Karla Mae Rawson

On the morning of October 19, 2023, Karla Mae Rawson, 58, passed peacefully in her sleep at her home in Helena, MT. Karla was born in Dillon, MT on December 25, 1964, to Joseph (Leo) and Dorothy Rawson. Karla was the youngest of four children.

Karla graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1983. She was a member of the FHA and won many trophies for badminton during her school years. Karla continued her schooling with a cosmetology license and worked as a beautician, then shifted to caregiving in which she continued through various positions the rest of her life as a CNA, Ward Clerk, Direct Support Professional, and more between Clancy and Helena, MT.

Karla loved funny quotes, wolves, and Native American décor, all of which decorated her home. She enjoyed crosswords, puzzles, cooking, and spending time with her grandchildren.

Karla is survived by her parents, Joseph (Leo) and Dorothy Rawson of Dillon; Daughters Meagen (Cory) Walker of Helena and Michelle (Ken) McDonald of Whitehall; Brothers Adrian Rawson of Polaris and Gayle (Terry) Rawson of Dillon; Sister Grayce Rawson of Dillon; grandchildren Brooke, Urijah, Ashlyn, and Shyann Walker, and Aleena and Logan McDonald; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A service for friends and family will be held at the Beaverhead County Search and Rescue in Dillon, MT, November 5th at 1 pm. Karla spent her last 5 years taking care of the disabled at West Mont in Helena, MT. Donations in her honor can be made to this non-profit organization.

Celebrate the Wood Bank at Beaverhead Brewing Co. Pint Night Nov. 10

When the temperature drops, most of us like to turn up the thermostat at home. However, some households struggle with the cost of heat among many necessities. The Beaverhead Community Wood Bank Ministry is a homegrown, all-volunteer charity that provides gifts of firewood to help warm the homes of our neighbors in need. Last winter 155 cords were distributed among 52 households. (A cord is a stack of wood 4 ft. x 4 ft. x 8 ft.) So far this fall, the Wood Bank has distributed close to 50 cords of firewood, and forty households have been approved to receive firewood, based on income limitations and disability concerns. Each qualified household may receive up to three cords of wood to help heat their home this winter.

The firewood isn't free – it is priceless. Last year 2,333 volunteer hours were logged by 37 local volunteers and 55 cadets from the Montana Youth Challenge Academy. Each year the Beaverhead community has stepped forward in extraordinary ways to support the Wood Bank. United Way and many generous individuals and organizations have contributed to meet Wood Bank expenses. On behalf of the households warmed by gifts of firewood, THANK YOU for your support. It wouldn't be possible without you!

The Wood Bank's major expense is for logs. Last year, the Wood Bank spent $26,337.00 on logs. Most of the wood comes from dry, dead timber salvaged from logging areas on private, State, or Federal lands, purchased in semi-truck loads. This fall, the price of a truckload of logs has risen to $2,100.00. Each truckload is processed by volunteers into 10-11 cords of firewood, so about 15 truckloads are needed to meet the goal of 150 cords (a total cost of $31,500.00). In addition, there are operational expenses for fuel and equipment, insurance, phone, bookkeeping, etc. So, fundraising is always on the Wood Bank's agenda.

Recently the Beaverhead Community Wood Bank Ministry and the Ruby Valley Wood Bank have received grants of $20,000.00 each from The Alliance for Green Heat (AGH), a nonprofit organization partnering with the U.S. Forest Service and others to distribute Federal funds to firewood banks under section 40803(c)(17) of the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law. To learn about AGH and firewood banks around the country, visit the web site <https://www.firewoodbanks.org>. While 95% of this Federal grant is dedicated to the purchase of logs, the Beaverhead Community Wood Bank Ministry will still need about $20,000.00 from other sources to cover expenses through 2024.

The Beaverhead Brewing Company is hosting their third annual Pint Night to celebrate the Beaverhead Community Wood Bank Ministry on Friday November 10, from 4:30 to 8 pm. There will be a 50:50 raffle as part of the event. Assorted snacks will be provided. For information about the Wood Bank or Pint Night, contact Rick Hartz at 406-683-4506.

Cold Weather Did Not Stop A Handful Of Witches For The 6th Annual Witches Brigade Ride

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

It was a cold wintry night on Monday, October 30th but that didn't stop a handful of witches from meeting at The Depot Park and taking part in the sixth annual witches brigade.

About fifteen brave souls gathered in a circle as the head witch read the sacred papers for the Witches Brigade to start the ride through the streets of Dillon. With one last group cackle the witches mounted their trusty rides and took off cackling at all as they rode by. Causing many to stop and pull out their phones.

Wade Hansen & Grandson Hiking Adventures

In October of this year, after turning 74, Wade Hansen and his grandson Kyle Fadness continued hiking together by hiking trails in the Portland, Oregon area, where Kyle now lives. This photo was taken at the end of the trail at McNeil point, on the north side of Mount Hood. The second day they hiked to Angel Rest, a hill overlooking the Columbia River. Between the two days they hiked 14 miles and 4500 feet of elevation gain. Since Kyle was 8 years old they have climbed 25 mountains and have hiked other trails together.

Goblins & Ghosts Overtake Idaho Street For Fall Fest

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

Fall Fest was in full swing Saturday, October 28, as kids dressed in their favorite costume and took over Idaho Street.

Fall Fest is sponsored by the Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture the festival ran from 2 to 5 PM on Saturday. Booths line Idaho street with fun prizes, games, and candy. Kids of all ages are invited to come and participate in the event.

The library was turned into a haunted house and had free admission. The scary haunted Metlen Hotel tours also provide a scary pastime. Badger Archery set up 3-D targets for only $10 to shoot. DRM Motors and Dillon Video sponsored a trunk or treat as well for Fall Fest.
