Listen to Mother Nature

Bryce Angell

The summer night slipped by too fast, while in my sleeping bag.

My brand new Teton Bridger gives me sleeping rights to brag.
'Cuz there ain't no holes in my new bag to let the heat escape.

And I threw away the well used roll of camouflage duct tape.
When Mother Nature makes her call, I'd say more like a shout.

My bed is so dang comfy I just cannot climb on out.
My bladder feels like it could be just half way full at best.

So I'll stay here in my nice warm bag and bask in eye shut rest.
But then I hear my father holler, "Get up sleepy head and kick off all your covers, son, people die in bed."

I heard him yell a thousand times how people die in bed.

Dad's been gone about a year, but the phrase sticks in my head.
The heavenly smell of bacon means a biscuit's on the rise.

Soon Old Mose will bless us with his cheese potato prize.
"Get out of those bags," he hollers, "If you wanna eat this mornin'.

It's 4 a.m. The clock's a tickin'. This is your only warnin'."
I shake the night off from my clothes and head for noise and chatter.

But then I'm stopped dead in my tracks.

I need to flatten my bladder.

Yet Mose ain't one for waiting on a cowboy who's too slow.

He'll dump your food and say, "This ain't the Marriott, ya know."
So, I slipped into the cook tent with a bladder full and weak.

I swear I heard my bladder say, "We're about to spring a leak"
That's when I felt a trickle moving down my hairy leg.

I cried goodbye to breakfast and my salsa covered egg.

I went from walk to running, busted through the open flap.

And now I missed my breakfast, gonna be a hungry sap.

I shuffled back to my own tent and there before my eyes,

Old Mose was handing me a plate of cheese potato prize.

That day I learned two lessons. Old Mose had a heart of gold.

And Mother Nature knows what's best so heed what you've been told.

Now no more lazy loafer. I will spring right out of bed when Mother Nature makes her call. Then off to getting fed.

Attorney General Knudsen leads coalition against government-induced social media censorship

Montana Attorney General Austin Knudsen led a coalition of nine attorneys general in asking the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) to take up the social-media censorship case of O'Handley v. Weber and protect Americans' right to free speech.

The attorneys general filed a brief in support of Rogan O'Handley, a political commentator who was censored on Twitter for tweets regarding the 2020 election. The California SOS's Office of Election Cybersecurity colluded with the social media giant to censor O'Handley for speech it deemed to be "misinformation." O'Handley has asked SCOTUS to review the case and reverse the U.S. Court of Appeals for Ninth Circuit's decision.

Bulldogs Go 2-0 in Final Day of VCSU Tournament, Remain Undefeated on Season

The Bulldogs were back in action as they took on Dickinson State (N.D.) and the University of Winnipeg (MB) in Valley City, N.D. The Bulldogs were able to remain undefeated as they downed both opponents, finishing off the University of Winnipeg (MB) in a five-set match.

How It Happened vs. Dickinson State (N.D.)

UMW took control of the game early on in the first set, jumping to a quick 11-3 lead. The Bulldogs continued to keep their foot on the pedal through the entire set, racking up a combined 14 kills.

The Bulldogs continued to show their might in the second set, grabbing an 11-2 lead behind the powerful Bulldog front that posted seven early kills. The Blue Hawks worked to climb back into the game at 18-15. Martin answered with a kill that sparked a 5-0 UMW run. A solo block from Peyton Vogl ended the set 25-16. UMW posted just two hitting errors in the entire set.

In similar fashion to the first two sets, the Bulldogs continued to overpower Dickinson State (N.D.). Rylee Nickodemus and Taylor Petersen each posted aces early in the set and UMW took a 12-4 lead. Consecutive kills from Smith boosted UMW to a lead of 18-10. The Bulldogs would go on to outscore DSU 7-2 down the stretch and finish the set on top at 25-12.

How It Happened vs. University of Winnipeg (MB)

After a combined block from Vogl and Kaitlyn Van Well, the Bulldogs took a 12-7 lead in the first frame. The Wesmen made a push that brought the game within four at 18-13, but the Bulldogs capitalized on a serving error paired with a kill from KayLee Kopp. UMW took the first set 25-17.

Despite the hot UMW start in the second frame, the Wesmen were able to grab their first lead. Jordan Olson led the Bulldogs back with a quick 4-0 run, but the Wesmen continued to add to their lead. Winnipeg went on to win the set 25-13 after UMW struggled behind nine hitting errors.

The Bulldogs held the edge over the Wesmen for much of the third set. Despite the 22-19 lead, UMW allowed Winnipeg to get back in the game as they went on a 6-0 run to top UMW 25-22.

Down two sets to one, the Bulldogs came back out with a vengeance. UMW claimed a 5-1 lead at the jump. Winnipeg fought back into the game, but a kill from Martin helped keep the Bulldogs on top at 11-8. Kills by UMW kept the team in front. UMW held off the Wesmen's comeback attempts for a set four victory at 25-19. The Bulldogs' win in the fourth set was the momentum builder for a strong start in the final frame. UMW jumped ahead 6-1 on the Wesmen to stay in the driver seat. An ace from Morgyn Harrison paired with kills from Van Well and Olson finalized the Bulldog victory at 15-4.

Thursday, we will have Shepherds pie served with dinner rolls. And on Friday, we will enjoy French bread pizza served with salad.

Sixth-grade volleyball begins after school. Players will change out in the DMS gym locker rooms and travel with their coach to the Parkview lunchroom for practice. Students should be bringing home a schedule.

This week in cross-country, the team will travel to Anaconda on Tuesday. The bus leaves at 11:30 AM and the meet starts at 1:00 PM. Then on Friday, the team travels to Butte East. Again, the bus leaves at 11:30 AM and the cross-country meet begins at 1:00 PM.

In football, the teams will be at home on Tuesday, September 12th. Both Butte East and Anaconda will be attending a scrimmage. Seventh grade will play Butte East and eighth grade will play Anaconda. Both scrimmages will begin at 4:00 p.m. on the field behind the school.

In volleyball this week, the teams will travel to Butte East on Thursday, September 14th. The bus leaves at 2:15 p.m. The "B" teams will play at 4:00 PM followed by the "A" teams at 5:00 PM.

Student council is beginning. If you are a seventh grader who wants to run for vice president or an eighth grader who wants to run for president, please sign up in the office by the end of today. Campaigning and voting will begin soon.

Students, we are off to a great start for our year. If you have not completed our online forms with your parents, please do so immediately. These forms are your internet access form, your student handbook acknowledgment form, your medical form, and your student activities form. If you have any questions about this, please contact the DMS office.

Also, please make sure you fill out your free and reduced lunch forms and put money in your lunch account. Your green fee sheet is also due to the office. Again, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the office.

LISTED & HOSTED BY: HOLLY HANSEN, REALTOR®

(C) 406.925.1185 | (O) 406.865.4596

Planning is well underway for another terrific Beaverhead County HSIJH Rodeo Team annual rodeo this fall.

We are scheduled for September 22nd-24th, 2023 at the Beaverhead County Fairgrounds.

We are targeting to have over 150 junior high and high school youth competing in barrel racing, pole bending, tie-down and team roping, steer wrestling, rough stock events and more.

In addition to the rodeo events, there is a shooting sports competition Friday, September 22nd at 1:00 pm at the Dillon Trap Club & Rifle Range where junior high and high school students compete in light rifle and trap shooting competitions.

Again, this year, we are also hosting a breakaway roping jackpot for our junior high and high school athletes Friday, September 22nd at 7:00 pm at the Fairgrounds.

We are so appreciative of the support the community provides to the Beaverhead County HSIJH Rodeo Team and would not be able to host one of the largest attended MHSRA events in the state without it. With over 150 contestants and their families from all over Montana expected to attend, it will be a great opportunity to promote your business and be recognized throughout the weekend and afterwards. We are still looking for some sponsors for this great annual event. If you are interested in sponsoring or learning more about the weekend, please contact Stacy Setzer by texting or calling at (406) 570-2739.
