John Hanners Memorial

A memorial and honor service for John Hanners will be held on August 15th at the Dillon Cemetary at 10:30 am. All are welcome. Please come share a story about John.

Kathy Jean (Nelson) Johnson

Kathy Jean (Nelson) Johnson was born June 21, 1947 in Dillon, Montana to Jay F. and Jean Renz Nelson. She departed this life in the comfort of her home on August 4, 2023 after a lengthy medical battle. She was the 4th of 6 children (Jenny, Ruthie, Sherry, Mary and Bob) and grew up in Jackson, Montana, where she spent her days helping on her grandparents ranch, playing with kittens, camping and horseback riding in the beautiful surrounding mountains of the Big Hole Valley. She joined the United States Marine Corps shortly after graduating from Beaverhead County High School, where she attended Basic Training in Parris Island, South Carolina, then was stationed at Camp Pendleton in Oceanside, Ca. There she met another Marine, John D. Johnson (J.D.) who she married after his return from his third deployment during the Vietnam War. They wed in California on September 26, 1969 and returned to Montana briefly before making their home in Pineville, Mo.

During their 53 years of marriage, J.D. and Kathy raised 3 children on their farm outside of Pineville; daughter, Connie Roark (husband Jody) of Neosho, Mo.; son Stephen Johnson (wife Anner) of Pineville, Mo. and daughter Stacy Parks (husband, David) of Stella, Mo. They were additionally blessed with 8 grandchildren, Jocelyn Roark, Mary Kate Roark, Conner Roark, Amanda Johnson, John Johnson, Bryan Parks, Brandon Parks, Brett Parks and one great grand daughter, Kaitlynn Johnson. Kathy's greatest joy came from spending time with all of her family. She enjoyed crocheting, quilting, reading woodworking and traveling.

After the birth of her children, Kathy attended Crowder College and MSSU receiving her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education. While teaching at the McDonald County School District, she went on to earn her Master's Degree and Reading Specialist. She spent the majority of her 24 years of teaching working with elementary students with disabilities. In the midst of her teaching career, Kathy experienced a serious illness resulting in the need for a liver transplant. She and her family were blessed to receive this donation on August 1997 allowing her to return to her loving family and the job she found so rewarding. She continued to teach an additional 10 years before further health concerns resulting in her choosing to retire in 2007. Side effects from her liver transplant resulted in additional serious medical complications which led to a kidney transplant in 2014. Kathy's family want to thank the amazing team of doctors, nurses, and therapists who were so instrumental in her care over the past quarter century so that wood, Bob later built many ranch shops, a roping barn, hay derricks, and his own home. He became a master at welding and iron work and built everything from a forklift (named Bullwinkle), to trailers, and roller tables for the sawmill. He particularly enjoyed restoring cars and tractors and his collection included two Models Ts, a Model A, 1957 Ford Fairlane, 1965 Mustang, and several tractors. Bob's collection made up a considerable part of the Wisdom 4th of July Parade each year, and it took much of his extended family to drive them all. And his Farmall International W-9 tractor won the 2017 tractor pull in Deer Lodge. He was the guy to call for mechanic and restoration work and he brought many old trucks, cars and tractors back to life for people around the valley. And if he couldn't find the needed part, he would just build it!

Bob graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1956 and immediately went to work for Helming Brothers gas station. Upon the return of his older brother, John, from the Army, they briefly tried the mink farming business. The Big Hole winters were too cold for the baby mink, and they quickly sold this business. Their next venture proved to be quite successful, and starting in 1963 they operated Wilke Brothers Sawmill for over 30 years. While John operated the sawmill, Bob cut and hauled logs. He logged all over the valley, including hauling over 100 loads for the Steel Fox road right-of-way. After they closed the sawmill in 1993, Bob and John continued to log together.

Bob was known to enjoy anything in the outdoors. He was an avid hunter and fisherman. He made many trips to Alaska fishing and proudly displayed his wall-mounted, fifty pound King Salmon. He loved snowmobiling all the mountains around the valley and even did some cross-country snowmobile racing in his younger years. He was an excellent marksman and competed for about eight years in silhouette shooting. Known as the "Boys from the Big Hole", Bob and brother, John, were tough to beat and brought home many trophies together from local, state and regional shooting competitions. They also exhibited their engineering skills with various versions of the SS Big Hole, their homemade rafts that won the Big Hole Raft Races all five years they competed. Bob rarely sat still, was always 'out in the shop' fixing things, building things or on a ride on his motorbike, snowmobile or side-by-side. He was a beloved husband, father, grandpa, uncle and a friend to many who will miss his smile and laugh.

Bob is survived by his daughter, Lori, and two grandchildren,

Bechler Meadows Memory

Bryce Angell

August and September reminds me of when I was a teen. We'd be loading horses tight without a smidgen in between.

The horses filled our 69 cornbinder to the gills, while roaring with each shift of gears and heading for the hills.

Bechler Meadows campground in the hills of Yellowstone is where we'd set up camp and for a week we'd be alone.

We saddled well broke geldings for the fishermen to ride. Pack horses carried gear in canvas bags hung from their side.

Dad would ride old Shortcut as the lead to set the pace. We'd be scattered hell to breakfast if a horse should break to race.

I'd be riding Stretch, and always bringing up the rear, while leading three pack horses with the fish and camping gear.

We'd cross the Bechler River then our campsite came to view. There weren't a soul for miles. 'Twas a campers' dream come true.

The cook tent wasn't spacious, but was large enough to fit a wood stove and the campsite table big enough for six.

The horses would be grazing on their Bechler Meadows food. While the cook tent would be wafting smells to get you in the mood.

That night around the table we'd have steak and spuds to eat, with homemade butter slathered on the hand picked corn so sweet.

The men all played Gin Rummy and while adding up the points would share Kentucky Bourbon just to "loosen up their joints."

We'd talk about the River, how their fishing trip came true. I'd warn about the bear sign that we'd seen while packing through.

The risk of seeing grizzlies wouldn't keep the men away. I could see excitement in their eyes. Then off to hit the hay.

I'd make a final check on horses' halters tied up tight. And pray that not a hungry bear would visit in the night.

An old bull elk would sound his bugle. Others chimed on in. They'd bugle into daylight making sleep a might too thin.

I'd stoke the stove with split pinewood. Then hit the Coleman light. And try to sleep while listening to the Bechler Meadows night.

"What makes us unique is that patients can come into the clinic to be seen, or we can make arrangements with employers to bring our mobile medical dental unit to the work place to see their employees. We also travel the area to let agricultural workers know about our services. Interested people need to register with the clinic, by coming to the clinic or they can call during regular business hours, (406) 683-5570 or 1-800-813-4492, outside the area. Stephens says the clinic accepts Medicaid, private insurance and anyone unable to pay for services is not turned away. Although the clinic is not free, charges for clinic services are according to where a person's income falls on a sliding fee scale.

"Our philosophy is that we help keep people healthy through regular clinic visits, rather than just seeing people when they are ill." Stephens said their clinic works with other health care providers in the community by referring to those they have contracts for payment with, for eligible services they do not directly provide. "Anyone who does agricultural work needs to contact us to see if they are eligible for these highly valuable services", Stephens said. Stephens said their clinic has received national awards for the provision of quality health care.

Eagle Scout Project Upgrades Welcome To Dillon Signs

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The coveted rank of Eagle Scout was obtained yesterday as Ryleigh Plovanic finished up his Eagle Scout project by rejuvenating the Dillon Beaver signs you see as you come into town.

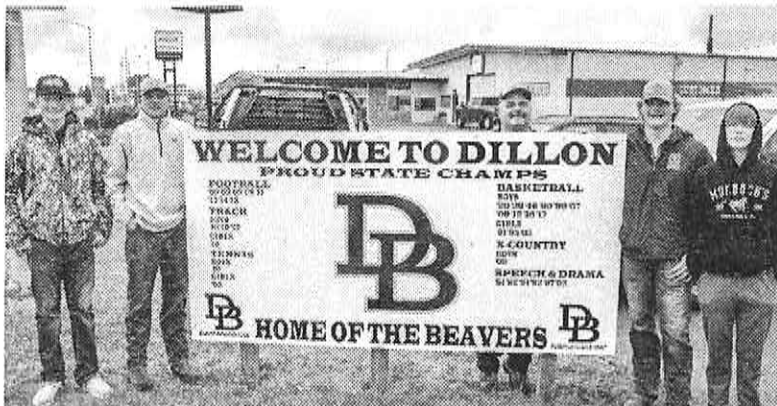

Ryleigh placed signs on each entrance of town that have the Welcome to Dillon Home of the Beavers. The new signs include the years the Beavers have claimed state titles in sports and other activities.

Ryleigh raised the funds for these signs by hosting a bingo night and silent auction at the Elks lodge. Big Time Sportswear and Design helped contribute to the design of the sign and sold the materials at their cost. The Beaver Booster Club also contributed to the sign.

Another feature of the new signs is that they have space for future state titles, and as Ryleigh said it would be nice to place this year's title on the sign for Beaver Football.

Ryleigh is a senior. He's a lineman on the football team, throws disc in track and is also the president of the Beaverhead FFA chapter. He works at Papa Ts and 2H outdoors outfitting. He was the youth course director of this year's National Youth Leadership Training course for scouts.

We are excited for Ryleigh and cannot wait to hear about his future endeavors.
