Bookstore celebrates Vol 2 of the Big Hole Valley History Book

The Big hole Valley Historical Society will be at The Bookstore on Saturday, September 30th from 1:00-3:00 to celebrate the release of Volume 2 of the history book. They will be signing copies of The Big Hole Valley: Montana Pioneers, Families, Memories and Stories 1930-2000. This book is dedicated to all those that have taken the time to share their lives and memories of life in this beautiful, challenging valley. The dedication goes further encouraging people to treasure the written stories, diaries and letters they have in their families. They tell the reader that they are in need of help to continue documenting, gathering and researching stories as a continuation of the history books and encourage people to join them on this rewarding journey.

Volume 2 is filled with history, stories and photos. It shows all the ups and downs of living in a magnificent place, preserving this heritage for future generations. The proceeds from the book sales are reserved for a scholarship fund.

Each year a $2000.00 scholarship is granted to a deserving student from the Big Hole area to help them with continuing education. The goal of the historical society is to give back, to invest in the future of the area. Please join us in celebrating the release of this long awaited volume. If you have any questions or would like to reserve a copy please call 683-6807.

Fishing closures during spawning to begin for sections of Big Hole, Ruby, Beaverhead rivers

Regulations aim to reduce angling impacts on low fish numbers

Fishing will close starting Oct. 1 for sections of the Big Hole, Ruby and Beaverhead rivers to protect trout during spawning season.

The Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission adopted emergency fishing regulations in June in response to struggling fish populations in the three rivers. These restrictions limit fall angling during the brown trout spawning season in some stretches of the rivers.

Trout abundances in several areas of the three rivers have steadily declined since 2011 and are at or near historical lows. Meanwhile, fishing pressure in these areas has increased. The emergency fishing regulations aim to be responsive to fish populations in accordance with Montana's draft statewide fisheries management plan.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is also beginning new research with Montana State University to better understand and manage trout mortality, recruitment and health.

The current fishing regulations for the three rivers are as follows:

Big Hole River

Entire river

- Catch and release for Arctic grayling

Headwaters to Dickie Bridge

- Combined trout: five daily and in possession, no size restriction
- Open April 1 through Sept. 30
- Catch and release only
- Artificial lures and single-pointed hooks only. No treble or double hooks. Anglers may remove treble or double hooks from the lure and replace them with a single hook, or the shanks may be cut off the other hook points to leave a single hook. Lures with multiple hook attachments may still be used but any treble hook must be replaced by a single hook.

Beaverhead River

Entire river

- Catch and release for rainbow trout
- Brown trout: five fish daily and in possession, all fish must be less than 18 inches, except for Clark Canyon Dam to High Bridge Fishing Access Site (see special regulations below)
- Artificial lures and single-pointed hooks only. No treble or double hooks. Anglers may remove treble or double hooks from the lure and replace them with a single hook, or the shanks

Dillon Concert Association Presents Beatles Tribute Concert at UMW

The Dillon Concert Association invites all music enthusiasts and Beatles fans to join in the fun on Thursday, September 28, 2023, at 7:30 p.m. in the University of Montana Western's Beier Auditorium as tribute band "Here Comes the Sun" comes to Dillon! Enjoy a decade of Beatles hits during the opening concert of the 2023-24 DCA concert season.

"Here Comes the Sun" is an extraordinary musical celebration of a decade of Beatles Music. Not an impersonation act, this five-person band of multi instrumentalist/vocalists from Broadway, Lincoln Center, and the Trans-Siberian Orchestra create a fresh, vibrant, and one-of-a-kind concert experience that celebrates ten years of music from the Fab Four. As the popularity of The Beatles reached epic proportions, they took musical risks that led to a catalog of music like no other band has ever generated. "Here Comes the Sun" recreates this deeply-layered and multi-textured creative period using the combined efforts of five players switching between various instruments.

Single concert tickets are available at the door for $20 for adults, $10 for college students, and $6 for youth, with season tickets also available that provide membership in the Dillon Concert Association and admittance to all 2023-24 performances. Season ticket membership prices are as follows: adults - $50; college students - $10; student/youth - $6. As a bonus, the Anaconda and Butte Community Concert Associations will grant admission to their concerts to those who present a DCA membership card.

For more information or to purchase a Dillon Concert Association season ticket, please contact Laurie Hagenbarth by calling 406-683-5050.
