LINDA RUTH DAVIS JANUARY 14, 1952 – JULY 16, 2023

Linda was the daughter of Guy and Thelma Morgan. She was preceded in death by her husband, Glen Davis and most of her family. She is survived by her sister, Vicky Ford, nephew James Rowe, nieces Holly Eustis, Genevive, Stacy, Cassie and Nina Owens; as well as several nieces and nephews.

She was known as a good christian and had very proper behavior. Yet in school she would skip school to go to the library to read. Linda absolutely loved to read and passed that love on to her sister. She was the phone call you would make on talk shows for history answers. Especially if it was about royalty. She could positively knock out a granny square in a heartbeat. Tried to teach her sister only to hand her a book... Crochet Made Easy. Her home always had music, beginning with her extensive record collection. When she wasn't home, she could be found driving her car. She loved to travel. Road trips were important. On one of these great trips, she was pulled over and asked if she knew she was speeding. Her 6-year-old niece, Holly, replied, "yes, she always drives fast." She also told the officer she was pretty... Linda still got the ticket. This was one of her favorite stories to tell people.

She accompanied her husband to Germany. While he was on base, she drove all over. Even ended up going to France. When asked what her favorite part was, she said the autobahn, because she could drive as fast as she wanted! She taught her sister to drive just like her.

Linda never asked anyone for anything, but constantly put herself out there to help others. On many occasions she would rescue her little sister from bad choices. Involving road trips to California and Washington.

Her first major stroke robbed her of her sight. Therefore, in one major event, she lost her reading, driving and her independence. She had to depend on others for assistance. Her husband was a great support and then their niece, Alice Gilbert stepped in, and it was such a tremendous comfort for both.

The world is a darker place without them in it.

Parking Lot Closure

The City of Dillon is asking that everyone refrain from parking in the "Carpita" Parking Lot starting Monday, July 24th while the City of Dillon lays down millings. For those of you who don't know, that is the large dirt parking lot on Montana Street across the street from Womack's Printing, Hair Care Unlimited, China Garden, Verizon, Atomic 79, etc.

Local Veterans Receive Governor's Veterans Commendation Awards

On July 12, Governor Greg Gianforte, presented 3 local veterans with his Governor's Veterans Commendation Award.

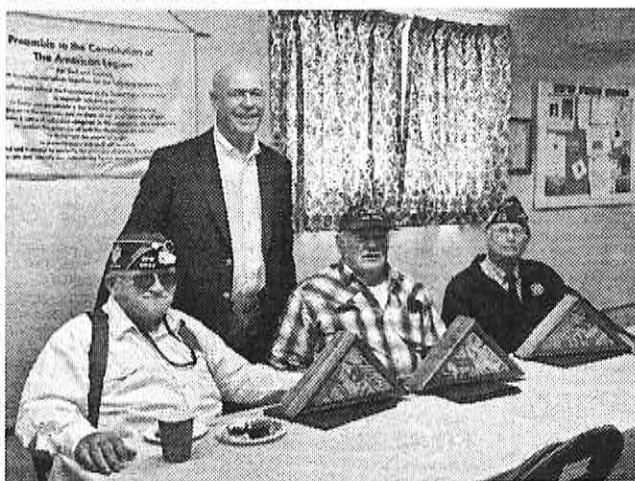

Dick Jackson, a veteran of the "Brown Water Navy" in Viet Nam, was recognized for his service to local veteran's organizations for over 50 years in various leadership roles during that time period. He was also recognized for his service to the Dillon community by assisting with the Medical Equipment Loan Program run by American Legion Post #20 in Dillon. Dick was not able to attend the ceremony because of prior medical appointments, so his brother, John, also a veteran from the Viet Nam era accepted the award for him.

Chuck Thompson, served as an Air Force commando in Viet Nam. Chuck promotes patriotism in the local area by leading the Wisdom 4th of July parade, and promoting proper respect and etiquette for the flag around the community and throughout the year. He also presents VFW awards at the Dillon Middle School, Beaverhead County High School, and the Montana Youth Challenge Academy.

Bob Bump was an Army infantryman in Viet Nam receiving numerous awards for heroism, including a purple heart, during his time in SE Asia. His service to the Dillon community includes helping run the local "Wood Bank" which provides fire wood to needy veterans and other community members in the area. He also acts as the armorer, maintaining ceremonial rifles used by the military honor guard at veteran's funerals.

The Governor thanked each of these veterans for their service to the country and for their continued service to the Dillon community.

FWP to fill vacancies on Wetland Protection Advisory Council

If you're interested in migratory game birds, wetland habitat or waterfowl hunting, you may have an interest in serving on Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Wetland Protection Advisory Council (WPAC).

The WPAC is responsible for oversight of FWP's Migratory Bird Wetland Program, which is tasked with the protection, conservation and development of wetlands in Montana. Funding for the program comes from the sale of state migratory game bird hunting licenses. The WPAC advises FWP on strategies for wetland conservation and reviews each project proposal that is submitted to the program. WPAC members will evaluate the merits of the proposals and advise FWP on whether to proceed with funding. WPAC members will represent each of the seven FWP administrative regions and must include Montanans who are migratory game bird hunters, non-consumptive users of wildlife and in the agricultural industry.

Council members will be appointed by FWP Director Dustin Temple and will participate in up to two meetings a year. Term lengths are six years, but since all seven positions are open, this selection will stagger term-lengths of four- and six-year commitments.

During the 2023 Legislature, House Bill 290 made some changes to the council, including increasing the number of members from five to seven and initiating staggered term limits of up to six years.

To apply, visit the WPAC webpage. Paper applications are available upon request by calling 406-230-1839.

Applications must be submitted by Aug. 6. The next council meeting will be held in Helena on Oct. 5.

For more information, call Heather Harris at 406-230-1839, or send an email to heharris@mt.gov.
