Flag Day June 14

Flag Day is June 14 and celebrates the adoption of the flag the official symbol for the United States: our Stars and Stripes. This day was first recognized by Congress on June 14, 1777, which became known as Flag Day. The U.S. flag has 13 stripes: 7 red and six white. A blue field with 50 stars is located next to the staff in the upper left corner of the flag. It extends from the top to the lower edge of the fourth red stripe. The stars are arranged in alternating rows of six and five representing the 50 states of the United States. The stars do not represent any given state. The colors used in the flag give special meaning to the flag: Red for valor and zeal; white for hope and cleanliness of life; and blue — the color of heaven — for reverence and loyalty.

Taxing Recreational Marijuana

By: MJ

May 17, 2023, City Council meeting. On the agenda was RESOLUTION No 1437. This resolution was to allow the City of Dillon to present a referendum to the qualified electors of this city of Dillon allowing recreational marijuana sales in the city of Dillon. Note: If the resolution was passed by the council the people would have had a voice via a vote. Question: Would it be beneficial to tax recreational marijuana and use the taxes to provide a policy to help abusers? Is "not taxing" going to stop people from using it?

Medical marijuana sales are allowed in Dillon and taxed; however, recreational marijuana sales are not allowed in Dillon. People are purchasing recreational marijuana in other towns and supporting the tax base.

Several citizens from the community attended the meeting and expressed their opinions and concerns on why the "taxing of recreational marijuana" should not be put on the ballot. Question: Was there documented factual data presented to the council by the presenting citizens? Tax dollar information that would be generated via amount of sales in Dillon, actual effects on the community...

Question: Is it fair to the City Council for citizens to present complaints, opinions and ideas but not give any facts and figures to document the information presented? The more information presented to the council the better the decisions will be for the entire community. If the council does not have factual data, would they make decisions on their own opinions and emotions. Question: Is this the way we want our leaders to govern?

Note: In 2020 the Montana voters approved Initiative I-190 which allows for the operation of various categories of marijuana businesses and taxation of marijuana retail sales in Montana counties. The City Council of the City of Dillon is authorized pursuant to section 96 of house bill 701 to enter a resolution referring to the question of allowing the sale of recreational marijuana.

Note: Depart. of Rev. offers a wide range of statistics. Beaverhead County estimated sales for April of 2023 was $45,621+/- for (medical marijuana) only. In the most recent survey 10.77+/- percent of Montana residents reported using a list of drugs in the past month. The national average is 8.82C percent. Additionally, 3.15%+/- of Montana residents reported using an illicit drug other than marijuana in the past month and the national average is 3.6%+/-. The primary drug of choice is meth amphetamine (44.7%+/-), followed by alcohol (29.3%+/-) and marijuana 13.8%+/-. How many tax dollars would be generated by thew sales? Sales for the recreational marijuana industry the first year created a new windfall of 45+/- million dollars in tax revenue for the state.

Note: If Resolution #1437 was passed by the council the sale and taxing of medical marijuana in Dillon would have been put on the ballot for the voters to decide and not just a few people. Recreational marijuana sales are taxed at 20% by the state and medical marijuana is taxed at 4%.

Daniel will be attending Montana State University and study Biology until furthering his education at Colorado State University to pursue a Doctoral in Veterinary Medicine. Beaverhead Search and Rescue Training

Submitted by Mel Rice-Public Relations Officer

This past weekend the Beaverhead Search and Rescue held its annual training camp out. The event took place at the Dinner Station camp ground up Birch Creek. There were 18 members who attended. The training started Saturday morning, June 10, after everyone enjoyed a hardy breakfast. The first presentation was a talk by Bear Specialist Jamie Trivette, an S&R member. She spoke on the proper use of bear spray and how to be bear aware when out on searches especially at night. Jamie also spoke about ways to discourage bears from attacking. This has become paramount for the safety of S&R personnel considering the number of bears in Beaverhead County.

Following the bear presentation the group moved right into a presentation by commander Lawrence Morrisroe, communications officer Brad Wagner, and secretary Kolby Malesich. They demonstrated the proper technique for setting up Starlink and its capabilities in remote areas of Beaverhead County. Having internet capabilities out in the sticks provides for endless means of tracking each of our members while they are in the field searching and/or rescuing individuals. It also provides a way to stay in touch with the rest of world when nothing else works. Each S&R member attending had the opportunity to download CAL TOPO which is the way base command can track each member in the field. Other things discussed during this session were the use of mobile command, running search checklist, radio operations and radio protocal.

Next was a session on the use of very specialized equipment. Wade Bush, Alex Dunn, Steve Mock, and Evan Helle demonstrated the use of vacu splints, backboards for transporting patients, placing splints and neck braces on patients, and how to handle patients according to injury protocal and etiquette. Once injuries are determined and proper equipment used to stabilize the patient, it must be determined the best means of moving the individual off the mountain to better care. Equipment that might be used for this purpose may include: litters, buggies (4 wheelers, side x sides), E-Mule and/or helicopter. It would be nice to use helicopter every time but it is not feasible. Terrain, weather conditions, and patient location all play a major role in determining the safest, timely, and most appropriate method of moving a patient. Even if weather is good, the closest LZ (landing zone) may be yards or miles away and then other alternatives must be use.

After lunch, there were two scenarios set up for actual hands on experience of what was taught in the morning sessions. One was a UTV role over down a short steep embankment and the other was a motor cycle rider that had wrecked on a single track trail up on the side of the mountain. Two different teams were deployed, one to each incident. Command was set up at the camp. Each team had to determine the possible equipment that may be needed, methods of extricating patients to safety and better care, and the best means of reaching the patient. Upon arrival on the scene an evaluation of area should be made to determine not only patient safety but also the rescue team safety. Then injury assessment is completed and all injuries are addressed by the best possible means. The patient is then loaded on the most appropriate means for transport to better medical care.

After each of the incidents were completed, members gathered together to evaluate how things were handled: what went right, what went wrong and how to improve each team's handling of each scenario. Day 1 came to a conclusion with a wonderful steak dinner with all the trimmings and great conversation around a rather large camp fire.

Day 2 started off with a great breakfast before moving into rope rescue. SAR member Steve Mock was the presenter/instructor for this session. Various pieces of equipment necessary for rope rescues were present and demonstrated. After a very good explanation of the use of said equipment, Steve set up a scenario on a steep bank that sloped to the creek. With a victim at the bottom

The team doesn't only include those going down and up the slope but also includes very technical individuals that are manning the rope pulley system which is actually letting the care team down or bringing them back up the bank.

The weekend was a great success even with the rain that came late Saturday afternoon and into the evening. Thank you to all of the instructors for having outstanding presentations and working scenarios. Thanks to all the members who participated in the great event. The instructors included Beaverhead SAR members: Brad Wagner, Lawrence Morrisroe, Steve Mock, Kolby Malesich, Evan Helle, Alex Dunn, Jamie Trivette, Joe Reyes, and Wade Bush. Other members participating were Clint Rouse, Park Scott, Mel Rice, Tara Remely, Cody Schnee, Ray Gross, Lance Hopman, Adam Norlander, and Tommy Goins.

Besides the members that participated, the Beaverhead Search and Rescue would like to thank the following individuals for helping out with cooking, cleanup, and playing victims; Julie Goins, Sandy Rice, Jan Mock, and Jhett Schnee. Thanks to all for a great couple of days… "In the Business of Saving Lives" your Beaverhead SAR….
