Award for Native Trout Management

A leading southwest Montana fisheries biologist was recently honored with a national award for his steadfast commitment to wild and native trout management and stream restoration. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks (FWP) biologist, Matt Jaeger, received the 2023 Conservation Professional of the Year from Trout Unlimited, at its annual gathering, Coldwater, Conservation, Community – CX3 on Sept. 30. His unwavering dedication to coldwater conservation was celebrated by over 300 attendees. Trout Unlimited is a national organization dedicated to conserving, protecting, and restoring coldwater fisheries.

Natural resource management requires sound science and advocacy. Conserving and restoring fisheries' health and resilience requires a unique balance of data collection and analysis, understanding of laws, the ability to convey information to a plethora of stakeholders, determination, and grit. In southwest Montana, trout and grayling are fortunate to have a talented and dynamic biologist in Jaeger.

Since 2020, Matt has shared his concerns at public meetings about the declining Brown trout populations across the Jefferson Basin, concerns that are just now grabbing headlines. In response to the decline in Brown trout numbers, along with his Region 3 colleagues, Matt brought forward critical protective regulation changes to the Fish and Game Commission and an iterative Brown trout adaptive management plan based on fish population sampling data for the Statewide Fisheries Management Plan.

He leads a multiagency, interdisciplinary coalition that developed the Westslope Cutthroat Trout Conservation Strategy for the Missouri River Headwaters of Southwest Montana. Over the last decade, Matt has been instrumental in adaptive management strategies and conservation planning to protect and recover populations of Montana's Arctic grayling, a rare, endemic population in the lower 48 found exclusively in the Upper Missouri River Basin of Southwest Montana. As a part of this critical work, he has coordinated and led efforts to model and experiment with solutions for limiting factors involving grayling spawning habitat, overwintering habitat, and competition from non-native Yellowstone cutthroat trout.

For more information about this award, contact Chris Edgington at chris@montanatu.org.

Veteran Assistance Needed

The Butte Veterans' Home has a Foundation that handles donations for resident Veterans. That foundation is operated by Trustees appointed by each of the 6 counties who sent veterans to deliberate the issue of where to locate the Veterans' Home.

Beaverhead County needs to appoint a new trustee. To be considered you must be a veteran who is willing to attend meetings at the Veterans' Home in Butte about once a month.
If you are interested in being appointed or in more information, please contact a leader of the VFW or the Legion Post, or me.

Veteran's Corner Update #224 By Mike Lawson

Veteran Updates:

• Covid booster shots are available at Ft Harrison. I did a walk-in and got my shot last week, while there, and got my flue shot at the CBOC, in Butte, earlier in the week, as a walk-in. It's easy to do and a great safety move against these hard hitting illnesses.

• The "Wall That Heals", a 3/4 size replica of the Viet Nam Wall, in Washington, DC. The fundraiser is going well and has raised close to the $11,000 to just get it here. We are anxiously awaiting, this month, for confirmation that it will be here in 2024. We're confident that it will be.

• The "Butte Toys For Tots Campaign" will kick off on the 18th of this month, at the Marine Corps League "Hooch", on Garden Ave.. We're privileged to cover Dillon, Twin Bridges/Ruby Valley, White Hall and Harrison. More about pick-up locations for applications and TFT events, in my near future "Veteran's Corner" columns. Our kick-off at the "Hooch" will be privileged with Mackenzie River Pizza providing lunch for us. We'll be putting out toy collection boxes as well as money donation boxes, starting on that date of October 18th.

• If you are a Veteran who is homeless or at risk of becoming homeless, VA Montana healthcare can help. Contact a VA office to connect with a local homeless program. Connect with a program office Homeless Program Office: Fort Harrison: 406-373-3927 Butte/Bozeman: Care we provide at VA Montana.

• An update on the Butte CBOC construction of the building's north end, dedicated to Physical Therapy and Audio. The walls are now in the process of being sheet rocked/sound-barrier- insulated. The heating/cooling ductwork will follow and then the suspended ceiling. Wayne still plans on having it turned over to the VA, by December. What a great addition this will be for SW MT Veteran's Healthcare.

• Veteran events coming up are the Marine Corps 248th Birthday and the observing of Veteran's Day, which will fall on the same day of November 10th. (In reality Veteran's Day is Nov 11th.)

I would like to pay a tribute to a good friend of mine who many in SW MT are acquainted with, in the Veteran's world. We call him Gunny Mo, but his name is Saajid Muhammad. He retired out of the Marine Corps as a Gunnery Sgt. and married a Butte girl, which brought him to Butte. He ran the prison boot camp for 13 years before becoming a Veteran's Service Officer for the Montana Veteran's Affairs Division, with his office located at the Armory in Butte. He's been with them for 7 years and travels across SW MT to Phillipsburg, Drummond, Dillon, etc.. He always dresses sharp and has a Marine Bulldog tenacity in helping veterans get the help they need.

Patagonia Outlet Dillon - Thursday Oct. 12th

Join us and Pete Bengeyfield as he walks us through his beautiful gallery of African animals and sights. These wildlife images depict not only individual species, but also the behavior that gives insight into their lives. All animals are wild, free roaming, and in their natural habitats. It is Pete's hope that these images create an appreciation of wild country, and an acknowledgement of the importance of protecting it in the future.

This event benefits Montana Wildlife Federation. Suggested donations are a minimum of $5/attendee.

Snacks and beverages provided for all!
