Attorney General Knudsen launches television PSA to combat human trafficking in Montana

Continuing his commitment to end human trafficking in Montana, Attorney General Austin Knudsen launched a new statewide public service announcement to educate Montanans on the issue and how to report it when they suspect they see it.

Featuring Montana Department of Justice officials who are active in the fight against human trafficking, the 30-second spot provides information to Montanans on what to look for and where to report suspected human trafficking. It will run through August 10 on broadcast and cable television across Montana.

Human trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery whereby traffickers, which are often organized criminal enterprises, profit at the expense of adults or children by compelling them to perform labor or engage in commercial sex. It is estimated that human trafficking generates $150 billion worldwide per year.

If you believe you witness human trafficking:

If the situation is an emergency, call 911.

Do not intervene if you see suspected trafficker(s). Remain at a safe distance or in your vehicle.

When possible, take images with your cellular device of the suspected trafficker(s), victim(s), and vehicle license plate(s).

During the 2023 legislative session, Attorney General Knudsen helped write and pass House Bill 112 which increases the penalties for human trafficking and will provides prosecutors with more tools to prosecute human traffickers.

FELDT RETIRES AS FRONTIER CONFERENCE DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

After three decades serving as sports information director for the Frontier Conference, Wally Feldt has announced the 2022-23 season was his last with the league.

The 1973 graduate of Western Montana College has been a fixture in the Treasure State, from his days in radio, his time working for his alma mater and his longstanding tenure with the conference.

"What A Long Strange Trip It's Been, a line from a Grateful Dead song perfectly describes my time in the Frontier," Feldt said. "I still remember getting a call from Bob Green and Sonny Holland. The NAIA was moving from a district format to a conference format and they needed someone to compile statistics for the league. Who would have thought I would still be handling these duties three decades later."

Along with his work for the Frontier Conference, Feldt spent two decades as sports information director at Western. He was honored with the Frontier Conference Distinguished Service Award in 2014, was named Frontier Conference SID of the Year in 2017 and is a 2015 inductee of the Montana Western Hall of Fame.

on Jefferson, Beaverhead and Bitterroot rivers

Fishing closure daily from 2 p.m. to midnight

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is advising anglers that portions of the Sun and lower Madison rivers will close to all fishing daily from 2 p.m. to midnight, beginning Wednesday, July 19. The restrictions will stay in effect until conditions improve.

The hoot-owl restrictions are issued for:

Jefferson River – the entire river, from the Missouri River to the confluence of the Big Hole River and Beaverhead River

Beaverhead River – from the confluence of the Big Hole River to Anderson Lane.

Bitterroot River – from Veteran's Bridge at Hamilton to the confluence of the East and West Forks Bitterroot River

FWP's drought policy provides for angling restrictions when flows drop below critical levels for fish, when water quality is diminished or when maximum daily water temperatures reach at least 73 degrees for three consecutive days. Water temperatures of 77 degrees or more can be lethal to trout. The upper Bitterroot restriction is based on criteria for cutthroat trout, which is temps reach or exceed 66 F for three consecutive days.

Restrictions of this nature are designed to protect fish that become more susceptible to disease and mortality when conditions like this exist. FWP officials said one short-term strategy to address heat-induced stress in Montana's wild trout is to reduce catch-and-release mortality by alerting anglers to fish only in the morning.

Anglers can reduce stress on fish at all times of the year by getting fish to net or hand quickly, keep them in the water, and revive them prior to releasing them back to river.

In addition, anglers can also help reduce stress and mortality for fish by following these practices when catching and releasing fish, though fish mortality may still occur:

- Fish during the coolest times of day, where permitted.
- Keep the fish in water as much as possible.
- Let the fish recover before releasing it.

If high temperatures and extremely low flows persist, anglers may want to consider fishing areas with less stressful temperatures and conditions, such as larger lakes or reservoirs, or higher elevation waterbodies.

AG Knudsen Leads effort supporting Second Amendment

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen led a coalition of 20 state attorneys general in asking the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit to reverse the district court's decision and enjoin an unconstitutional set of laws passed by the Delaware legislature prohibiting the manufacture, purchase, sale, or possession of so-called "assault weapons" – commonly used by law-abiding Americans for self-defense – and large-capacity magazines (LCMs).

The attorneys general filed an amicus brief in support of Delaware State Sportsmen's Association, Inc. in their case against the Delaware Department of Safety and Homeland Security stating that two Delaware bills violate the Second Amendment. House Bill 450 imposes a ban on 44 semi-automatic "assault long guns" – including the AR-15 and more – 19 semi-automatic "assault pistols," and copycat weapons, while Senate Substitute 1 for Senate Bill 6 imposes a ban on magazines capable of accepting or holding more than 17 rounds of ammunition.

"The Second Amendment stands as a reminder to state governments that 'the people' have a 'pre-existing' right to keep and bear arms. And it extends to all 'bearable arms,' including arms carried 'for offensive or defensive action in a case of conflict,'" the brief states.

According to District of Columbia v. Heller and New York State Rifle & Pistol Association, Inc. v. Bruen, the courts must determine whether modern firearm regulations are consistent with the Second Amendment's text and historical understanding, and Delaware fails to show that its so-called "assault weapon" and LCM bans align with this nation's tradition of firearm regulation.

"The Second Amendment guarantees all Americans the right to bear arms for self-defense and other lawful purposes 'subject to certain reasonable, well-defined restrictions,'" the brief states. "No doubt HB 450 and SS 1 were motivated by an understandable concern with the recent rise in mass shooting incidents, but they are inconsistent with this Nation's historical tradition of regulating dangerous and unusual weapons."

Attorneys general from Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Dakota, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wyoming also signed on in support.

Attorney General Knudsen has been actively fighting the targeting of the firearms industry and Montanans' gun rights. He asked major shipping companies to clarify their gun-purchase tracking policies and called on YouTube to stop censoring firearm-related speech. He also filed a lawsuit against the Biden administration's unlawful pistol brace rule.

Veteran's Corner #212

By Mike Lawson

Greeting to those of you who read my SW MT Veteran update articles. Veteran Update News:

• Governor Greg Gianforte was in town, a week ago Wednesday, and had a whirlwind of events he participated in. On the Veteran side of things he was able to meet with the SW MT Veteran's Home Board to answer questions of concern they had. These concerns were getting Cottage #6 funded/built and the concern of the delay of getting a Liaison hired for this, our Veteran's Home facility. I also talked with him when he presented the Veteran Commendation Metals to our two VFW members. He said he will find a way to get Cottage #6 funded and built, as well as look into the hiring of a SW MT Veteran Home Liaison. He seemed straight forward in addressing these issues, which is encouraging. Time will tell.

• The DAV Vans I wrote about in last weeks column, that were for sale, has seen the newer one purchased by the SW MT Veteran's Home Foundation. They will donate it to our Veteran's Home. The Veteran's Home staff are excited, as it will allow them to take more Resident Veterans to activities and events. On the DAV side, it is also exciting, as it will help with the purchase of another DAV Van. Hopefully we will be able to sell the 2009 ($10,200) F350 Van, that is left.

• Marine Corps League Det. #724, again, served and sold their annual fundraising breakfast to the Folk Festival campers at McGruff Park. McGruff Park was loaded with both tent and RV campers. We enjoyed feeding those that came for breakfast and when visiting with them, finding out where they came from. A lot of these folks came from Bozeman and Missoula, but from other places in the state and out of state as well. A lot of them had either came to the Folk Festival in past years and plan on continuing to attend in future years. The first timers were quick to point out that they would come again. They all expressed how well they like Butte and coming here for this event, makes it very special visit. It does make those of us who live in Butte, proud to be citizens of this city we love. After hearing these comments, it justifies those feelings. We are good/friendly hosts and that, in itself, helps keep people coming back to our historic "City Of Butte".
