WORD OF PASSING

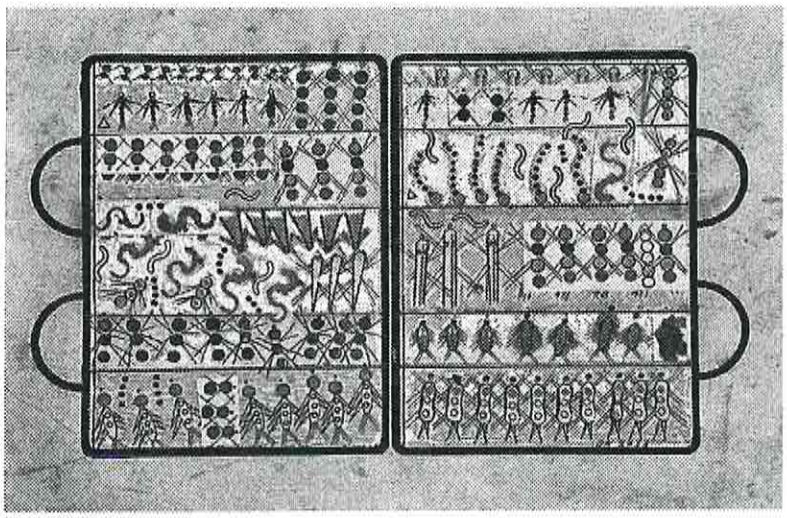

Word has been received of the unexpected death of Fred L. Throckmorton, formerly of Dillon, on August 21, 2023 in North Carolina.

Montana Western Presents "David Korty: Work on Paper"

The University of Montana Western Fine Arts Gallery is proud to present "Work on Paper" by renowned artist David Korty. The gallery will host an opening reception on Friday, September 8, 2023 from 6:00-8:00 p.m. in the Fine Arts Gallery located in Main Hall.

In this new group of works on paper, the artist has chosen his own experience as an avid fly tyer and fisherman as a springboard from which to draw and paint. Although the subject of fishing in art has a long and well-trodden history, Korty approaches the subject from an unorthodox angle. The image of a fisherman's box of flies is translated into something close to a hieroglyphic field of marks. Some resembling actual flies and others reduced to small geometric notations that seem to interact according to their own pattern of logic. Like an abacus of miniature "bric-a-brac," each rectangular box becomes a container for stored information. Whether it's a form of anglers Morse Code or something far more esoteric, these paintings highlight the magic and alchemy that can be found both on rivers and in the artist's studio.

David Korty was born in San Francisco in 1971 and has been living and working as an artist in Los Angeles since 1996. Korty's work has been shown extensively in Los Angeles, in solo exhibitions at Night Gallery, China Art Objects, Kohn Gallery and LAXART; at Derek Eller Gallery and Greene Naftali in New York; and at Sadie Coles HQ in London. Korty's work has been acquired by the Hammer Museum, Los Angeles; the Grunwald Center for Graphic Arts, Los Angeles; the Judith Rothschild Foundation; and the Rubell Collection.

His work has been covered in Artforum, The New York Times, The Guardian, and Modern Painters, among other publications. A monograph of Korty's work entitled Blue Shelves was published by Sadie Coles and Night Gallery in 2016. In 2020, he was awarded the Frederick Hammersely Visiting Artist residency at the University of New Mexico.

The reception is free for all to attend and will feature light refreshments and live music by the Stake Pullers. The "Work on Paper" exhibition will be open for viewing from September 8 to October 20, 2023. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

"I am excited to open the academic year with this stunning exhibition by artist David Korty. It is my hope that this exhibition resonates strongly with Southwest Montana," said Montana Western Fine Arts Gallery Coordinator and Adjunct Instructor, Jennifer Boysen. "Being able to connect with the campus and community in this new role and organizing a variety of events at the gallery this year will provide something for everyone to experience and enjoy."

Governor proclaims Sept. Bear Aware Month

As grizzly bear populations and distribution increase across Montana, it's more important than ever to be bear aware. Currently, grizzly bears can be found in all of Montana west of Billings. To encourage residents and nonresidents to be vigilant about the presence of bears, Gov. Greg Gianforte proclaimed September as Bear Aware Month, and Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will host several education events and opportunities that will feature fun activities, prizes and giveaways, such as stickers and can koozies.

For more details about these and other events and activities, visit fwp.mt.gov/bear-aware.

`Grizzly bear numbers continue to increase, and grizzlies are becoming more widespread in Montana, increasing the likelihood that residents and recreationists will encounter them in more places each year.

Angler kills grizzly bear in self-defense encounter

An angler killed a grizzly bear in self-defense this week in the Tom Miner Basin.

The encounter happened on Aug. 30 on private land along Tom Miner Creek. Two anglers were walking through dense vegetation when they were charged by a grizzly bear. One of the anglers shot and killed the bear. No people were injured.

The bear's behavior was likely defensive in the surprise, close encounter. The bear was an adult male grizzly. This incident is still under investigation.

Meeting Canceled

The September 5, 2023 Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) meeting has been Canceled. We are tentatively scheduled to have the next meeting on October 2, 2023. I hope you all have a safe and fun Labor Day weekend!

First Responder Trauma was our focus for the month of August. We held a First Responder Trauma Dinner & it was very well attended. Over 80 First Responders from Dispatch & Detention, EMS, Fire, Sheriff's Office, Police Department and Search & Rescue. This was sponsored by High Peaks Federal Credit Union, Stockman Bank, Bank of Commerce, Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan, UMW Foundation & Dillon Jaycees. We would like to thank the sponsors as well as all the First Responders for making this important issue a priority.

Construction Look Ahead:

Construction activities will pause for the Labor Day holiday weekend and resume on Tuesday, September 5. Beginning September 5, the Montana Department of Transportation (MDT) and Helena Sand and Gravel will be sweeping Helena Avenue and Atlantic Avenue in downtown Dillon. Permanent markings will be placed immediately afterwards.
