Bulldogs Extinguish Firestorm in 34-30 Victory

The No. 15 ranked Montana Western football team traveled to first time opponent and new Frontier Conference member Arizona Christian University (2-6, 1-5) and escaped with a 34-30 victory over the Firestorm.

How It Happened

The UMW defense got the Bulldogs off on the right foot, forcing a turnover on downs at the ACU 48-yard line. Bulldog kicker John Mears topped his previous career mark of a 47-yard field goal when he hit a 50-yarder on the Bulldog's opening drive of the game.

The Firestorm answered with a methodical 17 play and 75-yard drive that ran off more than seven minutes on the clock. The drive was capped off by a field goal from Adam Klumpp. The Bulldogs closed out the quarter with a 53-yard completion from Michael Palandri to Dylan Shipley that set the Bulldogs up on the ACU 10-yard line. On second and goal, Palandri hit Eli Nourse for an eight-yard touchdown pass giving UMW a 10-3 lead.

The Bulldogs opened up the second half with a three minute, seven play scoring drive that saw Palandri take it to the house on a 12-yard touchdown rush.

A pair of drives from the two teams burned over three minutes off the clock before ACU scored on a quick two-minute march down the field to close the gap to 20-17 heading into the final quarter of the game. Again, Montana Western found the end zone. This time on a rush from DJ Kirven that capped off a six minute, 11 play drive.

ACU made the most of their following drive as Duncan threw for a pair of 33-yard completions to Tompkins. Duncan would then finish out the drive with a five-yard touchdown rush, bringing the score back within three at 27-24.

The Bulldogs were able to hang on and close out the game on top by a score of 34-30.

Dillon Beavers Chew Through Libby Loggers To Remain Undefeated

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Beavers took to Vigilante Field Friday night with the goal of remaining undefeated. The Libby Loggers goal was to win the game so they could play in the playoffs.

Dillon dominated the game early putting points on the board within minutes of the game starting.

Quarterback Kee Christiansen would make a 64-yard run in the second quarter to help with the 35 to 0 lead going into halftime.

The beavers would receive the ball coming into the second half. Jrney Mataafa would take the return for 75 yards to put another six points on the board. The beavers would put fourteen points on the board in the third quarter in under five minutes.

The Beavers would hold the Loggers to a scoreless game as the Loggers tried to put some points on the board with a final drive.

Beavers will finish the regular season with no losses as they are ranked number one.

Chimney Fire

Bryce Angell

There's nothing like the heat that burns off from a wood stove fire.
The bright red glow and crackling wood is anyone's desire.
I don't mind sawing down a tree that's completely brown and dead.
So, while cleaning up the forest I can keep my wood stove fed.
And getting up, twice every night, to stoke the fire with wood, will teach you to be vigilant as anybody should.
Last year seemed such a long one, talking 'bout the cold and snow.
From the wood shed to the wood stove wore three holes in brand new soles.
And to top it off I plowed the ever falling snow each day, while stoking up the wood stove, kept me hostage, you could say.
It must have been a Sunday, after eating eggs and toast.
I heard a noise so loud, jet engine decibels almost.
I hurried to the wood stove feeling comatose in stare.
And there a roaring chimney fire was sucking up the air.
I was barely post of surgery. A brand new total knee.
So, climbing up the ladder was impossible for me.
My sister's husband got here faster than town gossip flies.
He was soon to be a firefighter hero in my eyes.
Our ladder was a tall one, thirty feet from ground to top.
Yes, our firefighter climbed it fast as water soaks your mop.
He carried up a bucket. Dumped water down the chimney hole.
The steam shot like a geyser but the fire still held control.
He tossed the bucket down to me. I missed. It hit the ground.
The bucket broke to pieces. Now no time to fool around.
So, I ran inside the garage I'd hung a bucket on a nail.
But instead I found our Sunday turkey brining in the pail.
I tossed the turkey and the brine, in panic, way up high.
And wondered, in confusion, why the turkey didn't fly.
I tied the bucket to a rope. Now we had a fire aide.
And finally doused the fire with our two man pail brigade.
Thank heaven for our brother who'll stay calm and use his head.
Who starts the day before the sun and early out of bed.
I can't forget the chimney fire. It caused me such a scare.
So, now I'm burning propane while sitting in my easy chair.

Kids Make Mad Dash At Annual Pumpkin Run

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Kids lined up at the starting line up Saturday for the 9th annual Pumpkin Run held at Chris Kraft Park. The run was started nine years ago by County Commissioner Mike McGinley as a political stunt and ended up turning into an annual event.

Kids lined up at the field making a plan and figuring out what pumpkin was calling their name.

The noon siren went off and after it finished McGinley yelled go and kids of all ages made a mad dash to collect the pumpkin that was calling their name.

Letter to the Editor

Re: City Judge Write-In Candidate:

I am a retired state of Idaho District Judge having served 28 years. I first met Marla Martinell when she was employed by the Bannock County Jury Commissioner here in Pocatello and she later became the Jury Commissioner for Bannock County.

Marla is a very valuable employee and she left Pocatello to take care of her parents large ranch in Montana.

Marla is applying for the City Judge in Dillon and she would be a great asset to the Montana Judiciary. She would treat everyone who appears before her with dignity and respect. She is very knowledgeable of the court system. She is very intelligent, fair and hard-working. Marla was a great asset to the Bannock County and would do the same as a Judge for the city of Dillon.

Respectfully
Peter D. McDermott

Note: Marla Martinell is a write-in candidate for Dillon City Judge

Martin, Kopp Record 500 Career Kills in Win Over Skylights

The RV Montana Western volleyball team defeated the MSU-Northern Skylights by scores of 25-10, 23-25, 25-19, 25-12.

Danyel Martin and KayLee Kopp reached a career milestone in the match after they recorded their 500th career kills in the game.

How It Happened – The Bulldogs jumped out quick in the first set, posting an impressive .432 team hitting percentage and a total of 17 kills on just one error. UMW would win in a quick 25-10 victory.

UMW carried their momentum into the second set, taking a 9-2 lead from the start. Despite the lead, the Skylgihts jumped back into the game with a 10-3 scoring run to tie the game at 12. A kill from Peyton Vogl gave the Bulldogs a narrow two-point lead but the Skylight outscored the Bulldogs down the stretch to tie the game at one each.

A pair of kills from Kaitlyn Van Well and Vogl got the Bulldogs tied up at 6 from the start of the third frame. The two teams would continue to battle back and forth until the Bulldogs were able to pull ahead following a 6-1 run that was sparked by Kopp. UMW won the set 25-19.

The Bulldogs rode momentum from late in the third into the final set. A pair of kills from Martin and Jordan Olson pushed the Bulldogs up 4-0. UMW never let up, finishing with a team .343 hitting percentage and 15 kills in the set.
