and leave their nests.

Jim is proceeded in death by his parents, son in law Robert "Bob" McWilliams, and great granddaughter Aspen May.

He is survived by his wife of 55 years Doris Nettik. Sister and brother-in-law Joanne (Bob) Johnson and brother and sister-in-law Jerry (Nancy) Nettik of Colorado. Daughters and sons-in-law Sharon McWilliams, Joyce Vanover (Andy Dooling) of Helena and Angela (Kevin) Morse. Grandchildren Shannon McWilliams (Brian Burkenpas), Travis McWilliams, Amber Buscher of Helena, Brittni Morse and Kyler Morse (Brianna Hatt-Liebsch) of Sheridan. Great grandchildren Brandon (Jenna) McWilliams, Payton McWilliams, and Avery May. Nieces, Jerri Ann (Evan) Armstrong, Jennifer Nettik (Guido), Jacinda (Kevin) Brown and nephew Warren Atwood (Lucretia Galahan). Along with great nieces and nephews.

Services to be held on June 7, 2023 at 11:00 at Brundage Funeral Home. Reception to follow details to be announced at the service.

BCHS State Tennis

Our boys doubles of Jonathan Puga and Josiah Jones won their opening match and then lost in the quarterfinals to the eventual number 2 boys doubles team in the state from Billing Central. They then lost in the back draw to the team that took 5th at the tournament from Polson. Our girls doubles team of Cayenne McCabe and Aubrey Hawley had a tough draw. They lost their first match in the main draw, then proceeded to loose their next one in the back draw. Those two doubles teams played well and had a ton of fun throughout their successful season.

Our other girls doubles duo of Eden Kindberg and Rachel Fluckiger played extremely well fighting their way to the state championship match against a familiar foe from Corvallis. They started off slow and nervous, but eventually came through and won the title match in three sets!! They played extremely well and had a very successful senior season to end their high school careers. With the points earned by the doubles duo it was enough to land the girls tennis team the 3rd place trophy for class A.

Lop Eared Jasper

Bryce Angell

I dared a look outside. The ground still held some drifts of snow. The stove inside my canvas tent was burning a bright red glow.

I opened up the tent flap, filled my lungs and gave a yell. I swear old Jasper looked at me and said, "It's cold as @#&&!"

Jasper and my saddle horse were munching on the hay. Last night I threw enough feed out to last them most the day.

I closed the flap and tossed a chunk of Doug Fir in the fire. Then I tied the stove door almost shut with pliers and baling wire.

Now, Jasper was an old pack mule. He'd packed my gear for years. But I should have named him Ugly. Let me tell you 'bout his ears.

When Jasper was about one year , a stud kicked him in the head. He lay there in the corral and I was hoping he weren't dead.

At first his breaths were shallow. Then he stood up on his feet. He took a step and sure enough his walk was plumb offbeat.

He looked a might confused. His eyes were covered with a glaze. If I hadn't seen him take the kick I'd swear he had been tased.

Well Jasper shook his head and then he gained his wits all back. But I couldn't help but notice that one ear was lying flat.

One ear straight up and one ear down, I'd never seen before. Was Jasper giving signs that he now talked in semaphore?

I tried a bunch of different ways to keep the ear up straight. I even tied a hat on, but it seemed to agitate.

So all this time, old Jasper's ears have never been the same. It's been a conversation piece. Some folks think it's a shame.

One little girl said Jasper needs an earring in his ear. She even said, "He's beautiful." Only a child could be so dear.

I'd say most mules are ugly, but old Jasper takes the cake. A friend of mine says, "Jasper looks like nature's worst mistake!"

I've always made a point to give that mule some extra care. I guess I feel responsible he's had this cross to bear.

But Jasper doesn't seem to mind that no one wants to gush. When someone calls him ugly, I have never seen him blush.

Application deadline for antelope and B licenses June 1

Hunters have until June 1 to apply for antelope licenses as well as elk and deer B licenses. All applications must be done online or at an FWP office. Don't wait until the last minute, get it done now.

Elk and deer b licenses and archery-only antelope licenses will be drawn mid-June, but general antelope licenses won't be drawn until later in the summer after biologists do counts and determine the number of licenses to issue.

If you haven't already downloaded the MyFWP mobile app, now is a great time to do so. This convenient app will hold your licenses and permits, as well as your E-tags which can be validated in the field if you harvest an animal. The app works with or without cell service in the field, as long as you've downloaded your E-tags to your device.

Brewer Competes At NAIA Track & Field Championships

Taya Brewer finished up the outdoor track & field season by representing Montana Western at the NAIA Outdoor National Championships in Marion, Ind.

This evening, Brewer ran in the Women's 10,000m Final and finished in 32nd with a time of 39:19.90. This was Brewer's first trip to an NAIA National Championship meet.

"Taya had a tough day. I am proud of the season she had and it is great to get the experience at the national meet. I am sure this will fuel the fire for the future. She is a tough competitor and she had an off day." Head Coach Dylan Zitzer commented after the meet.

Attorney General's Office secures guilty plea in West Yellowstone homicide case

A West Yellowstone woman pleaded guilty today in Gallatin County District Court to deliberate homicide, felony child criminal endangerment, and felony tampering with witnesses and information following the death of her grandson, Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced. The plea agreement reached in this case asks the judge to impose a life sentence.

Patricia Batts admitted to deliberate homicide of her 12-year-old grandson James Alex Hurley in 2020, with the assistance of James Sasser III, at her home in West Yellowstone. She also admitted to failing to provide medical attention to Alex after he was severely assaulted and to tampering with the testimony of witnesses by trying to get family members to provide false statements to law enforcement.

"This was a very tragic death of a blameless child. These cases are not easy, and our hard-working prosecutors are one step closer to achieving justice for Alex's family," Attorney General Knudsen said. "I look forward to the sentencing and expect the judge will impose the life sentence we requested in the plea deal. My office will continue to hold criminals accountable in this state."

Last year, Sasser was sentenced to 100 years for deliberate homicide, felony child endangerment, and felony tampering with a witness for his role in Hurley's death. Batts' son has also been sentenced and other family members have been charged in connection with Hurley's death.

The sentencing hearing is scheduled for July 11, 2023.
