Neal Eugene Bridgewater

Neal Eugene Bridgewater was born on March 26,1951 to Lester and Juanita Bridgewater in Anaconda, Montana and passed away at home on June 9, 2023 in Dillon, Montana.

Although his childhood wasn't easy, he didn't dwell on the bad but loved to tell stories of the "naughty" things he and his brother would do. Like the time his little brother Randy kept him pinned down behind a watering trough by shooting at him with a .22 caliber pistol because Neal tried to boss him around. Apparently, when the bullets ran out, Randy was sorry.

Neal loved all sports but especially boxing, earning numerous boxing trophies in high school. He carried that love late into his adult years. He said he never started a fight but most of the time finished them. He bragged that over the years he straightened his nose out twice.

Neal loved being a "true Montanan" and took pride when someone referred to him as a "good old boy". He knew that good old boys were becoming a thing of the past and - he mourned the loss. Being a man of his word and a loyal friend were two of the most important things to him.

He had many sources of pride including being a Vietnam vet, a skilled hunter and a meticulous carpenter. But his main source of pride were his two children, Abbe and Kasey. He had no problem bragging about their high school achievements and now their adult successes.

Neal loved the outdoors, and although he lived in towns throughout Big Sky Country, his first loves were Dillon and Lima and their surrounding mountains. More importantly, he cherished the friends he made after 30 years of hunting in Southwest Montana. When he retired, he did not hesitate to make his permanent home in Dillon.

Neal is survived by his wife and best friend Becky and beloved best buddy Webster. He leaves his children Abbe (Kody) and Kasey (Tessa), grandchildren Inslee, Alden, Hudson and Carter. He is also survived by his hunting partner and "almost son" Trevor Cherry (Natalie) and their children Neal and Olivia. He leaves sisters Joyce and Patsy, niece Robin and nephew Scott and many friends and hunting partners who will also miss him.

"As I walk through this season of sadness, my heart is thankful that I knew the incredible person you were."

Fish for free over Father's Day weekend Be aware of changing and dangerous water conditions

Escape the summer heat and enjoy a cool adventure over Father's Day weekend, when everyone in Montana can fish for free.

While anyone can fish without a license on June 17-18, all other fishing rules and regulations are in effect and must be followed.

All would-be anglers are encouraged to be aware of boating and water safety on Montana's rivers and streams. With recent heavy rains and snow runoff, many of Montana's rivers and streams are swollen and dangerous.

To view current waterbody restrictions, visit https://fwp.mt.gov/news/current-closures-restrictions/waterbody-closures.

Additionally, those with watercraft of any kind must remember to stop at all AIS inspection stations.

For water and boating safety tips, click on the Recreation tab at fwp.mt.gov and choose your activity.

For more information on AIS, including how to locate your nearest inspection station, visit to www.cleandraindrymt.com

Licenses available for auction include bighorn sheep, Shiras moose and mountain goat. Licenses available for auction or lottery include mule deer and elk.

The Montana Administrative Rules that apply to these licenses include eligibility requirements and can be found at https://rules.mt.gov/gateway/RuleNo.asp?RN=12%2E3%2E801.
