Anthony Wall

2002 - 2023

Anthony Curtis Wall, the son of Anthony and Phyllis Wall of Belt, Mt, passed away in his sleep on July 23, 2023 in Dillon, Mt.

He had many interests and passions, but foremost was his desire to be a firefighter. This desire started in high school where he was a junior firefighter with the Belt Volunteer Fire Department and continued through his college days where he earned an Associate Degree in Business.

Anthony was stubborn at times, but he also had an enormous heart and wonderful, if somewhat sarcastic, sense of humor. Anthony never had the chance to embrace all the wonders of life, but those he did, he did with the enthusiasm of youth.

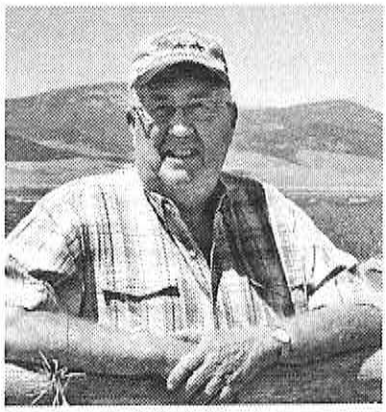
He is survived by his quite large immediate family, his mom & dad, his G'ma, 18 brothers and sisters, and he will be missed by them and the larger family that his young life touched.

Anthony was a fighter, but his fight is over and he is now traveling to lands that we can't see, joining his grandfather, and preparing the path that one day we too must follow. WE know that he is free from pain and is walking peacefully with the Lord.

Thank you to everyone for your thoughts and prayers for Anthony and his extended family. If you would like you can make a donation to the American Diabetes Association in his name.

A celebration of Life will be held at Belt High School, Date to be determined, Check Facebook.

James Laurence (Larry) Jordan



James Laurence (Larry) Jordan, was born September 16, 1936 and passed away July 24, 2023 at the age of 86.

Larry was born in Meeker Colorado in a log cabin to Raymond (Ray) and Ethal Jordan. He was the first of four children. He lived on the family ranch on Morapos. For the first three years of his education, Larry would ride five miles, one way, on horseback, to the Morapos School. During the winter his dad would take him to school on the horse-drawn sleigh. Sometimes when the winter weather was cold and stormy, Larry would stay with the teacher until his dad could come and get him. During the summers, Larry would stay on the ranch and help his Grandmother Ruth Jordan.

By the time Larry was entering fourth grade, his parents moved to Hamilton, Colorado so his dad could work in the oil fields. He attended fourth through eighth grade at the Hamilton School. He was the only student in his class. Upon completion of his elementary program at a country school, Larry proceeded to high school in the big town of Craig. This was quite the culture shock for Larry who preferred to saddle a horse and ride from sunrise to sunset returning by the light of the moon.

During his high school years, Larry participated in football and track. He brought home many ribbons for the mile run and high hurdles.

After graduation Larry worked for the Rio Blanco Guest Ranch. He met many interesting people from the East coast to the West coast while taking them on pack trips into the Flattop Wilderness.

After four years at the guest ranch, Larry's childhood dream to work in the forest became a reality. His expert horseback riding and mule train packing skills were noticed by the Forest Service and he was asked to go to work for the White River National Forest Service. Initially, he was their Head Packer. He would carry supplies into the wilderness on horseback with a pack string of horses and mules where he would help with trail work. This continued for two years at which time, the Forest Service decided Larry should become a Forester. He attended Forestry School in Durango, Colorado. Upon completion of his education, Larry, scaled logs and laid out timber for sales in the Routt National Forest. Early on in his career, he quickly learned how to identify the species of tree, its age, defects, and volume of board feet on a logging truck.

In 1963, he married Linda Loudy of Craig, Colorado. On March 26, they eloped to Fort Collins, Colorado. Larry and Linda resided in Craig where they began their family. In 1964 their first daughter, Laurinda was born. Daughter, Edwina followed in 1967 and son, Bruce rounded out the family in 1969.

In 1974, Larry moved his family to Kalispell, Montana where he continued his career with the Forest Service.

Five years later in 1979, Larry transferred to the Bureau of Land Management and moved his family to Dillon, Montana.

In the fall of 2001, after 38 years for the Federal Government, Larry retired. During his career Larry had many memorable experiences. He covered a great deal of territory seeing all kinds of wildlife and beautiful landscapes.

One of the responsibilities given to Larry during his time at the BLM was the construction of the Continental Divide Trail between Montana and Idaho. Larry, worked with the work crews for seven years toward the completion of the sixty-mile portion of the Red Rock Pass/Centennial Mountain segment of the Continental Divide Trail. This was some of his proudest work. Larry spoke of it often and his face would light up when he told stories about this job.

Larry always carried a camera with him. This started at a very young age. After retirement, he decided to take his hobby to a new level and begin a career as a photographer. His first job was photographing the contestants at the Equestrian Jumping Horse show in 2004. He continued as a photographer for many years with Linda at his side.

Larry was a member of the Montana Back Country Horsemen and enjoyed many wonderful rides with his fellow members.

Larry was an avid hunter and Denver Broncos fan. Fall was his favorite season because he could go hunting for a big bull elk and watch the Broncos. When Larry wasn't hunting or watching football you could find him riding his horses, fishing or irrigating his twenty acres of hay.

Every Fall, you could find Larry and Linda in one of their most loved places, Yellowstone National Park. Larry loved to take photos in Yellowstone especially of the elk. He could never get enough photos of them. He thought they were the most amazing creature created.

Larry was a kind man with a huge smile and great sense of humor. He loved life and his family and will be greatly missed.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents, Ray and Ethal Jordan, sisters; Peggy Bailey, Mary Ryan and Donna McAnnany. Two nephews, Michael Bailey and Eric McAnnany

He is survived by his wife, Linda, daughter Laurinda Stokke (Jade), daughter Edwina Jordan, and son Bruce Jordan. Grandchildren; Ashlie Kalawaia (Kimo), Teron Stokke, Trevor Atcheson, Trinda Atcheson, and Liam Ferriter. Great grandchildren; Joey, Moana, Ulla-Pelle, Tristan, Darla, Hayden and Mikey. Brother-in-law, Bill Loudy(JoAnn) and their 3 daughters and niece Kathy Bailey White.

Graveside services will held Monday, July 31, 2023 at the Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon, Montana.

More events coming up at state parks in SW Montana

Several events have been scheduled at Missouri Headwaters and Lewis & Clark Caverns state parks.

There is no cost to Montana residents to attend these programs. An $8 entrance fee applies at Montana state parks for all nonresident vehicles.

Missouri Headwaters State Park

Missouri Headwaters State Park will host a program on Saturday, July 29, entitled, "Goat Packing 101." This program will begin at 7 p.m. behind the park office.

In this presentation, guests will learn the basics of what it takes to use goats in the backcountry, including the breeds that work best for goat packing, raising a goat to be a packer, pasture setup, nutrition, training, equipment and more. Guests will also be able to meet pack goats during the presentation, which will be given by Trish and Tyler Gilliam of Hoof It! LLC. Trish and Tyler share a long history of hiking and backpacking adventures, including with pack goats.

Visitors are encouraged to bring their own chair and bug spray. S'mores will be served afterward.

Missouri Headwaters State Park is about 5 miles northeast of Three Forks on Trident Road. For more information about the park, please visit fwp.mt.gov/stateparks/missouri-headwaters or call 406-285-3610.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park has more fun interpretive programs planned in August that highlight the wildlife, night skies and more from Montana's first state park.

Each of these programs will begin at the campground amphitheater. Join park ranger Ramona Radonich for the following:

- 5 at 8 p.m.: "Goodness Snakes Alive!": Learn about the prairie rattlesnake native to the park's ecosystem and how to stay safe in rattlesnake country.
- 12 at 8 p.m.: "Night Skies at Lewis & Clark Caverns": Stories behind the stars and constellations of Montana's night sky.
- 19 at 7:30 p.m.: "Three Dog Night": A tribute to three cool canines—wolves, coyotes and foxes.
- 26 at 7:30 p.m.: Ranger's choice: This program will be announced at the time of the event.

In the event of adverse weather, these programs will move to a sheltered area. Notification of a change in location due to weather will be posted on the signboard at the amphitheater entrance 30 minutes before the program starts.

Lewis & Clark Caverns State Park is about 15 miles southeast of Whitehall, along Montana Highway 2. For more information about the park, please visit stateparks.mt.gov/lewis-and-clark-caverns or call 406-287-3541.

Montana Western Football Picked to Finish Fourth in Frontier Preseason Polls

In a preseason poll of Frontier Conference football coaches, the Montana Western football team was picked to finish fourth for the 2023 season.

The Bulldogs finished up the 2022 season going 7-4 on the season and a perfect 4-0 on the last four games. After battling through a few tough losses in a row in the middle of the season, UMW finished the season on a high note. Of the final four wins, two of them were against nationally ranked teams.

Regular season co-champion College of Idaho is the preseason favorite to win the 2023 Frontier Conference football championship.

Montana Tech is second in the poll followed by conference co-champion and conference representative in the NAIA playoffs Carroll College.

Montana Western is fourth followed by Rocky Mountain College, conference newcomer Arizona Christian, Southern Oregon, Eastern Oregon and MSU-Northern.

Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own teams. First place was worth eight points, second place worth seven points, third place worth six points, fourth place worth five points, fifth place worth four points, sixth place worth three points, seventh place worth two points and eighth place, one point.

College of Idaho (5) 57 points
Montana Tech (3) 53 points
Carroll College (1) 48 points
Montana Western 46 points
Rocky Mountain College 40 points
Arizona Christian 31 points
Southern Oregon 21 points
Eastern Oregon 18 points
MSU-Northern 8 points
