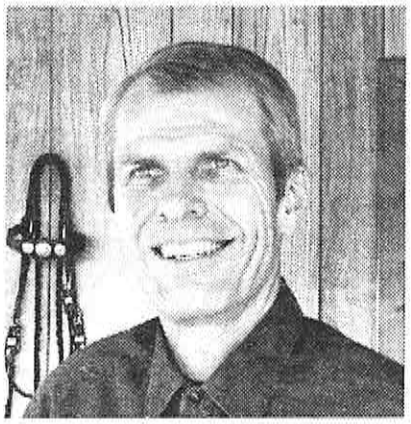
Gregory Rogness Notice of Death

3/10/53-11/21/23

Gregory Rogness was a long-time resident of Dillon Montana; he has spent most of his time living in Pioneer Care and Rehab. Greg has survived by his loving brother Randy Rogness, sister-in-law Barbara Rogness, and longtime companion Julie Patterson. Greg was born in Ettrick, Wisconsin and was a huge Green Bay Packer's fan, he often spoke of returning home to Wisconsin and starting a farm. Greg was a familiar face to all the Dillon community and will be deeply missed by all that knew him."

Jerome Yetter

October 22, 1947 — November 16, 2023



Jerome "Jerry" Yetter, passed away on the morning of Thursday, November 16th as the result of an horrific traffic accident. He was 76 years old.

The son of Wilbert George Yetter and Audrey (Jacobson), Jerry was born on October 22, 1947 in Marinette, WI. Adventurous and independent from an early age when, at 3 years old, he decided it was time to go to school and simply hiked the miles from the family farm to the Harneau School attended by his elder brother, Gerald. At age 4, his father had him driving tractor in the row crops. He was too small to turn the tractor around, but could keep it going in the rows. That worked well until the tractor hit a rut, jumped out of the row and tore out some fencing and a gate. Jerry's angry dad jumped on and unceremoniously tossed him from the tractor. His mom stepped in and put an end to tractor operation for a few years.

The family left the farm when his father began a career in quality home construction, Jerry accompanied his father to work and helped at first by simply cleaning up the job site but soon he too was heavily involved with the construction work. His skill level and responsibility advanced as his knowledge grew. By the time he was 11 the family had moved to Sugar Camp on Jennie Webber Lake in Northern Wisconsin, continuing the construction business. By then Jerry was laying as many concrete blocks as grown men and became foreman of one of his father's crews. He developed a strong work ethic and pride in accomplishments that defined his entire life. In college at UW Stevens Point he worked nights driving semi trucks delivering fresh bread to stores. Opportunity knocked and he was contracted to remodel the home of the Dean of Men, then the Dean of Women's house and eventually many other faculty houses.

His construction jobs (and playing Hearts at a penny a point) financed his college expenses until he listened to another calling and enlisted in the U.S.M.C., completing Officer Candidate School at Quantico, VA in 1966. He often commented that enlisting in the Marines with a war on was probably the dumbest thing he ever did, yet he took immense pride in his military service.

While visiting old friends at Stevens Point he was introduced to a little long haired blonde. He invited her to go for a ride on his dog sled, never knowing that she'd dreamed of experiencing that since childhood. On their second date the very next night, Jerry asked Sam to marry him and they eloped to Alaska.

Both Jerry and Sam have always been active with varied pursuits. Jerry earned his pilot's license, and operated an FBO. His Master Electrician's license led to becoming head of Montana's Electrical Safety Bureau and a member of the national code writing panel. Together they raised two boys, Matthew and Jeremy, born two years apart. The family raised Brown Swiss cattle and ran their own dairy. Jerry was extremely proud of both their sons, who each earned their Eagle rank as Lone Scouts under Jerry's watchful eye. Together with their sons, the family enjoyed hiking, biking, motorcycling, four wheeling, canoeing, white water rafting, camping and earned their skydiving licenses. They raised and trained horses, especially Paso Finos, and enjoyed turning young animals into willing partners in their escapades. Most of all, Jerry loved his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Jerry is preceded in death by Jeremy. He is survived by "Sam," Matthew (also a Dillon resident), brother Gerald, aunts Lettie Mae Thurrow and Jen Bhenke, as well as numerous cousins, nieces and nephews, and countless friends.

A small graveside ceremony with military honors will be held Wednesday, November 29th, 1:00 p.m. at Point of Rocks Cemetery south of Twin Bridges, MT. Post-service refreshments will be at First Presbyterian Church in Dillon. A Celebration of Life ceremony and festivities will be held at a to-be-determined date in the spring. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting that donations be made to Dillon Emergency Services or the Patriot Guard.

HOLIDAY BLOOD DRIVE

A Dillon community blood drive will be held on Tuesday, December 5, 2023 from 11:30 to 6:00 PM at the Elks Lodge. The drive is facilitated by Vitalant and sponsored by the Presbyterian Church. Appointments can be made by calling 406-683-3696, 877-258-4825 or log on to donors.vitalant.org and follow the prompts.

This blood drive will help replenish Montana's blood supplies for the upcoming holiday season. Blood can only be stored for 42 days, so the blood that is collected now will save the lives of hospital patients or those receiving medical treatments during the holidays.

To donate blood, volunteers must be at least 16 years old (with pa-rental permission), weigh at least 110 pounds and be in good health. A donor must not have donated within the last eight weeks. Your blood donation is very important, so if you can donate, won't you call or go online?

Please bring your Vitalant Donor card or photo ID. Join us for some holiday treats and save a life!

PARADE OF LIGHTS event, Friday, Dec. 1st .

Attorney General Knudsen offers tips to avoid cyber scams this holiday season

As Montanans prepare for Black Friday and Cyber Monday shopping, Attorney General Austin Knudsen is issuing a reminder to be aware of common scams, which tend to increase during the holiday season.

"Online shoppers make easy targets for scammers, so stay vigilant and cautious as you order gifts and make virtual donations this Christmas season," Attorney General Knudsen said. "Don't let a scammer ruin the holidays for you and your family."

Attorney General Knudsen shared the following tips and reminders to avoid falling victim to an internet scam while shopping this holiday season:

- When making a purchase through social media: verify the company, ensure the website is secure before paying, check the account's public information, and be cautious when clicking links.
- Be wary of a false sense of urgency. Trust your gut. If it seems too good to be true, it probably is.
- Use a credit card for online shopping so you can track your purchases and dispute any charges you didn't make or don't recognize with the credit card company. Do not use wire transfers or gift cards to make a payment. Anyone who asks you to pay using one of these methods is most likely a scammer.
- If you're asked to donate to a charity, give wisely. Ask questions and donate only when you're satisfied that your money will be used in ways you consider appropriate. Be wary of callers who use high pressure tactics or those who promise you sweepstakes winnings in exchange for your contribution.
- Do not send gift cards, prepaid debit cards, or cryptocurrency to someone you do not know. Even if you think it is someone you know, verify their identity before you wire any money.
- Never cash checks that you weren't expecting.
- When purchasing gift cards, check the terms and keep the receipts. Remember, Montana law stipulates that gift cards and gift certificates do not expire unless the business is sold. Gift cards can also be redeemed for cash if they were originally for more the $5 but have less than $5 remaining.

Montanans can report any phone, email, or mail scams to the Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection at https://app.doj.mt.gov/OCPPortal/?q=node/396, contactocp@mt.gov, or (406) 444-4500 or toll free at (800) 481-6896.

Vacancy Announcement: Drug-Free Community Project Coordinator

Special Requirements: An exciting opportunity currently exists for a dynamic individual to impact the reduction of underage drinking and other substance use and misuse in Beaverhead County!

The Drug-Free Communities Project Coordinator position will be expected to develop and nurture community partnerships, provide leadership and support of multiple community sectors and age groups, and maintain grant-required measures and reports with integrity.

The successful Project Coordinator must be a self-motivated, organized person who is able to communicate effectively with diverse populations. Strong writing and computer skills are required including creating visual aids, Web content management and advanced knowledge of Microsoft Office applications.

A bachelor's degree in a social service-related field and/or significant experience as program administrator or project manager required along with relevant experience with alcohol and drug prevention, intervention, treatment, and recovery. This full-time position requires occasional irregular hours and travel as well as travel around and outside Beaverhead County.
