Tim Peek

November 15, 2023, after 7 years of cancer treatments and numerous surgeries Tim Peek at 66 years old went to sleep in his flesh body and awoke in his spiritual body, happy, pain free and surrounded by those he loved and missed.

We thank God for the extra time we got to have with him, but God has plans for him in heaven now!

As a kid he enjoyed ice hockey, swimming, boating, water skiing and playing in a band as a teenager with his friends Duane, Greg and Ken in Minnesota. He worked building silos on a pig farm, was a garbage man, graduated High School and soon after moved to Dillon where he set irrigation pipe on a ranch, Safeway and eventually at Barretts Minerals, running loader, wash plant supervisor (when they sorted by hand!), drove truck at the mine and lab technician where he had his secondary family that included Dave, Fred, Jack, Grayce, Tim, Dan, Mike, Jackie and many others.

He enjoyed skiing and hunting when he had better knees. Also, fishing, family camping trips, Labor Day with the family reunion and horseshoe tournament, snowmobiling, 4-wheeler rides and flying. He loved flying and got his pilots license around 1998. He loved the fly ins they had in Dillon and helping to pilot the kids around and signing their certificates for Little Flyers. He loved to rent the Cessna 170 in Dillon and fly friends and family around the valley and to other towns. At times landing outside of Dell and walking to the Yesterdays Café across the highway for lunch or taking lunch and landing in another town. When some of the grand kids were little, he would take them to get Taco Bell then drive up to the airport in Billings to watch the airplanes land that Gabe called del pings.

He met his first wife Peggy in Dillon, and they had a daughter named Melissa. Years later he married his second wife Gail, and they had a daughter named Cara. He doted over them and loved them dearly; he was a wonderful dad.

They eventually parted ways and Tim lived the bachelor life for 21 years. He finally tired of the single life and tried the new website Match.com and met, then married his wife of 16 years Victoria and gained a stepson Nathan and stepdaughter Jamie with husband Kevin.

He loved watching his Vikings play, 'even when they were re-building' and the Twins. Over the years he ended up with 12 grandchildren he loved dearly. He had a great sense of humor and a wonderful smile and laugh.

Tim was proceeded in death by his dad Harold, mom Myrtle, brothers Larry, Dave and Kenny. Tims large family includes but is not limited to: wife Victoria, daughter Melissa and grandkids Gabe, Kenny and Peyton. Daughter Cara and grandkids Acadia (Jonah), Collin and Jace. Son Nathan (Chealsey) grandkids Adrianna,

Aunt Edna's Turkey

Bryce Angell

My Great Aunt Edna, from the Yaak, lacked culinary skills.
She lived up in Montana, all alone in them, there hills.
Last week Aunt Edna sent an invitation to her kin.
Her invite claimed she'd learned to cook. Was Edna sipping gin?
She said she'd corresponded with a chef from Paris, France.
And she'd like to serve a turkey feast if we would give her this one chance.
I cornered my physician. Would he lie and claim I'm ill?
But the Doc said, "That's unethical." Should've shown him my last bill.
Not a single other kin was going to drive to Yaak that day.
My heart was feeling heavy for old Edna, in a way.
I looked at Hap. He gave a bark and then he shook his head.
He'd tasted Edna's table scraps. I bet Hap thought, "I'm dead!"
But when a man is dying, maybe poisoned in the end.
I'd say it is a privilege to go out with man's best friend.
So, Hap and I drove to the Yaak. We knocked on Edna's door.
She yanked us in. That's when I noticed feathers on her floor.
I'm not the sharpest fellow, but a turkey came to mind.
The smell of burning feathers, yes, a turkey's what we'd find.
Depending on the time of year and temperature outside.
Aunt Edna's home would be a place for her animals to abide.
The chickens roamed about the house but cage free hens for no less.
And where to find the eggs, I'd say, was anybody's guess.
Edna's voice, more shriek than loud, not like the aunts of mine, came screeching out those dreadful words, "Please sit.
It's time to dine."
I offered grace but didn't really get a chance to say,
"Please bless this food, and by the way, don't let us die today."
The biscuits were a golden brown, but hard and extra heavy.
The turkey was so tough I bet she had to grind the gravy.
The pie is still a mystery. Not pumpkin a'la mode.
But maybe squash or canned mincemeat, outdated and too old.
I'd have to say that Edna's cooking hadn't changed a bit.
And if you were a dinner guest you had to have some grit.
But one fine thing 'bout Edna, at the end of every day.
She'll share her turkey from a flask. "Wild Turkey" you could say.

Beavers Claim State A Football Title With 36 to 35 Nail Biter Overtime Win

Jeremy Crawford, Southwestern Montana News

The Dillon Beavers faced off against the Columbia Falls Wildcats Saturday afternoon at Vigilante Field with one goal in mind: To finish with no losses and claim the State Class A title.

Columbia Falls got things started off with receiving the ball and scoring quickly. The Beavers would soon put up seven points as well, and the end of the first quarter would see the game tied 7 to 7.

In the second quarter both teams would score again, going into halftime 14 to 14.

By the end of the third quarter the Beavers would have the lead over the Wildcats 28 to 14.

With little time left in the fourth, the Wildcats would tie up the game. The Wildcats would score a touchdown followed by the field goal, heading into overtime.

Dillon would come back to answer very quickly, scoring a field goal and finish the Wildcats by going for the extra two points.

Congratulations to both teams on a hard fought State Championship game!
