Georgia Mae Huffaker

Georgia Mae Huffaker our beloved mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and friend, passed away on November 11th 2023 at the age of 92. She passed at the Cedarwood Independent Living Community in Sandy, Utah, surrounded by family and friends.

Georgia was born on January 17, 1931 in Park City, Utah, the third of three daughters born to George and Irene Butler. Her older sisters loved and adored her and spoiled her rotten. She loved being the baby of the family and all the attention it brought. Georgia loved growing up in Park City, which will always hold a piece of her heart. She married Calvin Huffaker on February 22, 1950. Later sealed on May 6, 1955 in the Salt Lake City Temple.

In 1959 Calvin and Georgia moved their little family to Dillon, Montana, to begin a career in farming and ranching and raise their four children. Georgia began working at The Oilmart Furniture and Appliance Store and later she worked at many other local businesses. She loved to be around people. Her smile, personality, and kindness melted the hearts of everyone she touched.

Georgia's greatest joy came from loving and caring for her family and others. She loved to sew, crochet, and decorate her home. She loved performing and sharing her musical talent. Singing with the Latter-day Sounds and ward choir was 'the highlight' of her life. She served in many callings for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Some of her most rewarding and happiest years were spent serving in the Primary. She dearly loved the children, and oh how they loved her!

In her later years, she continued to serve in the community. Georgia loved working at Barrett Memorial Hospital greeting people with her bigger than life smile, which made every one's day a little brighter. She also loved serving on the committee for The Festival of the Trees. The highlight of the Christmas season was the fudge she would make to share with others and donate to The Festival of the Trees. She was a beloved resident of Dillon for over sixty years.

Georgia will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her. She is survived by children Paula Kay Poulson of Salt Lake City, Steven Grant Huffaker (Dana) of Polaris, Montana, and daughter-in-law Christine Huffaker (Mark) of Sandy, Utah. Grandchildren, Jenny Snow (Spencer), Lindsay Cox (Dash), Burke Poulson (Amber), Meggan Thomas (Derrick), Brandon Huffaker (Jodi), Dustin Huffaker (Lygia), Kezlee Monaco (Kevin), Chris Huffaker, Nick Huffaker (Shauna), Tyeson Huffaker (Adriana), Celeste Huffaker (Mike), Tara, and Amber. Georgia was preceded in death by her husband Calvin, sons

Fish and Wildlife Commission to postpone hearing on upland game bird hunting regulations, seasons

The Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission hearing originally scheduled for Dec. 14 on the proposed regulations governing upland game bird hunting seasons has been postponed until a later commission meeting.

During the public comment period earlier this fall, the public shared insights about hunter experiences in the field, and the department wanted to extend public comment and add time to the hearing at a later meeting so that the commission could make a fully informed decision.

For a full agenda, background on the scheduled topics and public comments, go to the Fish and Wildlife Commission page on the FWP website.

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by: Mel Rice Public, Relations Officer

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue was paged out at 9:45 AM on the 23 of November. It was reported there was an overdue hunter in the Scudder Creek area in the Grasshopper Valley. Before anyone could be deployed the alarm was cancelled.

Friday night, November 24, at 10:00 PM the search managers were paged again for an overdue 15 year old young man. He, his father, and other family members from Kentucky were hunting in the Woody Mountain area of Warm Springs Creek outside of Jackson. At 4:00 PM the young man told his father he was going to look at something. After wondering out of sight he never returned to the vehicle. His gear was very limited for the weather conditions. The dad said the young man had a compass but didn't know how to use it.

At 10:50 PM the Peterson hasty team living in the Big Hole headed for Warm Springs Creek to meet up with the deputy Sheriff. At 11:00 PM the deputy was with the father and the two of them were heading back to the last known point. Between 11:00 PM and 11:30 PM hasty teams were deployed from Dillon to Bull Creek and to Warm Springs Creek by Jackson to meet up with the dad and deputy Sheriff. At approximately 12:30 AM the lost young man was located by the Sheriff. He was close to the road and used his head lamp to signal the deputy and dad of his location.

When finally picked up, the lost man was in good health but a little cold and shaken. It was 6 degrees Fahrenheit at that time in Jackson. Dad, son, and family were reunited. By 12:50 AM all hasty teams had been notified of his location and were returning to Dillon. All teams were accounted for and home by 2:30 AM.

Members involved in the search were:

- Team 1: MD Peterson, Sam Peterson
- Team 2: Steve Mock, Adam Norlander
- Team 3: Shane Puyear, Parker Puyear, Kolby Malesich
- Team 4: Cody Schnee, John Helle
- Team 5: Lawrence Morrisroe, Joe Reyes, Dan Cahill
- Team 6: Clint Rouse, Parke Scott, Trevor Hyland
- Command Ops: Mel Rice, Chuck Maddox

Sometimes it seems silly to take all the right gear with you even when it is going to be just a quick check of something. This is a great example of that. He was just going to check something out right over there. 8.5 hours later the young hunter was pretty happy to see someone. Don't take things for granted; always plan for the worst scenario. "In the Business of Saving Lives", your Beaverhead Search and Rescue.
