children charges against man connected to previously missing Arizona teen

The Montana Attorney General's Office is charging a Montana man linked to a previously missing Arizona teenager with two felony counts of sexual abuse of children resulting from child sexual abuse material found on his cell phone, Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced today. The charges were filed under seal last week to help ensure a safe arrest of the defendant.

Agents from the Montana Department of Justice's Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) and the Blaine County Sheriff's Department arrested Edmund Davis, 36, Monday afternoon in Chinook, Mont. The child sex abuse material was found on his cellphone, which was seized when a search warrant was executed in Havre, Mont. earlier this year. Davis is being held in the Hill County Detention Center on a $1 million bond as ordered by state District Court Judge Kaydee Snipes Ruiz.

In July, the Havre Police Department served a search warrant on Davis's apartment after learning that a woman, who went missing from Glendale, Ariz. as a 14-year-old in 2019, was living there. When she answered the door, officers observed Davis in the kitchen behind her throwing a cellphone into a trash can and placing items on top of the phone as if to hide it.

Dozens of images of suspected child sex abuse material were located on the device, confirmed to belong to Davis. Following their protocols, Glendale Police selected ten images from those found and brought them to medical experts. The review determined the individuals depicted to be under the age of 13, with two images of children under the age of 5.

The phone and other electronic devices found during the search were transferred into the custody of the DCI Computer Forensics Unit in Helena. DCI agents then obtained a separate search warrant for the electronics and identified a known child sexual abuse material photo series and other evidentiary images. The phone contained images of infants and toddlers and other computer-generated or animated content showing children being sexualized.

The first count of sexual abuse of children for knowingly possessing electronic communication images of a child or children under 12 years of age or younger engaged in sexual conduct carries a 100-year prison sentence, 25 of which may not be suspended or deferred. The second count of child abuse can result in imprisonment for life with a minimum sentence of four years.

According to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, child sexual abuse material is any visual that depicts "the sexual abuse and exploitation of children. Not only do these images and videos document victims' exploitation and abuse, but when these files are shared across the internet, child victims suffer re-victimization each time the image of their sexual abuse is viewed."

Assistant Attorney General Dan Guzyski is prosecuting the case, which was investigated by the Havre Police Department, Glendale (Ariz.) Police Department, and the Montana Division of Criminal Investigation.

FWP game wardens seek information on deer shot and wasted in Stillwater County

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks game wardens are seeking information on a mule deer buck found shot and wasted on private land between Fishtail and Absarokee in Stillwater County.

A member of the public reported the deer to FWP on Sunday, Oct. 22. Wardens investigated the situation and found the dead deer with a gunshot wound approximately 20 yards from a nearby road. The deer was likely shot on Saturday, Oct. 21, the opening day of the general big game season.

Hunters are prohibited from wasting any part of a game animal that is suitable for food, including the tenderloins, backstraps and all of the four quarters.

Anyone with possible information is asked to call the local game warden at 406-690-8888 or the FWP violation reporting hot line at 1-800-TIP-MONT. Callers may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000.

Dillon BLM plans to burn slash piles in Beaverhead, Madison counties

Along with elk bugling in the valleys and pumpkin spice lattes at the coffee drive-through, another sure sign of autumn is the smell of smoke from slash-pile burning.

It's that time of year, so the Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office will be looking for opportunities to burn slash piles in Beaverhead and Madison counties, near Wisdom, Alder and Laurin.

The slash piles to be burned near Wisdom are southwest of town and along the Swamp Creek and Gibbonsville roads. The piles near Laurin are east of town off the Mill Gulch Road. The piles near Alder are southeast of town between Williams Creek and Davey Creek.

The timing of these burns depends on weather and fuel conditions but could begin as soon as Nov. 1.

Crews will torch the piles when the ground is snow-covered or when the surrounding fuels are wet enough to minimize the potential for unwanted fire spread. Burning will take place only when weather conditions and forecasts allow for adequate smoke dispersion.

The prescribed burns will be implemented by fire managers from the BLM.

For more information about these burns, contact Greg Campbell at the Butte Field Office at (406) 533-7608

2023-24 Bulldog Men's Basketball Season Outlook

The University of Montana Western men's basketball team gets the season started this week. They have seen numerous changes throughout the offseason, including former associate head coach Pat Jensen taking the reigns of the program.

Last season, the Bulldogs finished with an overall record of 11-18 and finished at the bottom of the conference standings. Despite the outcome, the season was highlighted by a top 25 win at home over the no. 12 ranked Montana Tech. With the win, the Bulldogs picked up their first Top 25 win since the 2019-20 season.

Montana Western had three individuals recognized for their achievements in the 2022-23 season, including graduating seniors Jok Jok and Jamal Stephenson. Stephenson was named second team all-conference last season after he led the Bulldogs with 13.9 points per game and stacked up in fourth in the conference for points per game. Jok earned his spot on the all-defensive team, leading UMW with 0.9 blocks per game which was good for second in the conference.

The Bulldogs also graduated a key player in Tanner Haverfield. In five seasons for the Bulldogs, Haverfield averaged 6.9 points per game, 3.5 rebounds per game, shot 43.5 percent from the field, and dished out a total of 174 assists.

Following the conclusion of last season, head coach Mike Larsen announced his resignation. Jensen is the 13th head coach in program history and previously served as the Bulldogs' Associate Head Coach over the course of the last five seasons. Jensen played at Montana State-Northern from 2010-2015 where he was part of two regular and one postseason Frontier Conference championships, along with four appearances in the NAIA National Tournament. He spent three seasons with Idaho State University, two as a graduate assistant, and the 2017-18 season as Director of Player Development. The 2023-24 season will be his first at the helm of the program.

"We as a program are very excited for the upcoming season! Our guys have been working so hard in the weight room, in conditioning and on the practice court," Head Coach Pat Jensen said. "We have great individuals both on and off the court, and we are excited to hit the floor and compete with our team." The Bulldogs are returning six from last season's squad, including Michael Haverfield who led the conference with a three-point percentage of 48.9. Haverfield averaged 7.8 points per game, 2.4 rebounds, and was 45.3 percent from the field.

In addition, the Bulldogs return senior Grayson Nelson and a pair of redshirt sophomores in Jacob Ankeny and Jackson Burckley who saw significant playing time last season. Nelson averaged 4.1 points per game for the Red and Black and managed to shoot 50.8 from the field across the season. He also averaged 2.6 rebounds per game, totaling 58 rebounds on the season.

Ankeny rode behind a 70.2 shooting percentage and averaged 3.1 points per game. He also added a total of 77 rebounds and 12 blocks. Burckley averaged 2.7 and scored a total of 46 points for the Bulldogs. Redshirt sophomore Carson Denning and junior Christian Pitcher also return this season.

"Our six returners have hit the ground running this fall and have done a great job leading and setting the tone for our pre-season," Jensen continued. "All of them have improved over the off-season and have done a great job this fall. Their leadership and commitment to our program has been incredible, fueling our excitement for the season even more." This season, the Bulldogs added nine additions to the squad. To view the full recruiting class, click here.

"We are so excited about the nine players we signed this off-season. We brought in players with valuable college experience, size, scoring and youth with the four freshmen," Jensen said. "They have all impacted our program in a positive way and we know Bulldog fans are excited to watch them on the court."

The Bulldogs will take to the court this Saturday on the road at NCAA division II opponent MSU-Billings. Tip-off is set for 7 p.m.

General season opens with mild weather, average hunter success in southwestern Montana

Montana's general hunting season kicked off on Saturday with below-average hunter participation and near-average hunter success in many areas of southwestern Montana, despite seasonably mild weather.

Wildlife biologists with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks use check stations to collect data on hunter participation and success, as well as the species, sex and age class of the animals harvested. This supplements data collected through hunter harvest phone surveys each year.

Over opening weekend, biologists operated six check game check stations in the region and met with 1,979 hunters. Those hunters collectively harvested 106 elk, 26 mule deer and 16 white-tailed deer, among other species. Weather over the weekend was sunny and warm in many areas of the region.

Most check stations saw lower-than-average hunter numbers for opening weekend, including the Alder, Ennis, Gallatin, Mill Creek and Townsend check stations. Hunter success was at or above average for opening weekend at the Ennis, Gallatin, Mill Creek and Townsend check stations. The Divide check station saw average hunter numbers, and both the Divide and Alder check stations saw lower-than-average hunter success.

These figures do not account for different hunting season regulations over the years, which have varied from liberal to restrictive for elk and mule deer, depending on population status.

ELECT BILL KNOX FOR DILLON CITY JUDGE

My name is Bill Knox, and I am running to be the next Dillon City Judge. My background and experience listed below will confirm why I am the most qualified candidate.

Born in Dillon and raised on a ranch northeast of Dell, my Elementary and High School education was in Lima. I graduated Salutatorian in 1975, attended Montana State University and earned an Animal Science Degree.

My wife Cathy taught at Parkview Elementary for 38 years until retirement. Our two boys were born and raised in Dillon and are BCHS graduates.

Involved in the operation of our family ranch until we sold it in 2001, I have held other positions along with my ranch responsibilities. I was a Licensed Outfitter for over 20 years and have been a Certified General Real Estate Appraiser since 1994.

My involvement in Law Enforcement and the Criminal Justice system began in 1990, when I was hired as a dispatcher with the Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office. Until my retirement in 2022, I was employed with that department, part time and/or full time, for over 31 years as a Dispatcher, Reserve Deputy, Full Time Deputy, Deputy Coroner, and was appointed Undersheriff under two different Sheriffs.

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

- Member of the First Presbyterian Church.
- Active in Dillon Jaycees and Beaverhead Search & Rescue.
- Coached Little League Baseball and 4-H Shooting Sports.
- Volunteer Firefighter in Lima and EMT in Dillon.
- Founding member of Beaverhead Outdoors Association and Beaverhead Chapter of Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation.

EXPERIENCE:

- Served as bailiff during trials, gave testimony under oath, attended comprehensive court security training, and assisted prosecutors in preparation for trial.
- Extensive experience in the Civil Process, and litigation for non-criminal cases.
- Evidence Management and processing.
- Supervised the Detention Center as part of the Undersheriff duties.
- Worked closely with the County Attorney, and City Attorney when there was overlap between city and county cases.
- Transported detainees to District and City Court.
- Experience working with the Department of Criminal Investigation, Crisis Intervention Team, DUI Accountability Court, Southwest Montana Drug Task Force, and other agencies throughout the state.
- Extensive knowledge of Montana Criminal Justice Information Network, the Federal NCIC network, Municipal, Justice, District and Federal court systems.

I believe that a Judge must have comprehensive knowledge of the Montana and U.S. Constitutions, Montana Code, City and County Ordinances, and functions of the Criminal Justice System.

Above all else, a judge must remain impartial, unbiased, weigh all the evidence and facts, then render a decision.

I humbly ask for your vote to be Dillon City Judge. This is a mail in only election, so be sure to mail in or return your ballot to the Clerk and Recorder's Office located in the courthouse by 5:00 p.m. November 7, 2023.

Thank you.
