Montana Western Celebrates First Generation College Student Day

To celebrate the seventh annual National First-Generation College Student Day, the University of Montana Western is recognizing its first-generation students, faculty, and staff. November 8th marks the 58th anniversary of the Higher Education Act of 1965, which increased funding for universities, scholarships and student loans.

"First-generation" refers to students whose parents have not obtained a four-year college degree. The Montana Western TRIO program provides them with a support system to help them navigate the landscape of higher education.

The day recognizes first-generation college students; to celebrate the accomplishments they have made and the barriers they have broken. Montana Western and the TRIO Student Support Services staff continue to work hard to make a college degree attainable for everyone. We'd like to invite you to meet some of our inspiring first-generation students, faculty, and staff.

Keaton Piedalieu

Keaton is a first-year Montana Western student from Charlo, Montana, majoring in Kinesiology. For Keaton, being a first-generation college student was intimidating when he first arrived on campus.

"Overall, coming into college as a first-gen student was nerve-racking. Having little idea about what to expect from the college experience caused a lot of questions that really can only be answered through experiencing it firsthand," Keaton said.

He is thankful for programs like TRIO that provided him with guidance as he began his college career.

"TRIO has been a critical part of making me feel welcome and helping ease my way into college life. They provided me with early resources and opportunities to develop friendships right when I got to campus. They have taught me how to be a better student as well as navigated me through processes like registering for classes and I am thankful to have their support," he said.

Gracie Stanton

Gracie is a junior from Hamilton, Montana, majoring in History and Secondary Education. Being a first-generation student has presented challenges for Gracie but she has used this as motivation to help achieve her goals.

"Being a first-generation student has been a unique and challenging experience, which can present both obstacles and opportunities. Many first-generation students are highly motivated to succeed, not only for themselves, but to also set an example for their families and future generations," said Gracie.

Montana Western's student support services are a valuable resource and will continue offering guidance throughout Gracie's academic journey at UMW.

"Institutional support and mentorship programs have played a crucial role in easing the transition to college as a first-gen student. It has connected me with peers who share similar experiences as well as provided a sense of belonging and support. It is an exciting opportunity to pursue higher education which can lead to new possibilities and career paths," she said.

Chrissy Stokes

Chrissy is a graduate of Montana Western and the current Director of Admissions. As an alumna, Chrissy knows exactly what it is like to be a first-generation student at UMW and the support that is offered to help students succeed.

"As a first-generation college student, the college process was very exciting but full of uncertainty. My parents offered a lot of support. They always encouraged me to use my resources and ask questions. Montana Western was the best choice for me because I never had to ask twice to get a question answered. I was also able to rely on my admissions recruiter, my faculty and TRIO advisors, and Montana Western's staff and faculty to help me throughout my college career," said Chrissy.

TRIO will be hosting a tabling event in UMW's Lucy Carson Library on Wednesday, November 8, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. to celebrate First-Generation Student Day. Students can stop by to receive a button and learn more about first-generation students at Montana Western. Current first-generation students can enter for the opportunity to win a $100.00 scholarship donated by the University of Montana Western Foundation.

Melrose School Holiday Bazaar

The Melrose School Holiday Bazaar will be held December 2nd from 9 am - 3 pm at the Divide Grange Hall.

Shakespeare in the Schools' "As You Like It"

The University of Montana Western's Theatre Department and Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series are excited to announce two matinee showings of Shakespeare in the Schools' "As You Like It" to be held on Wednesday, December 13, 2023, at 9:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. in UMW's Small Auditorium.

A story of entangled romance and comedy, where all the world's a stage, "As You Like It" is a keep-you-on-your-toes production, sure to captivate audiences with its happily ever after.

'As You Like It' is a delightful, pastoral comedy about characters who are forced to face very real, very dangerous circumstances, and who are made stronger for the experience."

Shows will be held in UMW's Small Auditorium in Main Hall 314 at 9:30 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Student and school group pricing is available for $4 per seat. Please contact Adjunct Assistant Professor of Theatre, Stephen Seder at stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038 to reserve seats for your students (limited seating available).

To purchase tickets, please visit the BOC Performing Arts Series Box Office webpage (www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/box-office/). Tickets are $15 for general admission, $10 for senior, youth, and military, and free for UMW students who present their Bulldog Cards.

"All the World's a Stage": Personalizing Poetry Workshop

A free workshop will take place in the Small Auditorium from 11:20 a.m. to 12:10 p.m. between shows. The "Seven Ages of Man" speech, given by the character Jaques in "As You Like It", is one of Shakespeare's most famous and oft-quoted pieces of text. In this workshop, students will critically analyze the speech and then recreate, rewrite, and act out their interpretations for one another.

Workshop participation is limited. Please contact Stephen Seder to reserve a spot: stephen.seder@umwestern.edu or 406-683-7038.

For more information on "As You Like It" and all shows in the BOC series, visit the BOC webpage: www.umwestern.edu/bank-of-commerce-performing-arts-series/.

Veteran's Corner Update #229
 By Mike Lawson

Veteran News:

- The Marine Corps Birthday Ball, in Butte, was a great time for those who attended and plans for next year will begin in the near future. Sheriff Ed Lester was well received and I was told he gave a great speech.
- The Veteran's Day events, in Butte, went well with the ceremony taking place at the Civic Center. There was a good crowd that attended and Judge Jerome McCarthy, the keynote speaker, was well received. The Veterans at the SW MT Veterans Home, expressed appreciation for the SW MT Veteran's Council Honor Guard's American Flag presentation, given at each of the Cottages. The Veteran Race starting and ending at the American Legion Post #1 Hall, saw many runners participate. This is the oldest race of this kind in Montana and goes back to at least 1935. Tom Straugh, down Dillon way, reported that the Veteran's free breakfast for the community went real well. The donations and auction proceeds, more than covered their expenses. Younger veterans are encouraged to join the VFW and American Legion there, to continue to carry the torch that these aging veterans have carried for many years. The Mac's last Cast Cafe, gave free Fish and Chips meals to any Veteran who walked through the door. Gary Shelton, from Anaconda, said they had a great Marine Corps Celebration. He said the food was very good and to mention that Donovan's offers a free dinner to veterans every Wednesday night between 5:00 PM and 8:00 PM. Veteran's Day saw a ceremony take place at the Vietnam Memorial. Larry Spangburg, from Deerlodge, reported that the Veteran's Day Ceremony, at the Cemetery, went well but had low attendance. The Elk's Veteran's Day Dinner was appreciated by the many veterans who attended. Twenty four patriotic quilts were give to veterans. The Elk's women members, made the quilts. What would we do without our ladies who do so much.
- Veteran's Day occurs on November 11 every year in the United States in honor of the "Eleventh hour of the 11 day of the eleventh month", which signaled the end of World War I. More on this special day in the next Veteran's Corner column.

This year's CAP reunion ended on Sunday evening with a great banquet and a speech by Frank McCarthy, Major USMC Ret. that brought the memories of the hardships of being in combat when most of us were 18 to 22 years of age, to mind. We were kids fighting for our country and proud to do so.
