Harrison "Jack" Howard

April 24, 1934 – September 21, 2023

Jack Howard passed away on September 21, 2023. Jack was born in Sidney Montana to Ray and Esther Howard. He graduated from Beaverhead County High School and lived nearly all his life in Montana.

Jack married Arletta (Leta) Wright at the First Baptist Church on August 19, 1951. They had three children, Ray, Beth (JR Moore) and Kirk (Hope) all residing in the Portland Oregon area. Jack and Arletta had three grandchildren, Darla, Cole and Jordan who also reside in the Portland area.

Jack loved cars and anything that had a motor and went fast. He raced cars and snowmobiles. Jack was a car salesman by trade. He owned two car dealerships, College Motors and Howard Motors, in the 60's and 70's. He always had a positive attitude and enjoyed meeting and talking to people. He knew many of the families in Beaverhead County. Jack had friendships lasting over 60 years and liked talking with them often.

When Jack and Arletta retired, they spent the next 17 years traveling in their RV with their dog, Ryder. They enjoyed many winters in Arizona and Nevada. After the death of his wife in October 2020, Jack moved to Portland to be close to his children and grandchildren, but Jack missed Montana very much. He loved Montana history, and he knew every mountain, valley, and river. He was an avid hunter and greatly respected the land and wildlife of Montana. Montana will always be his home.

Jack is preceded in death by his parents, his sister Betty (Nelson), and his wife of 69 years.

He is survived by his sister Verda (Clawson) of Belgrade, his children, grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

In honor of Jack's wishes no services will be held. He will be cremated before returning to Montana. Please direct any memorials to Barrett Hospital.

Ronald Dean Kipp

1959-2023

A graveside service to honor Ron's memory will take place at the Tonopah Cemetery in Tonopah, Nevada on October 7th, 2023, at 1 p.m. Following the graveside service, there will be a celebration of Ron's life and a potluck gathering at the Tonopah Elks Lodge. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Tonopah Elks Lodge BPOE #1062.

Dillon Beavers Blow Pass Whitefish Bulldogs 47 to 7

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Beavers played their second home game tonight at Vigilante Field against the Whitefish Bulldogs. The Beavers would put up a score on the scoreboard and not look back.

The Bulldogs would struggle in the first half allowing the beavers to put up 39 points on the scoreboard. The Beavers would lead 39 to 7 after the first half.

Second half of the game would see the mercy rule put into place and the Beavers second string come out to play. The Beavers would go on to win the game 47 to 7.

Smells of the Cattle Auction

Bryce Angell

I stood next to my father. Must have been near eight years old. The auction yard was filled with cows just waiting to be sold.

The August sun bore heat on down. Turned cow manure to hot. Steam rolling off the hot manure, put out a smell like rot.

I heard one cowboy say, "Pew!" That caught my eye for sure. He said, "I spose there's nothin worse than smellin cow manure!"

The smell was nothing new to me, a normal farm boy's way. But the cowboy's words convinced my nose, "Be sensitive today."

My father said, "Let's grab a bite. The sale will soon begin." Each café stool was set so low. The counter hit my chin.

The scent of frying burgers, topped with onions, filled the air. The smell of fresh brewed coffee and tobacco smoke hung there.

But then a hint of cherry pie was teasing at my nose. I heard the waitress say, "Eat fast before your father goes."

My father gobbled down his food. I'd never ate so fast. Then we climbed the stairs and there we were, the auction sale at last.

I'd heard him talk a hundred times about the auction ring. But I don't recall him mentioning the smells the auctions bring.

The first thing that I noticed was the smell of lodgepole pine. Shavings covered most the floor and smelled like turpentine.

The benches sat up high, so we could look down at the sale. One farmer's wife brought chicken. Got a whiff with each inhale.

Then came a smell so thick and strong, it dang near made me choke. The smell was overpowering from the clouds of cigar smoke.

There ain't no doubt you'd pick up on the cigar smoke, just fine. Your smeller didn't have to be so tuned and keen as mine.

For me the smell's nostalgic. Guess it wasn't meant to last. 'Cuz smoking at the cattle auction has become the past.

Yet when I smell that cigar smoke, psyche calls it Pavlov's Dog. My mind reflects to auction day; engrained in my brain's log.

Make no mistake about the smells at the cattle auction sale. They're a combo of good memories that your brain will never fail.

Bulldogs Secure Comeback Victory Over Southern Oregon

The Montana Western football team (3-1, 1-1) came out on top over the Southern Oregon Raiders (1-2, 0-1) by a score of 24-23. The Bulldogs scored two unanswered touchdowns in the fourth quarter and drove 94 yards to put the nail in the coffin over the Raiders with 42 seconds left on the clock.

"I am just proud of the guys for fighting to the end and pulling out a game that we should not have won. We made so many errors in the first quarter alone. We had three first downs called back on penalties and a touchdown," Head Coach Ryan Nourse said. "Just all of the errors and silly things that we did, our difficulty getting off the field on third down on defense, inability to get two-point plays hurt us. It is a game we should not win but you have to learn how to win games ugly. SOU is everything we thought, they are tough, physical and fast. I am proud of our games to be able to flush a really bad half performance and put together an average one and make plays at the end to win it."

How it Happened

The Raiders were the first to put points on the board, scoring on their first play of the game on a pass from quarterback Matt Struck to receiver Jackson Clemmer for 46 yards.

The Bulldogs struggled to find the end zone on their second drive, ending in an impressive 47-yard career-long field goal from John Mears.

Down 7-3, the Bulldog secondary proved their mettle after a pair of timely breakups from Braden Swank and Brady Mounts forced a Southern Oregon three and out. The offense followed suit with another UMW scoring drive that was capped off by Mears' second field goal of the game.

Southern Oregon wasted little time in the second quarter, taking a 14-6 lead with 12:58 left in the half.

The following drive saw the Bulldogs drive 65 yards in just under five minutes for their first touchdown of the game. Palandri hit Jon Kirkley for a 17-yard touchdown pass.

The Raiders managed to run six minutes off the clock on their next possession before the Bulldog defense forced a fourth down on the Montana Western 16-yard line. Raiders' kicker Brian Batres nailed a field goal of his own to boost SOU to a 17-12 lead.

The Bulldog defense held strong for the second half, allowing just one more Raider score for the remainder of the game.

Down 23-12 in the fourth quarter, Palandri connected with Eli Nourse on back-to-back drives for two Bulldog touchdowns. The first on a 28-yard pass with 9:24 left in the game. The second on a 14-play march down the field that put the Bulldogs ahead for the first time at 24-23 with 42 seconds on the clock.

The Raiders made it interesting, picking up 57 yards on five plays. Despite the excitement, Raiders' kicker Brian Batres missed a 49-yard field goal attempt as time expired to seal the victory for UMW.

Notables

- For the third game this season, Nourse racked up more than 100 receiving yards in a game. He totaled a career-high 169 receiving yards and two touchdowns, including the go-ahead score with 42 seconds left on the clock.
- Kicker John Mears nailed a career-long 47-yard field goal on his way to hitting two field goals in the game. Mears remains perfect on the season in PATs and field goals.
- Palandri threw for 269 passing yards and completed 25 of 38 attempts.
- Braden Swank and Aiden Prado worked magic for the Bulldog secondary, combining for six pass breakups and eight tackles.
- DJ Kirven rushed for a team high 62 yards.
- Braden Smith had a day, racking up 10 tackles on defense. Reese Artz added two tackles for loss to his count, along with six tackles.

Up Next

The Bulldogs take the week off to prepare for a matchup with the undefeated No. 15 ranked Montana Tech Orediggers (4-0, 2-0), who will likely move up in the rankings after they upset the No. 7 College of Idaho in today's matchup. The Orediggers will take on Southern Oregon prior to the matchup.

Rocky Herron presentation Wednesday, Sept 27, 2023

Former DEA agent Rocky Herron uses his life experience to teach young people – never to start using drugs. He empowers young people to respect their potential in life and to make smart choices.

He speaks Wednesday, Sept 27th, at the Lewis and Clark Room on the University of Montana Western campus at 7 p.m. in a free community presentation. "Kids can make different choices if they are using drugs," Herron said. "It's not their fault if they are suffering from someone else's drug usage. Drug use isn't normal, even though society makes it seem that way!"

His program is called "I Choose My Future" which is an honest and emotional presentation that shows students, school staff, and parents the reality of drug abuse today and how that abuse impacts the individual, the family, school, community and the broader world.
He will also share information on the recent increase of FENTANYL use and overdoses.

Herron is a nationally known and highly regarded youth educator and has lectured in elementary schools, high schools, and universities in the U.S. and 14 other countries.

The Be the Change 406 Youth Coalition is sponsoring Herron's free evening presentation on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Lewis & Clark Room. All are invited. Light refreshments will be served.

Bulldog Men Claim MSU-Northern Rodeo Title in First Event, Women Finish Third in Both Rodeos

The Montana Western rodeo team was back in the arena this weekend for a four-day event in Havre, Mont. hosted by MSU-Northern. The Bulldog Men came out on top in the first rodeo of the weekend. Gavin Knutson took the men's all-around title after taking the top spot in bull riding and placing in both tie down roping and team roping. The Bulldog men finished in second in the second MSU-Northern Rodeo, while the Bulldog Women finished third in both events. "Proud of how our kids competed this week. We had several individuals step up and put themselves in good positions. We are excited and on to the next one," Head Coach JT Robbins said.

Top Performers Rodeo #1

- Trevor Kay finished in first in bareback riding with a 136 in the average.
- Knutson was named men's all-around for the first rodeo. He placed first in bull riding, putting up 160 points in two rides. He placed fifth in tie down roping with a 9.5/1 and fourth in team roping with a 22.1 with partner Cole Trexler.
- Tavy Leno placed first in goat tying after she claimed a 14.9 in the average.
- Jhet Murphy claimed first in team roping with a 12.4 with former Bulldog Ty Christensen. He also placed second in steer wrestling in the average with an 8.5.
- Jake Deveraux placed third in tie down roping with a 24.6.
- Cade Costello took third in saddle bronc riding with an average of 103.
- Trexler claimed fourth in saddle bronc with an 81 in the average.
- Erin McGinley placed third after she recorded a 6.1 in the average for breakaway roping.
- Kylie Lund placed fifth in the average for breakaway roping with a 2.5/1.
- TaLyn Neville snagged seventh with a 2.7/1 in breakaway roping.

Top Performers Rodeo #2

- Kay took first in bareback riding with a 149 in the average score.
- Knutson claimed the top spot in tie down with a 20.0. He
