Yvonnie Jory

Yvonnie Jory, a loving Mother and Grandmother, passed away peacefully Sunday morning, June 4, 2023, in Butte, MT surrounded by her family. Yvonnie was born in Whitehall, Montana, February 29, 1932, to Joseph and Nora (Davis) Han.

As a young girl, Yvonnie attended school in Virginia City where she graduated Valedictorian from high school. She went on to attend Dillon Normal College, which is now Western Montana College. During her time in college, she met a young man from Butte one evening, who borrowed a friend's new car, and from that moment on, he stole her heart. (She thought he was rich until their second date when he showed up with a different car, which was a beat-up truck).

On January 21, 1952, Yvonnie married that young man, Robert H. Jory, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Butte. Together they raised seven wonderful children. First, they welcomed Jim then four boys followed: Tony, Tom, Victor, John. To round out the family two beautiful daughters followed: Linda and Nora Lee. Many times, people wondered how she held it all together, but for her, their children always came first. She was a devoted and loving Mother and that followed through when she became a Grandmother and Great Dane/GG (Great-Grandmother). She cherished each of her children, grandchildren, and great-children.

Yvonnie was a longtime member of St. John the Evangelist Parish and belonged to the Butte Garden Club for many years where she made many memorable friendships. In her spare time, she enjoyed playing cards - especially pinochle, gardening, listening to Elvis while cleaning house, and having afternoon tea and cookies with whomever stopped over.

Yvonnie is preceded in death by her parents, sisters Geri Adams and Nita King, daughter Nora Lee Jory, son Tom Jory, daughter-in-law Kathy Jory and her husband Robert Jory who passed away in 2002.

She is survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, Jim and Gail Jory of Butte, Anthony Jory of Butte, Janet Jory of Lusk, Wyoming, Victor and Robin Jory of Butte, John and Tana Jory of Dillon, daughter and son-in-law, Linda and Lynn Lloyd of Butte, grandchildren: Jolene and Chad Snyder, Tricia Jory, Toni and Donald Skwarlo, Kenslee Jory, Eric Jory and Marcie Miller, Tyler Jory and Sarah Hansen, Jon and Nicole Quinn, Kristen and Jason Dawes and Dani Lloyd and Kevin Shannon. Also surviving are seven great-grandchildren.

Yvonnie's remains are in Wayrynen-Richards Funeral Home where funeral services will be conducted Thursday, June 15th at 10 am with Father Thomas Haffey officiating. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning at 9 am. Interment will be in Holy Cross Cemetery. Memorials in memory of Yvonnie may be made to Gail's Small Dog Rescue, 2112 Gaylord, Butte, MT 59701 or to Our Lady of the Rockies or to Easter Seals/Highlands Hospice.

Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen announces 2024 Annual Report fees will be waived for all Montana businesses

Montana Secretary of State Christi Jacobsen announced on Friday that 2024 Annual Report filing fees will be waived for all Montana businesses. The elimination of the Annual Report filing fee will result in millions of dollars in savings for Montana businesses.

"Our Montana businesses work hard to provide services and products to their communities, and I want to make it easier to do business in Montana," said Secretary Jacobsen. "I previously cut registration fees in half for Montana businesses, and our state has experienced record new business growth as a result."

"I've said before, 'Montana businesses deserve less government deterrents,' and waiving the 2024 Annual Report filing fee is one more way we can support our Montana businesses on their journey," she added.

The Secretary of State's Office has increased efficiencies through its online business filing system, reducing review and processing time by the SOS staff.

Montana again experienced record new business registrations in 2022, with roughly 53,000 new businesses created according to the Montana Business Economic Report. Secretary Jacobsen announced earlier this week that new business registrations climbed again in May 2023.

Secretary Jacobsen was recently recognized and honored by the Mountain States Policy Center (MSPC) for her efforts in reducing red tape for Montana businesses. The MSPC awarded Secretary Jacobsen with the Elevation Award, which is the highest honor of the organization, "given to individual(s) who are committed to advancing and elevating free market principles and ideas. It is presented to a top innovator, business leader, or elected official in Idaho, Montana, and Washington."

"Our local businesses are so important to their community and the state," said Secretary Jacobsen. "We want them to know we appreciate the goods and services they provide, the hard work they display, and the positive impact they have on our state."

"Thank you for doing business in Montana," she added.

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank the Dillon community for their tremendous support! Thank you for buying our popcorn and providing us with so many opportunities. We had wonderful, and educational, visits to the Beaverhead County Museum, the Animal Shelter and the Fire Department. The hay maze was a blast. And let's not forget the Pinewood Derby!

A special Thank You to Safeway for the fundraiser, the LDS Church for allowing us the perfect place to hold our weekly meetings, and The Gyros Wagon for being our sponsor. We couldn't have done it without you!

Branch Selected Frontier Conference Sports Information Director of the Year

In her inaugural year, Montana Western Sports Information Director (SID) Lindsey Branch was selected the 2022-2023 Frontier Conference Sports Information Director of the Year in a vote by the league's sports information directors. She is the conference's nominee for National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) honors.

"I am very appreciative of the honor and am grateful to be recognized by my colleagues throughout the Frontier Conference," Branch said. "With this being my first year in sports information and college athletics, I am incredibly thankful for my fellow Frontier Conference colleagues who have supported and worked beside me throughout the year."

The award honors an individual who demonstrates excellence in all aspects of athletic communication including; social media, press releases, photography, statistical compilation, website updates, coordinating media personnel, graphic design, and promotion of the Frontier Conf. and the NAIA.

Branch is a 2019 graduate of Vanguard University (Calif.) with a major in education and a minor in psychology. As a softball student-athlete, she earned academic all-conference and All-American honors. Branch was a three-year member of the Vanguard Student-Athletic Advisory Committee (SAAC).

She began her professional career at Caruthers High School of Caruthers, Calif. Branch was a special education teacher, the co-activities director, head volleyball coach and assistant softball coach. In 2021, she added a masters in special education to her resume.

Her lack of experience in sports information was quickly replaced by her enthusiasm to learn. In short order, she settled into her SID duties providing all aspects of athletic communications for Montana Western's 10 athletic teams. Branch amped up the Bulldog's social media presence with a 49 percent growth on Instagram and a 21 percent growth on Twitter.

She created the "Barkin' with the Dawgs" podcast, began the Title IX feature series spotlighting Montana Western female student-athletes, both past and present, and the Off the Leash series, spotlighting former Bulldog student-athletes.

Branch is Montana Western's Association of Student-Athletes (ASA) advisor. She supervised the first ever Dawg Show awards banquet which honored Montana Western student-athletes.

In addition to her Montana Western duties, Branch is the Montana Western staff representative on the Frontier Conference SAAC. In support of the conference, she shared work responsibilities with other conference SID's in providing media assistance at several conference events.

"I am especially thankful to the entire Montana Western athletic department for giving me the opportunity to grow and learn in this profession throughout the year," Branch said.
