AWOL

By "Swede" Troedsson

I served as a Marine for two years in the Active Duty Reserve Program during the period 1954 -1956. I was assigned to H&S Company, 3rd Battalion, 7th Regiment, 1st Marine Division.

On our return from Korea, we were stationed in Camp Pendleton, California. Our Battalion Commander was Colonel Michner, a harsh and hated Commander. He was quick to subject a Marine who had made a minor infraction of a regulation to a Special Court Marshall, rather than to a Summary Court Marshall. The potential penalty resulting for a guilty conviction in a Special Court Marshall was a lot harsher than the potential penalty in a Summary Court Marshall. Also, many Marines were having their weekend pass canceled for frivolous reasons.

One Monday morning, our weekly Battalion Report listed 35 Marines AWOL (Absent Without Leave), 30 incarcerated in the brig, and 5 listed as Deserters (AWOL exceeding 30 days).

The next day, following an investigation by an Investigative Board comprised of Generals, Colonel Michner was removed from his command. He was replaced by Major Mitchell Paige. Many of our officers exhibited service ribbons on their chest that were earned in WWII or in Korea. Major Paige exhibited just one. It was pale blue with white stars. It recognized him as having earned the Medal of Honor for his actions in WWII. (His impressive Citation can be viewed by Googling the Medal of Honor website).

Major Paige immediately pardoned many of the Marines in the brig. Among those pardoned was a good buddy of mine. He had gone AWOL and joined a carnival in Oregon. His plan was to return before the end of thirty days to avoid being charged with desertion. He failed to take into account that the month he was AWOL was thirty-one days long! His was found guilty of desertion in a Special Court Marshall.

I was issued a .45 pistol and ordered to go to the brig and bring my buddy back to the company. When my buddy appeared at the brig gate, he wanted to know what I was doing there. I informed him I was there to return his sorry ass back to our company. He'd been pardoned!

Bulldog Volleyball Defeats Carroll College in Road Matchup

The RV Montana Western volleyball team (18-3, 5-2) defeated the Carroll College Saints (5-18, 0-7) 3-1 by scores of 22-25, 25-15, 25-23, and 25-17.

How It Happened

The momentum was not with the Bulldogs for the first set, trailing the Saints early on 15-10. Though down 19-15, UMW fought behind the serving hand of Kaylee Fritz to tie the game at 19 following her first of four service aces of the night. Despite the late effort, Carroll drove home the final points to take the first set win.

The Bulldogs righted the ship in the second set after falling behind 8-7. A kill from Jazi Smith was paired with a kill from Jordan Olson to put UMW in front. The Bulldogs continued on an 8-0 scoring run that featured three service aces from Fritz. The Bulldogs took the second set 25-15 after posting a team hitting percentage of .267.

Tied at a set apiece, the two teams continued to trade points, knotting the game up eight times throughout the set. Despite the back-and-forth battle, UMW was able to close out the set win following two kills from Danyel Martin.

UMW jumped out to a quick 7-1 lead in the final set, taking an early advantage. Carroll was able to bring the game back within just three points before the Bulldogs would ride a 7-0 scoring run and claim momentum of the game. UMW went on to claim the final set 25-17.

Notables

- Tonight's win marks the first time since the 1998 season that the Bulldogs have defeated the Saints three times in a single season.
- The Bulldogs' four game win streak over the Saints stands at just one win away from tying the overall longest win streak over Carroll College in program history.
- Peyton Vogl totaled an impressive six assisted blocks in the matchup for 1.5 blocks per set. She added 11 kills and a .333 hitting percentage.
- Martin had a team best of 14 kills, along with three blocks. Olson followed with 12 kills from the right side.
- Fritz had a successful day leading the Bulldogs with 32 assists, four serving aces, and 10 digs.
- Kelsey Goddard led the back row with 26 digs. KayLee Kopp followed with 18 digs.

Put the Worry of Colon Cancer Behind You

Schedule your colonoscopy screening today.

Colon cancer can be a life altering disease. However, early screening can help to significantly increase the survival rate. A colonoscopy is still the best tool to help you detect, treat, beat, and even prevent colon cancer entirely. Schedule an appointment with your primary care provider to start the conversation about this potentially life-saving screening. It could be the best decision you'll ever make.

Call 406-683-1188 to schedule a pre-colonoscopy appointment with your Barrett Hospital & HealthCare provider, or visit barretthospital.org for more information.
